Special Events

Mary Bosley reported that her committee is presently seeking a comedian for Big Red's Roar and a band for Hilloween. They are trying to get boxer shorts for Splash Bash.

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Bennie Beach stressed the importance of the committee chairs' programming next semester's events now. Bennie reported that there will be a lip sync contest in Niteclass tonight from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. "Crack Me Up" will take place on April 5. Bennie reported that the concert committee is looking into "Fiver," a package of five acts, including a comedy show and an acappella singing group. "Fiver's" fifth act is free of charge. The concert and special events chairs will be making proposals concerning these acts in the future.

Scott Taylor asked what the procedure would be for getting the Niteclass Ad Hoc committee represented on the board. Lindsay explained that she will be contacting Rex Hurt in order to find out what steps to take.

OLD BUSINESS

None

NEW BUSINESS

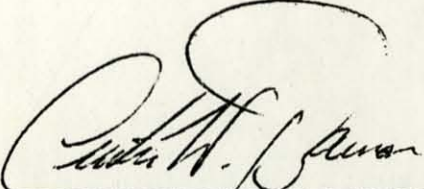

Scott Taylor and Shawna Williams, President of UBS, discussed the dance which was planned to take place at Garrett with the band "Autumn." It was decided to postpone the dance until next fall because another similar event has been scheduled on the same date.
