Greetings,

Another week has passed, and here I am back at the key board again. I would like to tell you that a lot has happened since the last letter, but I can't. We still have not heard from the Administration, but as I said at our last meeting, now is not the time for our hearts and spirits to diminish. We must continue to strive towards our goals, and we must continually remind ourselves of what those goals are. Realize that those goals are attainable, and consider what we have already accomplished. I assume that before the next meeting, another article in the HERALD will be written about us. Look for Tuesday's edition. The reporter seemed committed to producing a fair and accurate account on what we are doing, so we remain hopeful and anxious.
