Interviews for chairperson positions will be Thursday, November 30. There are several people running.

STANDING COMMITTEES

Concert

The concert committee has a proposal to submit. There is also a chance to get the Romones here for a discounted price! The committee had a good year and there were more people on the committee.

Lecture

The Tommy Wallace program went well. There was a very big turnout Monday night and a fair turnout during the day. The last committee meeting will be today.

Public Relations

The committee's last meeting will be today. The committee is busy working on PR for two bands and the craft show.

Special Events

The Blizzards of Bucks program went well. Niteclass was almost full. The last committee meeting will be next week.

Niteclass

Inside Trak will play after the basketball game on December 2. This is the band that won "Battle of the Bands". The committee is getting together ideas for Spring.

PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Scott Taylor apologized for missing the meetings, but he has city commission meetings at the same time.

Scott said that UCB has done a tremendous job. Bennie is out because of a sickness, but Scott said they both express appreciation for an outstanding job. He said that UCB gets the job done. The PR is great and the programs have been of good quality and entertaining. Scott wants UCB to try more and more new things.
