Sigma Chi Derby
 The Sigma Chi Derby went very well last week. Because of rain the Derby on Saturday was postponed until Sunday which was a beautiful day for the parade and field events. The winner of the 11th Annual Sigma Chi Derby was Alpha Delta Pi. This was the 10th year in a row that they have won the Derby. Chi Omega placed second and Alpha Omicron Pi took third place. In the spirit contest Kappa Delta and Chi Omega tied for first place, with Alpha Delta Pi taking second and Alpha Omicron Pi taking third. Congratulations to all the winners. The Derby turned out to be very successful, raising about $2000.00 of which $1500 will go to Wallace Village, and the rest to local charities.

Alpha Delta Pi
 Alpha Delta Pi won the Sigma Chi Derby again, making it a solid decade of victories. They also placed second in spirit. Ellen Denisivich was 1st runner up in the Derby Darling Contest. On Sat. Oct. 18, Alpha Delta Pi's are having a formal dance celebration of their 10th year that their chapter, Epsilon Delta, has been established here at Western. The Alpha Delta Pi's are working together with the Sigma Chi's on their homecoming float.

Alpha Xi Delta

The sisters of Alpha Xi Delta placed 4th in the events at Sigma Chi Derby and 3rd place in Kappa Delta Washboard Jamboree. They had a mixer with the brothers of Delta Tau Delta and have their fall formal planned for Nov. 15. Their 12 pledges received Big Sisters by means of a scavenger hunt last week. They are working with Kappa Sigma Fraternity on a homecoming float and are sponsoring Mandy Nickles, as a candidate for queen.

Alpha Omicron Pi

The sisters of Alpha Omicron Pi placed third in the Sigma Chi Derby events and spirit. They also participated in the Kappa Delta Washboard Jamboree. Saturday Oct. 12 they will hold Parent's Day. The sister beat Phi Mu in volleyball Monday night. Three Alpha Omicron Pi's were chosen as little sisters of fraternities this past week. They are Pam Webster and Judy Parks as Phi Delta Theta Little Sisters and Penny Wellinghurst is now a Pi Kappa Alpha Little Sister.

Kappa Delta

The sisters of Kappa Delta were very pleased with the Greek response to the Washboard Jamboree. They won first in spirit at the Sigma Chi Derby, tying with Chi Omega. On Oct. 23 the Kappa Delta's will celebrate their Founder's Day at Lone Oak Restaurant. A mixer with the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon has been planned. The pledges are busy serenading the actives and have had a mixer with Pi Kappa Alpha. The alumnae will help sponsor the annual Kappa Delta Christmas Bazaar to be held Oct. 25. They are having a party with the Howling Green Girl's Club this month for all the girls whose birthdays are in October. Carmen Gwinn placed third in the Derby Darling Contest. Kappa Delta and Lambda Chi Alpha will build a house decoration for homecoming.

Sigma Kappa

The sisters of Sigma Kappa are busy preparing for their fall formal to be held on Nov. 15. Their pledge class of 10 have received their Big Sisters and successfully completed a famous scavenger hunt. The Sigma Kappa's beat Alpha Delta Pi in volleyball on Monday night. The alumna chapter is busy planning for fall activities. With homecoming around the corner, Gayle Smith, our reigning queen, is leading the sisters in spirit. They have put up Sally Constant for this year's candidate and they are sponsoring her along with the art guild.

Phi Mu - No News.

Chi Omega

The Chi Omega's Country Cel Jamboree placed first in the Kappa Delta's Washboard Jamboree. They also came in first in spirit and second in events in the Sigma Chi Derby. Congratulations to Leigh St. Charles who won the Derby Darling Contest. Their 11 pledges received their big sisters this week. They also had a pledge mixer with Pi Kappa Alpha and are planning with the Sigma Chi pledges. The Chi Omega's beat Alpha Delta Pi at volleyball last Monday night. They have three new fraternity little sisters, Terri Williams is a Sigma Nu little Sister and Mary Jo Herman and Charlene Hardesty are Lambda Chi Alpha little sisters, congratulations girls.
