Jr. Panhellenic

There will be an all pledge training program, three sessions, the first two are work sessions with outside speakers. Pledges and pledge trainers are required to attend. The sessions will be on Thurs. Sept. 25 and Oct. 23, 3:00-4:00 p. m. in Congress Room 305 DUC. The last session, on election day, Tues. Nov. 4 will be a all Greek PLEDGE mixer held at the J. C. Pavillion at 8:00p. m.

Rush Infraction

The Judiciary Board of the Panhellenic Association met on Sept. 2 to hear the infractions diled against Chi Theta chapter of Chi Omega Sorority. The complaints filed against Chi Omega for failing to adhere to Panhellenic Rushing Policies (By-Laws) I, 5. and I, 1. (Minor and Major infractions respectfully) were judged valid. The penalties given for these infractions were as follows: $50. dollar fine for the minor infraction, $50. dollar fine for the major infraction, and official reprimand before the College Panhellenic body with a report of the matter sent to the NPC Delegate and National President of the group involved. Chi Omega has complied with fines in the form of a hundred dollar check payable to the Panhellenic Association. Official reprimand and correspondence with National offices are still to be completed.

ADPi 500

The annual ADPi 500 is set for Sept. 27 at Beach Bend Park. It is open to all sororities and fraternities with a $5.00 entry fee. The events will begin promptly at 12:00 on Sat. For further information contact Donna Stevenson or Judy Salmon. 2595
Panhellenic wishes everyone Good Luck.

Sigma Chi Derby

This year a new format is going to be used with each sorority having its own special day to compete. On the sorority's day it will kidnap it's coaches and try to raise money for their release. Later that day the sorority will serenade the Sigma Chi house. Besides this other events are: Mon. -Derby Dinner, Tues. -Derby Darling Contest, Wed. -Derby chase on campus, and Sat. - Parade at 1:00 and field events at ~~2:00~~ 2:00. This will all take place the week of Oct. 5-11. All proceeds from the Derby will go to the Sigma Chi's philanthropy, the Wallace Village for Children in Colorado. For further information contact Ronnie Wise at 781-0992.

KD Washboard Jamboree

The Kappa Delta's are planning their Washboard Jamboree for Oct. 9. It will be held at the Ivan Wilson Amphatheatre starting at 6:30 p.m. The skits are to be vert informal with homemade instruments and a lot of loud singing. No amplified instruments are to be used but three microphones will be available. For further information call Laura Given at 843-8917.

Alpha Delta Pi- On Sept. 10, the sisters of ADPi had installation for their fall pledge class of 19. After the installation, the alums held a reception for the new pledges. The ADPi's won their first softball game against AOPi but were defeated in the second round by Phi Mu. A Parents and Awards day will be held Sun., Sept. 21 at Barren River Lodge. This summer, the President and Vice President attended the national convention in Canada and brought back many new ideas. They are busy planning for ADPi 500 which is Sept. 27.

Alpha Xi Delta- On Sept. 11 the sisters of AXiD took their housemother, Mrs. Overly, out for her birthday dinner. They are going to paint her apartment on Sept. 20. Pinning Ceremony for their new pledges was held on Sept. 11 and temporary big sisters have been assigned. The AXiD's are planning an open house at homecoming for parents and alumnae. Plans are under way for a powder-puff division and fraternity division of football to be held on Oct. 19. If everything works out, they plan to make this an annual event.

Alpha Omicron Pi- The sisters of AOPi have 18 new pledges who received their pledge pins and big sisters on Sept. 17. For the past two weeks the AOPi's have been collecting throughout Bowling Green for the United Givers, of which the Arthritis Foundation is a member. The Arthritis Foundation is AOPi's national philanthropy. This summer four collegiates from AOPi attended the International convention in Chicago. The Bowling Green alumnae chapter earned a certificate of merit and AX chapter won a scholarship trophy for chapters with 50-70 members. The coligate chapter won the "stamp out poverty" plague for collecting 14 lbs. of stamps.

Kappa Delta- The sisters of Kappa Delta are busy planning for the Washboard Jamboree, which will be held on Oct. 9. They have had a mixer with the brothers of ATO and plan to have one with DTD. Kappa Delta's 27 new pledges are having a carwash and raffle. The sisters are sponsoring a birthday party every month for the Bowling Green Girls Club. Upcoming events are a rummage sale to be held at their house Sept. 27 and their Christmas Bazaar Oct. 25. The KD's have been working on their house all summer renovating it.

Sigma Kappa- The sisters of Sigma Kappa installed their new pledges Sept. 9 and have a scavenger hunt planned for them on Sept. 23. They held a spaghetti dinner Sept. 18. A new alum chapter was formed this summer and they are looking forward to working with them. The Sigma Kappa's are in the process of organizing a grandparent program with Turtle Creek Convalescent Center for their philanthropy project. Other activities being planned are a car wash at the end of Sept. and a winter formal.

Phi Mu- The Phi Mu's held a pinning ceremony Sept. 10 in which they pinned 29 new pledges. They have elected officers and are well into pledgship. Phi Mu's spring pledge class will give their pledge-active by the end of Sept. The sisters of Phi Mu defeated KD and ADPi in the intramural softball league. The sisters are planning to hold a scholarship party at Baskin Robbins in about two weeks.

Chi Omega - The sisters of Chi Omega installed 18 new pledges on Sept. 10 and pledge officers have been elected. The Chi Omega fall party will be held Sept. 19 at the Cutliff Building. The sisters won their softball games against AXiD and Sigma Kappa. Susan Hurley is the new Panhellenic Secretary, replacing Betty Clark Barnett and Patty Creznia was elected as Open Rush Chairman. The sisters are planning a celebration of their founding on Oct. 5 and November Nonsense is set for Nov. 7.
