COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists almost entirely of audio recordings of gospel music collected from 1940 to 1990. The format of the recordings include reel to reel tracks, videotapes, and cassette tapes. Many of the artists featured within the collection are family groups, church groups, and quartets. In addition to the recording of their music, several interviews with selected artists are included. This collection was created by Dr. William Lynwood Montell; many of these artists were featured in his book Singing the Glory Down: Amateur Gospel Music in South Central Kentucky, 1900-1990 published by the University Press of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky, in 1991. The folder headings generally include the name of the group followed by the project title in Italics or within quotation marks. Many of the recordings were done at church singings or singing conventions, thus no project title was assigned. Many of the recordings lack dates. If two groups are listed per folder on separate lines that indicates that the group listed on the top is on side one and the group on the bottom is on side two. Box 1 includes some correspondence related to the project; the other boxes contain recordings. Interviews with selected artists run from Box 27 to Box 31. All known interviewees and interviewers are listed in the subject analytics at the end of this document.
