COLLECTION NOTE

This collection documents the personal histories of members of the Presbyterian Church (Bowling Green, Kentucky) who were veterans of World War II, the Korean War, the Cold War, the Vietnam War, Bosnia, the Persian Gulf War, and the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. With the exception of three informants who have imposed restrictions on the use of their information, Folder 2 contains photocopies of releases signed by each informant authorizing the use of his/her interview for research purposes. Folders 3-6 contain collected biographical information on each subject and a narrative of his/her military service and experiences; in some cases where the subject is deceased, a family member has acted as informant. Folder 7 contains six DVDs with audio files (.wav format) of interviews conducted with many of the informants.
