COLLECTION NOTE

The items in this collection relate to the Stout and Middleton families of Warren County, Kentucky. The oldest item is the autograph album kept by Samuel S. Templeton while a student at Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, 1836-1838. He became a Presbyterian minister and served the church at Bowling Green, Kentucky from 1840-1841. His widowed daughter, Alice Olivia (Templeton) Smith, married for a second time to Jesse Rice Middleton. Their daughter Marguerita Middleton wrote one of the diaries in this collection during the period 1896-1899. In addition to brief entries, her diary also contains news clippings and poems. Their other daughter, Alice Olivia (Middleton), married Edward B. Stout, Sr. The second diary in this collection was written from 1896 to 1901 by Margaret L. (Herdman) Stout, wife of attorney John L. Stout, and sister-in-law of Edward B. Stout, Sr. She gives information about the weather, the activities of her son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter, and her social obligations. The album and two diaries are photocopies. The final folder in the collection contains receipts and other material related to Edward B. Stout, Jr., grandson of Alice Olivia (Templeton) Smith Middleton, and great-grandson of Samuel S. Templeton. He compiled the extensive historical information about the two families found in the collection.
