COMMITTEE REPORTS

Chairman Curtis Barman encouraged participation in discussion for proposals. He also reminded everyone of their vote in planning programming. There is a concern with attendance at events. The Laura X program had a small attendance. Curtis suggested news releases be given to the reps for them to take back to their groups.

Chairperson Missy McCubbin announced that recruitment is finished. Approximately 100 to 150 applications were received. The committees are all filled. Missy said the chairs are doing a good job keeping their office hours. The black and white photos that Wells took of the committee chairs are on display in DUC. The chairs need to begin working on their semester goals.

STANDING COMMITTEES

Concert

The concert committee has 14 new members. One member of BSA is now on the concert committee. There will be a tailgate Saturday.

Lecture

The Laura X program featured a video with interviews of marital rape victims and their children. There was also a segment from 60 Minutes. The Golden Age of Rock and Roll will be October 16 at 7:00 and 9:00 in DUC. This show features concert type footage.

Public Relations

The PR committee has 25 new members. They are having a get to know you party tonight. The PR for the tailgate will go up today.

Special Events

The "We can make you laugh" program had 150 in the audience. Special Events has 12 new members. The committee is now preparing Big Red's Roar.

Niteclass

The Niteclass committee has approximately 20 new members. A schedule for Niteclass movie nights is being put together.

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Bennie Beach thanked Dawn and Ronda for their hard work and effort for the Laura X program. Bennie was very disappointed in the attendance at the triple sponsored Laura X program. He stated that one sorority held a program at the same time on the same topic in West Hall instead of attending Laura X. Each sorority and fraternity was told about the program. Also, several members of the panel did not show up or call to cancel.

Bennie encouraged chairs to be planning for the spring semester.

There will be a tailgate Saturday. The "Bedrockers" will perform from 3:00 to 6:30p.m.

The first tailgate had over 2,000 people show.

Mary Ann McCelvey is very excited about having an international representative on UCB.

OLD BUSINESS

None.

NEW BUSINESS

The reading of Proposal 89-F-2 regarding a campus wide homecoming sweatshirt sale took place. After discussion a voice vote was taken and the proposal passed.

The reading of Proposal 89-F-3 about Regency took place. After discussion the proposal was passed with the location pending.

The reading of Proposal 89-F-4 about "The Dangling Participles" was read. After discussion a voice vote was taken and the proposal was passed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- * Chairs need to prepare a detailed description of their events to give to reps.
- * Chairs need to give Missy fact sheets on their new members.
- * There is a tailgate Saturday.
- * Bennie stated that there is currently no BSA representative attending the UCB Executive meetings.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 4:10 p.m.
