Administrative History: Henry Hardin Cherry was born November 16, 1864 in Warren County, Kentucky, the son of George Washington and Frances (Stahl) Cherry. He attended the Southern Normal School and Business College along with his brother Thomas Crittenden Cherry. After college the Cherry brothers taught in rural schools and Henry returned to teach at the Southern Normal. They purchased the school in 1892 with Henry filling the main administrative role. Cherry actively pursued the creation of a state funded teacher training school and in 1906 succeeded in converting the Southern Normal into the Western Kentucky State Normal School.

Cherry's personal papers are found in this series most notably those pertaining to his political aspirations and two candidacies for the Kentucky governorship.

My dear Mr. _____:

I am inclosing herein a copy of my announcement and also a copy of the endorsement given me by my home people for the Governorship of Kentucky. I am earnestly hoping that you are interested in my race and I am writing to you to assure you that if I am nominated and elected I shall use every inch of the energy, intelligence and integrity that I possess to be worthy of your confidence and to give the State a highly efficient administration. I would not give five cents to be Governor of Kentucky unless I could have executive freedom and responsibility and an opportunity to serve the great people of my State. I know it seems mechanical for a candidate to speak in this way, but I hope you will believe my motives and purposes are patriotic. If you are interested in my race I shall greatly appreciate hearing from you, and if you are in a position to distribute some of my announcements I shall value the opportunity of sending them to you.

With all good wishes, I am,

Fraternally yours,

Your noble good letter is here. I appreciate deeply and thoroughly your sentiment expressed in your letter and I want to assure you now that if I am nominated and elected, I shall use every inch of the energy, intelligence and integrity I possess to be worthy of your confidence and to give the State a highly efficient administration. Almost every individual has a relative or a member of his family living in other sections of the State from that in which he lives at this time, and a letter to these people would be of inestimable value to me.

I am sending to you, under separate wrapper, twenty copies of my announcement and twenty copies of my endorsement, which I trust you will place in the hands of interested people. I am hoping you will write as many as ten letters to members of your family who live in sections outside your present location and get them interested in me and inclose a copy of my announcement and endorsement in each letter. I would appreciate the names and addresses of the people to whom you have written and I will write them a personal letter myself and try to get them interested.

With a heart full of gratitude for whatever you may do and thanking you for your letter, I am,

Fraternally yours,
