OFFICER REPORTS

Joe Rains, President--President Rains reported that volunteers are needed for an Informational Resource Committee. The Board of Student Body Presidents will meet on Sunday to discuss what to do about the Board of Higher Education raising tuition, along with many other important issues that will be discussed. "Project Western" committee meets Thursday to continue discussion of how to clean up Western's campus. There were questions raised concerning money given to the Student Escort Service. $800. was given to the Student Escort Service from SGA, but the money was not used as intended. It has not yet been decided what action will be taken.

Susan Mitchell, Administrative Vice-President--Administrative Vice-President Mitchell reported that after the Christmas break, we will start selling raffle tickets for "President for a Day" on February 3, when a student will switch places with President Meredith for a day. Tickets will cost $1.00. Committee Chairpersons will meet next week with a summary of everything accomplished during the fall semester, and documented goals for the spring semester.

Patrick Monohan, Public Relations Vice President--Public Relations Vice-President Monohan distributed the new SGA brochures. "Just Ask Joe" will begin airing next week. The semester is not over, so get some more legislation in!
