COLLECTION NOTE

This collection features documentation of the Great Lakes Folk Festival held from 13 August to 15 August 2004 and hosted by Michigan State University Museum in East Lansing, Michigan. Held annually since 1987, the festival is committed to the presentation of local and regional traditional music, dance, food, storytelling, and arts. It hosts multiple stages for music performance, a dance tent, a Traditional Foods Court, a Folk Arts Marketplace, Children's Activities Areas, and craft demonstrations.

The event represents complex and collaborative efforts of state, local, and national arts and cultural organizations working with civic, religious, social, educational, media, and business partners.
