After a very exciting, energizing and educational experience at the Capitol Building of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, you are beginning to wrap your head around the inner workings of our state government and how it functions.

1. How do you feel that you impacted this state crisis? What difference did you participating in this rally make?
2. What was the most memorable/important part of the experience you had as a participant in this rally?
3. How/where have you acquired the knowledge and skills that are most important for you, as students, to be able to influence the workings of government and the influence the decisions made?
4. What suggestions do you have (for the university and its faculty) that will better prepare you to be effective participants in shaping and influencing political decisions?
5. What could have been done to make your day more effective or productive?

*Each participant will be expected to complete this 'reflections' paper. A copy of it should be given to the SGA Vice President before leaving the bus when you return to campus. A copy of your paper will also be provided to each faculty member whose class you missed to participate in the rally.*

I feel that every student who attended the rally today stood for the future of Higher education in Kentucky. As someone who attended the rally, I believe that I have aided in the advancement of an intellectual society, which will eventually provide a better quality of life for many Kentuckians. Though I may not have personally made a difference, it is the unity of the people's presence that makes a difference. No one person or one school could have altered the outcome, but we stood united and that may have made all the difference.

2) for me the most memorable part of the rally was getting to photograph a united Kentucky. Though ~~two~~ schools may be rivals on the court we stood for a common cause which made for an unforgettable occasion.

3) much of what I have learned has been gleaned through campus life, peer social interaction, and the college lifestyle. However the instinct to fight for a better future is human nature, and if the rally was successful the road for such a future will have been paved.

4) I believe the rally was very fruitful, but perhaps specific prepared chants, and more efficient transportation would aid in being more effective.

5) To make my day ~~more~~ more productive I would have needed a bigger memory card, but other than that I feel it was a productive day.
