COLLECTION NOTE

This collection details the barbecue traditions in Monroe County, Kentucky. The collection includes details on the process of how Monroe County barbecue is prepared, cooked, consumed, and the establishments in which it is served. The interviewer, Tim Jorgenson, collected information from three barbecue restaurant owners located within the county. Included in these interviews is personal information about the restaurant owner or owners, their specific type of barbecue served, and how they came to be in the barbecue business. All interviews are stored in digital format in Western Kentucky University's Sound Archives. The collection also includes 53 color digital photos of various Monroe County barbecue restaurants and their owners.
