CHAPTER MEETING

September 4, 1973

EAE

The first formal meeting was held at the Newman Center due to the current heat wave hitting this part of the country. Brother Moore, our BA, presided and made note of the required attire which is to be shoes, shirt, and other necessary items.

Gary Donaldson is allowing open visitation if the ladies are escorted up the back stairs and kept behind closed doors. There cannot be any partying or the privilege will be revoked. Beer will be permitted in cups only while out of rooms.

The salute will be re-initiated when addressing the chair. The new Courtesy chairman is Dick Grise. Special thanks went out to Leann White and Judy Peeler for helping get the house in good shape this past weekend and also to Brother Kelly for the use of his cabin for retreat.

It has been decided, since the retirement of Reed Morgan, that we need three advisors in these areas: Chapter Management and Alumni--Mike Owsley; Financial--Charlie Moore; and Faculty has not been decided on.

Little Sister Chairman is also Dick Grise.

Serenading of the Sweetheart will be Sept. 16, a Sunday night. All brothers must attend!

SCHOLARSHIP The basement might be fixed up for a study room.

ALUMNI There will be a banquet room for them at homecoming. A newsletter will be sent in late Sept.

Spring FORMAL Suggestions: Lake Malone, Belle of Louisville, Ramada Inn-Hurstborne Lane, B.G. Hilton, Galt House, Marriot in Clarksville.

HOMECOMING Dance at J-Club.

INTRAMURALS Gabby is head coach of football. Wolf says a better attitude is all we need to win.

RUN-TO-VICTORY Middle Tenn., Nov. 3.

HOUSE MANAGER Painting and a bulletin board were added to the house this past weekend by Gorky and his crew. $85 was spent on this but we hope the landlords will reimburse.

TREASURER Dues will be due Monday the 10th.

SOCIAL Dance the 13th on Sat. at J-Club. There was a meeting on the 4th of all fraternities concerning mixers and who finances them. At the meeting they decided to cancel all mixers until the societies pay for them. The committee is budgeted 500 dollars per month.

RUSH "Red Light Smoker" is Fri. the 7th at 8:00. All men must be in the dining room dressed in tie (coat is optional) by 7:15 for a meeting. Rush functions are as follows: Mon.-Cocktail Party at the Farmer House; Wed. 12th Wine Fest; Fri. 14th Barbecue at Camp Moore.
