Administrative History: Artificial collection created by WKU Archives to group Industrial Education Building & Annex images together. The majority of the photos are from WKU sources, but some donated by individuals.

Building Name - Industrial Education Building
Date Built - 1929
Cost of Construction - $57,000
Architects - Brinton Davis
Date razed -1982

The first building, which was located where the Margie Helm Library now stands, was destroyed by fire in 1929.

The new building was made of Bowling Green stone. The purpose of the department was to train teachers in the Industrial subjects for elementary and secondary positions.

In 1975, the building housed architectural drafting, woods, machine shop, basic metal, plastics, and airbrush rendering.

Additions:
1960 - renovation and improvements made on the building
1975 - building closed for remodeling
1977 - reopened
