COLLECTION NOTES

Collection consists of statements and reminiscences of individuals who participated in or conducted hog butchering in Kentucky, Ohio, and Tennessee. Information was gathered from various informants between 1963-1969. Material is arranged alphabetically by collector and consists of very specific details about executing hogs, processing and preserving meat, and rendering lard. Photographs are also included. This project was completed by students at Campbellsville College under the guidance of Dr. William Lynwood Montell.
