COLLECTION NOTE

This collection features information and oral histories gathered from residents of McCreary County, Kentucky. From this data, a project summary was compiled that included information about cultural resources within the county. Included in the project summary is a brief county history as well as information about the various informants. Most of the research collected for this project was done by Lynn David, who acted as McCreary County folklorist for twelve weeks while conducting the project. Also assisting in the project was folklorist Joyce Van Over. David was assigned to the county as part of a Cultural Economic Initiative grant from the Kentucky Arts Council.

Some of the field notes and informant data sheets are restricted due to the sensitive nature of the project or at the interviewee's request. Boxes 6 and 7 contain copies of the cassette tapes found in boxes 4 and 5.
