Panhellenic hopes everyone is having a great semester and is looking forward to the many events yet to come! Just a reminder to let everyone know that the Panhellenic Office has moved to Downing University Center, third floor by the ASG Office. The office is open on Monday and Wednesday from 10:00 - 11:00 and 1:00 - 4:00. On Tuesday and Thursday the office hours are 12:30 - 4:00 and on Friday from 1:00 - 2:00. Paula Shelton, our Panhellenic Secretary, is now working on a calendar of events for the rest of the semester and we hope to have this out to you soon.

Alpha Delta Pi

ADPi's started the semester off with a great fall rush by picking up a total of 23 girls for their fall pledge class. Pledge active was held on August 27 and proved to be a lot of fun for everyone. The ADPi's had a very successful Parent's Day on September 26 at Barren River, enjoying a nice banquet and a cute skit written by the pledges. ADPi 500 was held on October 3 at Beech Bend Park with Sigma Nu's capturing 1st place in the fraternity division and AOPi's winning the sorority division. ADPi's won their 10th Sigma Chi Derby in a row, sharing the honors with Chi Omega Sorority. ADPi's have several new fraternity little sisters. They are: Marsha Cole and Brenda Stafford - Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Hope McConaughia and Becky Bauer - Lambda Chi Alpha; Cindy Lanier and Mary Evelyn Roddy - Sigma Chi.

Alpha Omicron Pi

The sisters of AOPi have 15 enthusiastic new pledges who were installed on September 15. Once again the AOPi sockhop was held and the pledges raised $327.00 for their pledge active. The pledge active will be held on November 12 at the National Guard Armory. The AOPi's have been participating in volleyball and recently placed 2nd in softball. The AOPi's are also proud to announce that they won ADPi 500 for the 11th consecutive year. Several girls were chosen to be little sisters to fraternities. They are: Jackie Joseph - Sigma Nu; Elaine James, Marion Ludington, Kit Huey, Kelly Hughes and Terri Coombs - Pi Kappa Alpha; Dara Truesdale, Sandy Dorroh and Beth Houze - Lambda Chi Alpha.

Alpha Xi Delta

The sisters of Alpha Xi Delta have 9 new pledges so far during rush. On August 30 the spring 1976 pledge class was initiated into the sorority. The Alpha Xi's competed in both co-ed volleyball and women's softball. They came in 2nd in the Sigma Chi Derby, winning both the egg toss and balloon stomping contest, and they collected $87.07 for the Sigma Chi's philanthropy. Mary Miller has been elected a Little Sister to Sigma Chi Fraternity. The Alpha Xi's have two new big brothers for their sorority. They are Doug Kennedy and Richard Boyle. The Alpha Xi's will be participating in many upcoming events including Sigma Nu Powderpuff football and November Nonsense.

Chi Omega

The Chi O's are really proud of their 20 new pledges this semester. They are: Cindy Eaker, Sally Brenzell, Laura Clark, Ann Coffman, Janet Davies, Leslie Hall, Teresa Hargis, Beckie Howell, Anne Jackel, Sandy Jackson, Kathy Joiner, Nancy Northerner, Jill Perkins Susan Poehlein, Anne Policastri, Teresa Prather, Betty Thompson, Pam Walker, Robin Walker, and Sandy Waters. The Chi O's Fall Party Dance was held October 2 at the Jaycee Pavillion and was a big success. For the second year, Chi O's captured the title of Derby Darling with Lisa Hahn taking the honors. Chi O's won 1st place in the annual Sigma Chi Derby this year, tying with Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. Several girls have been asked to be fraternity little sisters. They are: Lisa Bishop - Sigma Nu; Susan McElfresh - Sigma Chi; Terri Sell - Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Sigma Kappa

The actives of Sigma Kappa are proud of their 1976 fall pledge class. The pledges are Kathy Brown, Sharon Field, Donna Green, Joanie Johnson, Jenny Margaret Nunn, Sandy Popplewell, Martina Riggs, Sue Schroerlucke and Ann Vanderspool. In addition to having active "Big Sisters," each pledge has a "Sigma Mom" who is a member of Sigma Kappa's Alumni Association. Sigma Kappa's candidate for WKU's Homecoming Queen is Sandy Abell. Sigma Kappa is proud of the job Sister Paula Shelton is doing as the new secretary of Panhellenic. Sigma Kappa placed 3d in the annual Kappa Delta Washboard Jamboree held October 14. Congratulations to Arlene Hester for being second runner-up in the "Miss Three Alarm" contest sponsored by the Bowling Green - Warren County Chamber of Commerce!
