FA RIZER, Michael C. 1971
1186

Student paper titled "Early Toy Making" in which Michael Rizer interviews two sets of couples, the Barnes and the McKees, regarding their crafting ability as it relates to miniature, hand-carved furniture. Rizer offers a brief description of each toy maker and details the various types of materials, models, and carving techniques used in the creation of the miniatures. Included in the paper are color photographs of the craftsmen and women along with pictures of their wooden furniture pieces and one reel-to-reel audio tape of interviews conducted by Rizer.
