RESIDENCE HALL ASSOCIATION

RHA has a new president, Brent Weedman. The support baskets for finals that RHA sent last semester were very successful. Topics of discussion were very successful. Topics of discussion included the many hall programs that residence halls are hosting including a Hall Olympics the last week in February. Everyone was very optimistic about the semester. We have a new secretary, Angela Grimes. The Executive officers and six members of RHA are planning a trip to EKU for a leadership conference KAUCRAH in February.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Spring rush just ended. Out of 120 people going through rush, 75 pledged. That is a very good number and IFC is looking forward to a successful semester.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Concert Committee

They are working on the PR for Jane Powell and the signs should be up by the week of February 3. She will be here Monday, February 10.

Lecture

Bill Spencer was here Monday, January 27. On Wednesday, February 5 Sarah Weddington will be speaking on date rape. She was the representing attorney in the famous Roe vs. Wade case. Darryl VanLeer, WKU alumni and nationally known actor portrayer will be in DUC theatre Monday, February 17 at 7:00 p.m.

Public Relations

PR had a meeting Tuesday, January 28. They have made ads for Jane Powell and Sarah Weddington.

Special Events

They are working on a proposal for a small version of Mardi Gras but it can't be figured without cost. They are discussing Splash Bash ideas and working with concert committee for a band. They are hoping to do a JFK lecture with lecture committee. The meeting time for special events is going to be changed from 3:30 on Tuesday to 3:00 on Tuesday because people work and class.

Niteclass

Terrence thanked Bennie Beach for helping him get settled into the first program for Niteclass which was "The Magic of Stu & Lori" on Monday, January 27. He also thanked Tonya Stenson, Jerry Moore, Trevor Wathen, Mr. Wolf and Mr. Johnson for coming to the program. On February 20 Blizzard of Bucks will be in Niteclass. Their next meeting will be Monday at 6:30.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTS

Program Coordinator

The organizational meeting for executive staff and chairs on Saturday, January 25 went well. Sarah Weddington, the representative in the famous abortion case Roe vs. Wade, will be on campus Wednesday, February 5 for a lecture at 7:00. There will be a press conference held at 3:30 for one hour in DUC theatre. Bennie reminded everyone to look into the Fall semester and make plans. Darrell Sims, an alum of WKU who promotes black entertainment, wants to bring a number of programs mainly for Nite Class and some for Garrett. We will not be attending the NACA national conference in Dallas because of the recession. There might be a possibility of going to the regional conference.
