GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT GARRETT AT HIS DESK

Welcome Homecomers:

All of us at Western are happy to have you, the graduates, former students, and friends of the college, on the Hill today for this 1952 Homecoming.

We have missed you. The large number of students enrolled and their fine quality, however, present abundant evidence, that although absent, you have been strong and loyal in your support of Western. For this loyalty and support we are grateful. It is good to have you back.

We hope that you may find here renewed inspiration, that the fervor of your loyalty to a great college be made even stronger by your visit.

Immediately following the game, the Homecoming Reception will be held at the Kentucky Building. We sincerely hope that many of you may find time to enjoy an hour or so with your friends there.

May the year ahead be the best you have ever known and that today be so pleasant that its memories will bring you back again next year.

Sincerely,

*Paul L. Garrett,
President*

Eastern Invades Again For Homecoming

Homecoming with Eastern's Maroons as the opponent on the gridiron—what memories such a combination revives! Shades of 1941 when the unbeaten Maroons came in as overwhelming favorites and left Bowling Green on the short end of a 27-20 score. This after leading 20-0 at halftime, too.

Then there is that great game of 1948 when again Eastern came in for Homecoming as a definite favorite and left town wearing a 14-13 defeat.

Not one of the 5,000 fans who packed the Stadium for the 1950 Homecoming tilt will ever forget Jimmy Feix's long last-second pass to Max Stevens which tied the score at 13-13. Then Butch Gilbert's perfect boot for the extra point to send the Maroons back to Richmond beaten again in a nerve-racking battle which was not decided until the final gun sounded.

It would be hard to single out any one game and point to it as the top Homecoming tilt. However, that 1941 scrap will rank along with the best but not far behind will be the 1948 game or the 1950 clash.

Any of the 5,500 persons who jammed the Western Stadium on that sunny October 25th afternoon back in 1941 will never forget what a beaten team the Hilltoppers were when they went to the dressing room at halftime. Trailing 20-0, they had literally been pushed out of the stadium. The gloom was deep among the Western supporters but the visiting Maroon fans were joyous. This joy was not for long, though.

In the short span of the third quarter the Hilltoppers had tied the score and were pushing the Maroons out of the stadium now. What a transformation. Gene Sparrow, Johnny Mazola, Joe Cullen, Lou Cullen, Dick Crouch and Bob Wilson simply refused to acknowledge defeat. Wilson added the final touch in the fourth quarter when he intercepted a desperate Maroon pass and raced 65 yards through the entire Eastern eleven for the winning marker.

Eastern, boasting a powerhouse in 1948, came back to Bowling Green to meet the underdog Hilltoppers on their Homecoming Day. This time it was a cool but sunny November afternoon which saw the Western Stadium jammed to capacity.

The Hilltoppers didn't let the Maroons get the jump on them this time. Jim Pickens got his slingshot right arm going and before the Maroons could get settled down "Slim Jim" had tossed two touchdown passes to Jewel Browning. Tom Montelli had his toe in tip top condition as he split the uprights perfectly to give the Hilltoppers a 14-0 halftime lead.

Eastern was not through, though. The Maroons had a great team and they showed it as they came storming back in similar fashion to the Hilltoppers of 1941. Twice they pushed across touchdowns in the third period but one try for extra point was missed and Western still held a slim one-point lead as the fourth quarter opened.

Here the Maroons opened up with a desperate passing attack which almost paid off. Had Jim Pickens not been in the Western backfield picking Maroon aeriels out of the air everytime the Eastern eleven threatened during that hectic fourth quarter, the story might have ended differently.

So today in this 1952 Homecoming tilt two ancient rivals meet again to renew a football rivalry begun back in 1914. Over the years the Hilltoppers and the Maroons have played each other 24 times. Western has emerged victorious 18 times and Eastern 6 times. The Hilltoppers piled up their victory skein over the Maroons before World War II. In the 18 meetings prior to the discontinuance of football at both schools because of the war in 1942, Western had won 16 times and Eastern twice.
