Resolution 99-5-S
Opening Post Office in Downing University Center on Saturdays
April 6, 1999

PURPOSE: For the University to work with the United States Postal Service to open the post office in Downing University Center on Saturdays.

WHEREAS: The post office in Downing University Center is currently open from Monday to Friday, and

WHEREAS: The U.S. Postal Service in most places operates on Saturdays, and

WHEREAS: A considerable amount of Western students stay on campus during the weekends, and

WHEREAS: These students could use the services of a post office on Saturday.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we, the members of Student Government Association, do hereby request for the better service of the student body that the University work with the United States Postal Service to open the post office in Downing University Center on Saturdays.
