ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTS

Program Coordinator

Bennie welcomed everyone back. He announced that he was setting up for a retreat for all of the chairs and it was going to be Saturday, January 18 at 10:00 am. There were a few programs that had to go through executive action over Christmas. Some of these include co-sponsoring with the Apple Office for Wizard of AIDS Lecture and also with BSA for Martin Luther King Celebration. They are working on trying to get concerts here by working out dates with promoters. These programs aren't going to cost UCB anything because the promoter pays for it. He also announced that UCB needs to start working on things for next fall.

Student Activities Director

Scott welcomed everyone back. He wants everyone to be thinking about new ideas and talk to their faculty or staff representatives if they have any questions.

DUC Day Manager

Patty announced that two people have replaced Tony. They are Ann Patterson and Gary Satori. Ann works Monday, Wednesday, and Friday and Gary works Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. The proposal that was passed last semester will be continued and there will be ads ran in the College Heights Herald and packets will be given out to different organizations and residence halls.
