COMMITTEE REPORTS

Chairman Curtis Barman welcomed everyone and presented the UCB recruitment brochures. He passed out the fall meeting schedule and introduced Herald reporter Carla Turner.

Vice Chairperson Missy McCubbin announced that UCB is having open recruitment September 4 thru September 15. Ads will be placed in the Herald and photographs of members and chairpersons may be displayed. This should be a great recruitment.

STANDING COMMITTEES

Concert

The concert committee has 13 events and five tail gate parties planned. The events include Wild Video Dance and Robin Crowe.

Lecture

Ronda is contacting old members and completing fall programming. The Golden Age of Rock and Roll will be October 16. The Laura X lecture on date and marital rape will be September 25.

Public Relations

Dawn presented the UCB information/recruitment brochure. The PR committee meeting will be Wednesday afternoon. They plan to have a new brochure for spring.

Niteclass

The Niteclass committee is looking for new members. Rich plans to have about 15 members. Rich is focusing on alternative programming.

Special Events

Special Events will have their first meeting Thursday. "We Can Make You Laff" is September 22. Other events include Button Making, Blizzard of Bucks, Hilloween, and Big Red's Roar.

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Bennie Beach announced that he is talking with Tommy Wallace, a Hollywood movie director, about doing a show here at WKU.

Scott Taylor announced that spring planning should be complete by Thanksgiving. He encouraged the use of better programming efforts. Support is needed for more campus bulletin boards.

OLD BUSINESS

None.

NEW BUSINESS

The Laura X lecture about date and marital rape was approved by executive action. The program will be September 25.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- * Bennie Beach announced that UCB will have a sand pit volleyball court on DUC south lawn. The cost was $800.
- * Chuck Crume suggested the organization of a black student committee to get information and feedback on black representation.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 4:05 p.m.
