Vol. IX No. 1

FROM THE PRESIDENT

March 29, 1968

The Kentucky Education Association

Many members of Western's faculty and staff will be active participants in the activities of the annual KEA Convention, scheduled April 17-20 in Louisville, Kentucky. They will serve in various capacities, such as speakers or consultants, representatives to the delegate assembly, or as official representatives of the University.

Western will maintain headquarters in the lobby of the Kentucky Hotel for the Convention. Faculty and staff members are cordially invited to use these headquarters at any time to relax, meet friends, etc.

Western's Annual KEA Breakfast

Western's hosting of the Annual KEA Breakfast is one of the great traditions of the University. This year's Breakfast is set for Friday morning, April 19, at 8 o'clock (EST) in the Crystal Ballroom of the Brown Hotel. It's always meaningful to Western to have many members of its faculty and staff, along with the wives or husbands, at the KEA Breakfast. "Gemini 15," Western's highly successful musical group which has just returned from a USO European tour entertaining American servicemen, will be featured on the program.

Tickets for the Breakfast may be purchased at the University Business Office or at Western headquarters in Louisville.

Classes will be dismissed for spring vacation and the annual meeting of the Kentucky Education Association with the end of the last class period on Saturday, April 13. Classes resume with the first class period on Monday, April 22.
