COLLECTION NOTE

This collection documents “Folklorist in the Parks,” a joint project of the Kentucky Folklife Program and the Kentucky Department of Parks. Folklorist Brehanna Vassar conducted fieldwork among folk artists and performers in Marshall County, near Kenlake State Resort Park. Their work was then showcased in public programming at the park. Tobacco culture, willow furniture, basketry, flint knapping, woodcarving, crocheting, doll making, bluegrass music, fishing, quilting, broom making, and moonshine were a few of the traditions discussed during recorded interviews. This collection includes a project summary, programming information, biographical sketches and a directory of folk artists/performers, public relations material, a short history of the Olive Homemaker’s Club, audio interviews on cassette tapes with traditional artists, slides and a slide index, color photographs and negatives, and an 8mm videocassette tape of Dillard Munsell discussing folkways.
