BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Mildred Olevia Eubank was born 15 October 1895 in Allen County, Kentucky, the second of six children, to farmer Richard Douglass Eubank and his wife Cora Josephine (Potts) Eubank. She received her Bachelors degree from Western Kentucky State Normal School and Teachers College, Bowling Green, Kentucky, in 1927 and her Masters degree from West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia, in 1933. She also studied at George Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee. In addition to working as a public school teacher and librarian, Miss Eubank was a dedicated genealogist. She published "My First Three Generations" in the Virginia Gazette 8 August 1969 and "... Three Chiles ... married three Terrells..." in Colonial Genealogist June 1982. She is included in the 1985 publication Who's Who in Kentucky Genealogy. She was a member of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of American Colonists, Daughters of War of 1812, Magna Carta Dames, Jamestowne Society, Augustan Society, and South Central Kentucky Historical and Genealogical Society. Miss Eubank never married. She died 14 October 1985, one day prior to her 90th birthday. She is buried in Harrell Cemetery, Allen County, Kentucky, near her parents and other family members.

COLLECTION NOTE

This is a collection of genealogical materials compiled by Mildred O. Eubank that is chiefly related to families residing in Allen, Simpson, and Warren Counties in Southcentral Kentucky. Especially noted in her research are the Chiles, Eubank, Harrell, Hunt, Lewis, Page, Potts, Reeder, and Stamps families. The collection also includes her correspondence.

Many of the older items in the collection are photocopies of documents, the earliest dating back to 1654. The bulk of the collection was created (or copied) in Eubank's later life, chiefly 1930-1985.
