FA THOMAS, Fonda 1972
1133

Student paper titled "Tombstone Motifs" in which Fonda Thomas documents cemeteries in southern Warren County—specifically Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church, a Hardshell Baptist Church, and Old Union Missionary Baptist Church—to describe popular carvings found on gravestones. Thomas, who has familial ties to two of the church cemeteries, describes motifs such as rosebuds, doves, and variations of hands and offers possible theories as to the meaning of each. The collection also includes crayon rubbings of tombstones, which have been placed in a folder separate from the paper.
