COMMITTEE REPORTS

Chairman Curtis Barman announced that the commercial for Niteclass is underway. It will be five to ten minutes in length and will look like Club MTV. The committee chairs will be going to NACA. They hope to bring back many new ideas. There have been four programs since the last meeting.

Vice chairperson announced that all the committees are full and busy. There was a mixer between committees which went well. UCB t-shirts are available. The chairmen are working hard and doing a good job.

STANDING COMMITTEES

Concert

The concert committee has 20 members. Battle of the Bands is underway.

Lecture

The Lecture committee has 10 members. Josh White was excellent. The attendance was average.

Public Relations

Dawn introduced her co-chairperson Allison Hulse. The committee is busy promoting Battle of the Bands, Splash Bash, and the victory dance after the U.T. basketball game. The information brochure is being put together. PR has a new policy. The due date for requesting PR work is three weeks prior to the date of the event. The deadline to order UCB t-shirts is February 24.

Special Events

Special Events has 20 members. They are busy planning for late spring and for the fall. The valentine dance went well. Preparations for Splash Bash are underway.

Niteclass

Niteclass has 12 members. Remote Control went real well. It was audience packed. Preparation was hectic, but there was a total team effort. Overall, Rich was "pleased as punch". Other upcoming events that Niteclass is involved in include Battle of the Bands and the victory dance.

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Bennie Beach thanked the chairs for maintaining their office hours, working hard and planning. He encouraged everyone to keep up the good work.

OLD BUSINESS

None.

NEW BUSINESS

The reading of Proposal 89-S-4 concerning Friedhaffer took place. After discussion, there was a move to table the proposal and it was seconded.

Chuck Crume presented the idea of forming an art foundation to raise money. This may be proposed at a later date.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- * Chairmen need to be ready to leave for NACA at 9:00 a.m., Sat. morning.
- * Bennie Beach announced that he was disappointed with the attendance at the Josh White program. The program was targeted toward minority students and less than 10% of minority students attended. He suggested that if students were not pleased with UCB's programming then they should get involved.
- * Rich Dee suggested that UCB should look ahead and get well known names in programming to promote UCB.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 4:10 p.m.
