February 15, 1999 UCB minutes by: Carla Anderson

Jason Nemis announced that SGA was going to be holding elections on April 6 and 13.

It was then announced that the Mardi Gras Social will be held tomorrow and they would like to have a lot of people turn out for this event.

There is going to be four bands playing this Saturday on the 20th at Nite Class

There is a show on the 27th with two bands. Tony also said that they may want to look into booking three bands for a better turn out because there was only about 15-20 people at the last show and more bands means more people.

Scott reported that Mardi Gras was sponsored by Hall Residence who has two bands booked.

(A) Muckrackers

(B) Skillet Jones

each band is being paid a $100.00 each for a total of $200.00

Scott also said that UCB may want to look into having a retreat to work on plans for next fall. He said it would just be a one day event where UCB gets to get away and work on future plans.

Scott also brought up that someone may want to start calling UCB members and reminding them of meetings coming up so that the group could get back up.

Jerry informed the group that there was a show concerning Date Rape next week in The theater at 7:00.

PROPOSALS

The Lecture committee requested that on April 5 they have Lloyd Arback a mentalist act which would also include some magic tricks. The total cost would be $3000. The group voted and it was passed.

The Concert committee requested that Jello Biafra come and have a spoken lecture on Monday March 31 at Due Theater. They would get word out to other campuses to get then to come. This show would be free to WKU students and a charge of $5.00 to non WKU students. The group voted and it passed. The total for this event is $ 5500.

Bennie had a motion considering Earth Day Festival to have Bone Pony play for $1500 in mid-late April on DUC south lawn. The motion was voted on and passed.

Adam had a proposal that on March 6 Rockin local band and special guest play for $200.00. The motion was voted on and passed.

The motion was passed to have the Muckrackers and Skillet Jones play for Mardi Gras for 200.00
