COLLECTION NOTE

This collection includes interviews conducted by Sara Jane McNulty relating to the South Union Shaker village, near Auburn in Logan County, Kentucky. McNulty interviewed several area residents, about their memories of the Shakers. Topics include the founding of the Shaker Museum at South Union, architecture, tenant farming, children adopted by the Shakers, worship practices, dress, and the role of women. All of the interviews are recorded on cassette tapes and include an index and transcription. The transcriptions were completed by Annamary Fitzgerald using a grant from the Kentucky Oral History Commission.
