WELCOME

It is a pleasure on behalf of all members of the staff and student body to welcome you—the graduates, former students, and friends of Western—back to the Hill for this the thirteenth annual Homecoming. Your return is a further indication of your loyalty and devotion to the college which you have made so manifest in the field. We only hope that you may find as much happiness in your visit as your presence brings to us.

The Kentucky Building has been completed. Open house is being observed there today as in Cherry Hall and other buildings on the campus. After the game drop in at the Cedar House, West Hall, or Potter Hall. You will find many of your former classmates and teachers there.

It is our hope that as you greet your friends you may recapture many happy memories, that these memories may add to your happiness during the coming months, and that we may soon see you again.

Cordially yours,
Paul L. Garrett.

In 1927 Western dedicated its present stadium with the first Homecoming game ever held on College Heights. Since then Homecoming has been annually observed at Western. Out of the twelve times that the Hilltoppers have romped the gridiron beneath the Colonnade in Homecoming tilts, eight victories and one tie have been scored against three defeats.

Western won over the University of Louisville 7-6 in the first Homecoming game. The next year the Hilltoppers defeated Georgetown 19-0. In 1929 the Westerners lost to Centre College 7-6 and the following year won by the same margin over Louisville. In 1931 Miami University (Florida) lost to the Hilltoppers 20-0, and in 1932 Western was victorious over Georgetown 24-0. Murray spoiled Western's Homecoming 20-6 in 1933, and the following year a 0-0 deadlock with Howard College resulted. The Howard Bulldogs administered Western's worst Homecoming defeat in 1935, winning 19-0. The last three years have found the Hilltoppers victorious. They won in 1936, defeating Og- lethorpe 6-0. In 1937 they won over Tampa University 13-0 and last year defeated Mike Gary's Broncos from Kalamazoo 13-6.

Today's Homecoming battle pits the Hilltoppers against one of the strongest teams in the S.I.A.A. Louisiana Tech comes to Bowling Green undefeated after having won over Arkansas A. & M. 32-0, Illinois Wesleyan 12-7, and Alabama State Teachers 39-0. Western is also undefeated, having won over Ohio University 14-7 in the opening game and Morehead last Saturday, 2-0.

Coach W. L. "Gander" Terry of Western and Coach Ray Davis of Louisiana Tech are both new as head coaches, but both have served unusually successful apprenticeships as assistants. Terry was promoted to the position of head coach last year when Western's genial Swede Anderson resigned to go to Indiana University. Western's first year under Terry was one of the most successful in its history, the Hilltoppers winning over Kansas State Teachers, Howard College, Western Michigan State, Eastern, Western Carolina State, Murray, and Tampa University, and losing only to Vanderbilt 12-0 and to Tennessee Tech 7-6.

Coach Davis was promoted to the head-coaching job at Tech after an unfortunate automobile accident made it impossible for the widely known Eddie McLane (now athletic director) to continue active coaching of the Bulldogs. Prior to his promotion to the head coachship Davis served as assistant coach at Howard College.

All indications are that today's thirteenth Homecoming game will be one of the best. Both teams are evenly matched in weight and experience. Louisiana Tech and Western are very similar in size as far as student enrollment is concerned. Both schools maintain approximately the same type of athletic program, and today both teams will be fighting to maintain the prestige of remaining undefeated.

WESTERN'S LETTERMAN ENDS

Rule Changes for 1939

1. Responsibility of management to provide testing equipment and of referee to test ball.

2. The Section on Equipment has been rewritten, the changes being an increase in thickness of knee-pads and required padding, new specifications for shape and size of conical cleaths, and the wearing of head protectors made mandatory.

3. The penalty for a forward pass striking an ineligible player has been changed to loss of 15 yards, the play to count as a down.

4. On a play from which a forward pass develops, ineligible players are prohibited from advancing beyond the line of scrimmage before the pass is made.
