Administrative History: Omicron Delta Kappa was founded at Washington & Lee University in 1914 as a leadership honor society. The founders formulated the idea that leadership of exceptional quality and versatility in college should be recognize, that representatives in all phases of college life should cooperate in worthwhile endeavor, and that outstanding students, faculty and administrators should meet on a basis of mutual interest, understanding and helpfulness. The fraternity became coed in 1974. Chapters are known as circles.

In 1970 the WKU Honors Lex Circle petitioned Omicron Delta Kappa for a charter which was granted. The circle and charter members were installed on April 24, 1971.
