Student interview conducted by Mary Kate Brennan with renowned Appalachian poet Jim Wayne Miller. Brennan's focus throughout the interview is on "the cultural sensitivity and awareness that permeates Miller's poetry." Miller also touches on what he considers to be the central themes of his work, the struggles and triumphs of communities within the Appalachian region, and pride in cultural heritage. The collection contains a detailed index, interview summary, transcription, index cards with questions, and a reel-to-reel audio tape of the interview.
