Western's Coaching Staff
Of 1947

Two tie ball games in a row had Western's coaching staff bringing out Coach Jesse Thomas' bridge pad again last week. The Western mentor and his two assistants spent long hours figuring out ways and means to strengthen weak spots in the Hilltopper pass defense and the necessary punch to go ahead for a victory over Tennessee Tech's Golden Eagles tonight.

Harold Murphy's booting was considered the factor necessary to pull the Hilltoppers out of any desperate hole. Consequently most of the time was spent devising running and passing plays built around Jim Pickens, Ray Mills and the host of other speedy backs Coach Thomas has on his squad.
A LOOK AT THE RECORDS

AMONG THE MANY old-timers who influenced the course of football are three great titans: Amos Alonzo Stagg, Glenn "Pop" Warner, and Fielding "Hurry-up" Yost. Stagg's career is amazing. The "grand old man of football" has coached continuously from 1890 to the present. A great innovator—he invented such basic things as the tackling dummy and the use of diagrams—his record is also outstanding. While coach at Chicago from 1892 to 1933 he had five undefeated teams and won seven Big Ten championships. "Pop" Warner is most famous as a system-maker. He originated the widely used single and double-wing formations. His Carlisle and later Pitt and Stanford teams were terror at steamrollering the opposition with pulverizing power plays. Of the trio of old masters the most amazing victory skein was rolled up by the late fielding H. Yost of Michigan. His point-a-minute teams of 1901-1905 won fifty-five of fifty-seven games, lost one and tied one and amassed a total of 2,821 points against 105 opponents.

By now the name of Knute Rockne is legendary—and with good reason. He was the outstanding coach of the country during the 1920's. From 1918 to his tragic death in 1931, Rockne's Notre Dame teams, playing against the nation's top-flight elevens, put together the unbelievable record of 105 victories, 12 defeats, and 5 ties. The coach of the famous Four Horsemen had five unbeaten teams and was honored with the mythical national championship several times. Rockne's most consistent rival for national honors in the twenties was Howard Jones of Iowa and later Southern California. In the years of Notre Dame's supremacy under Rockne, Jones-coached teams managed to defeat the Fighting Irish three of seven times. In Jones' sixteen years at the helm his Trojan teams won eight Pacific Coast championships, three national championships, and the five Rose Bowl games in which they played.

Great gridiron mentors develop schools of coaching. Andy Kerr and "Jock" Sutherland are examples of coaches who became proponents of the Warner system and went on to gridiron heights in the late twenties and thirties. Kerr specialized in the double-wing formation embellished with tricky double-spinners, laterals, and other "razzle-dazzle." In his first six years of using this system at Colgate, from 1929 through 1934, Kerr's teams won 47 games, lost 5, tied 1! Sutherland's Pittsburgh teams were just as devastating. Emphasizing the "straight football" of power-laden single-wing plays, which featured deadly precision blocking, the Panthers under Sutherland swept over opposition, winning four national championships.

In twenty-nine years of major collegiate football at Texas A. & M., Nebraska, and the University of Texas, Dana X. Bible's teams won no less than fourteen conference titles and were mentioned for national honors several times. While Bible's teams were annexing Big Six and Southwest Conference championships, and Howard Jones' Trojans reigned on the Coast, two other coaches emerged as twin scourges of their respective conferences and as national titlers: Wallace Wade in the Southern Conference and Bernie Bierman in the Big Nine. In his twenty years of Southern Conference coaching at Alabama and Duke, Wallace Wade's teams have won ten conference championships, and annual national champions five times. Bierman's Minnesota juggernauts dominated the rugged Big Nine during the thirties and early forties. In ten years Bierman's Golden Gophers played through five undefeated seasons, won six conference championships. The Minnesota teams of 1935, 1936, 1940 and 1941 were national champions.

Today, men like Bierman and Wade face the challenge of younger coaches promulgating new styles of play. Both Bierman and Wade are exponents of the single-wing. Both broke off coaching careers to assume active roles in World War II and returned to find post-war football undergoing rapid change under the impact of the T-formations. Clark Shaughnessy, while at Stanford, popularized the T.

Men like Earl Blaik of Army and Frank Leahy of Notre Dame have adopted it, and compiled outstanding records. Other coaches—Lou Little, Tuss McLaughry and Don Faurot—have modified the T by different placement of backs or line shifts or splits. The entire course of the game will depend on the success or failure of these new efforts. Whether the records of the future will sing the praises of the T will depend on the latter group of coaches and the determined effort of the old-style coaches to continue the single-wing.

Hilltoppers Show Offensive Power Against Arkansas State In Hard Fought 14-14 Tie

In a game packed with thrills, the Hilltoppers played their first home engagement of the season last Saturday night battling a smooth-working Arkansas State eleven to the final second for a 14-14 tie. A senior, Ray Mills, and a freshman, Jim Pickens, sparked the Western attack as the Hilltoppers came from behind twice to knot the score.

With time rapidly running out and the Hilltoppers knocking for a winning touchdown, the Indians held on their own 28 yard stripe to take over on downs. Ed Lach, a substitute back who had fumbled at midfield in the second quarter starting Arkansas on their second touchdown march, redeemed himself when he recovered an Indian fumble on the Arkansas 31. Pickens promptly began throwing passes all over the lot and on his fourth try hit Hal Taylor on the Arkansas two.

At this point 14 seconds or less remained in the game. Western's board of strategy called for a field goal. Jimmy Haynes had been deadly twice on his placement attempts but the Indians refused to be beaten and came charging through to block Haynes' kick. The game was over before another play could be run.

As the final gun sounded the Hilltoppers completed another terrific battle, proving that although most of them are freshmen and sophomores they know what to do with a football—especially when the going gets rough. It marked the second tie game Coach Jesse Thomas' charges have come out of in succession. On Friday night, Sept. 26, the Hilltoppers fought the Evansville College Purple Aces to a 0-0 draw in Evansville in the opening game of the season for both teams. Western went into that game the underdogs just as they did against the Arkansas State Indians.

Against the invading Arkansas State Indians Western faced a team well versed in the use of the deceptive "T" formation. Joe Shaw, one of slickest ball handlers seen in the Western stadium in many years, was a constant threat with his long passes, laterals and handoffs to sticky fingered teammates. Both of the Indian touchdowns came as a result of long passes.

Late in the first quarter Shaw faded back and lateraled to his left halfback Lewis Hayden who in turn tossed a 40-yard pass to Everette Bolton, Indian left end. Bolton took the pass on the Western 15 and with no Hilltopper close, trotted on over.

Apparently the Hilltoppers got mad after that because they took the ball on the kickoff and in eight plays marched 65 yards to score. Mills from his quarterback post called on Pickens for passes to Fullback Fred Clayton and wide sweeping end runs. The Lynch, Ky., senior, who played most of the game, tore off a 14-yard gain through the center. Clayton went over for the score after Pickens had swept right end down to the one yard stripe.

In the second quarter Arkansas scored on a 20-yard pass from Bolton to Right End Keith Doane putting the ball on the Western three. Cliff Rotton from his high half post carried it over. Hayden's kick was good as it was after the Indians' first marker and Arkansas led 14-7.

As the half ended Western was a great goal line stand holding the inches short of a third touchdown. Murphy got them out of the hole with a 45-yard punt as the gun sounded for the finish of the half.

Western evened the score when Haynes recovered a fumble on the Arkansas seven after Murphy had thrown the Indians back on their heels with a 50-yard boot midway the third quarter. Pickens tossed to Frank Wallheiser for the score and Haynes kicked his second placement of the night making the scoreboard read Western 14 - Arkansas 14.

From that point neither team seriously threatened until Western moved in for their attempted field goal as the game ended.

Tennessee Tech's 1947 Coaching Staff

Pictured at the right is T. P. I.'s head football coach Hooper Eblen. Coach Eblen came to Tech in 1941 from Tennessee Wesleyan where he was head coach and athletic director. He served as backfield coach until 1947 except for a tour of duty in the Navy. After returning from the service, he continued as backfield coach up until the present appointment. The coach is a former University of Tennessee athlete.

Coach Eblen goes into tonight's game with a record for the 1947 season of one win and two defeats. In their opening game of the season on September 20, the Golden Eagles dropped a 18-7 decision to Carson-Newman. The next week end they came back to whip Maryville College 13-7. Last weekend the University of Chattanooga thrashed the Eblen charges 13-0.

WILBURN TUCKER

Coach Tucker came to Tech in 1947 as Freshman Coach after being released from the Navy. He left Tech after the 1946 season to do graduate work at the University of Tennessee, returning this fall. He is a former Tech athlete.

RAYMOND BROWN

Coach Brown came to Tennessee Tech from Milligan College where he was Head Coach for two years. He is a former Tech athlete. Coach Brown was Assistant Backfield Coach at the University in 1944 when Tennessee went to the Rose Bowl. He was Freshman Coach at Tech in 1941 before going into the Navy.

STAR WOOD

Coach Wood came to Tech from Milligan College where he was Line Coach for one year. He was End Coach at North Carolina State in 1944-45. Coach Wood coached two years at Appalachian State with Beatty Feathers before going with him to North Carolina State. He is a former Milligan athlete.

Tech First String Linemen

Cunningham is a five-foot ten-inch junior from Tracy City, Tennessee. He weighs 192 pounds and is one of Coach Eblen’s strong men in the line.

Billingsley is a sophomore hailing from Cookeville, Tennessee, home of Tennessee Tech. He stands six-feet three-inches in his six feet and weighs 205 pounds. From his tackle post he has made the going very rough for the Tech’s opposition this season.

At the left is Gordon "Red" Jarrell, a six-foot three-inch end from Manchester, Tennessee. He is a sophomore and a constant threat as a pass catcher.

Charles Billings finishes his college football career this season. He holds down the quarterback post for the Eagles.

Sam Reed, a speedy quarterback, takes over when Billings is out. He is playing his last year for Tech.

Billings hails from Cookeville. He weighs 190 pounds and is five feet eight inches tall.

Reed weighs 165 pounds and is five feet ten inches tall. He comes from Pulaski, Tennessee.

Echols is a five foot eleven inch, 205 pound lad from Nashville, Tenn. He is playing his last year for the Eagles.

At the right is J. W. "Pee Wee" Day, a third senior closing out his college football days this season. Day is a 240 pound, six foot one inch tackle from Huntsville, Ala. He is a powerhouse both on offense and defense for Coach Eblen's eleven.
