MINUTES OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION
WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
SEPTEMBER 15, 1992

CALL TO ORDER

The September 15 meeting of the SGA was called to order by President Joe Rains.

ROLL CALL

Absences include Matt Anderson, Nicole Creasy, Cynthia Hayes, Donnie Miller, Sam Sharbutt, Laura Lee Wilson, and Jeff Duncan.

READING OF THE MINUTES

It was moved and seconded to suspend with the reading of the minutes. Motion passed.

OFFICER REPORTS

Joe Rains, President--President Rains reported that he gave a presentation to Regent Earl Fischer about what it is like to be a student and faculty member at Western. There are 15,800 students enrolled this semester. There were 8,000 in attendance at Saturday night's football game. All committee chairpersons need to have five specific goals that they would like to meet by May Susan Mitchell, Administrative Vice-President--Administrative Vice-President Mitchell reported that there will be no primary for Freshman elections. The general election will be September 29 in DUC from 10-4 p.m. All candidates must attend a certification meeting before starting to campaign.

Patrick Monohan, Public Relations Vice-President--Public Relations Vice-President Monohan reported that the football forum was a great success. SGA is going to pay for SGA t-shirts for congress members since it is good public relations, but it will take a while because of the Agency Account.

Ashley Rose, Secretary--Secretary Rose reported that three positions are open: two for Junior Representative and one for Representative at Large.

Jeremy Sublett, Treasurer--Treasurer Sublett reported that there are no expenditures for the week. Expenditures to date total $6,472.
