GOING UP . . . Work on the new four-story women's dormitory is steadily progressing as the $800,000 building begins to take shape. The new, fully air-conditioned dorm, scheduled to be ready for use in the fall of 1964, will house 230 coeds and will feature a sandwich shop with a seating capacity of 200. The dorm is similar in style and construction to State Hall, which is also located on the Kentucky Building grounds.

Zither-Playing Folk Singer Presents Assembly Program

Strumming a 50-year-old zither and singing folksongs describing various phases of life from birth to death, Winifred Smith entertained a full auditorium at the October 30 chapel assembly.

Opening selection of the program was the first folksong recorded in America, "In the Moon of Wintertime." This was written by a Jesuit priest in the language of the American Indian to relay to them the story of the birth of Jesus.

Following this, Miss Smith sang a number of other folk songs, touching on themes of love, grief, and life on the sea. Throughout the program, she accompanied herself on a zither, a comparatively unknown stringed musical instrument.

A graduate of Peabody College, Miss Smith has appeared in numerous folk festivals. In 1959 she appeared as a soloist in the National Folk Festival.

A kinship with Western can be claimed by Miss Smith. She is the daughter-in-law of Mrs. Louise Cherry Breast, AB '27, niece of the late Dr. E. H. Cherry, founder of Western. The senior Mrs. Breast is the daughter of the late Mrs. T. C. Cherry, for many years a member of the English department, and the late Dr. T. C. Cherry, former superintendent

English Club Meeting Goes Hootenanny

Members of the Leiper English club were treated to folk music by Mr. Tom Jones, English department, at the November 7 meeting held in the Kentucky Building.

Mr. Jones was introduced by Sandra Stuart, vice-president.

Accompanying himself on his guitar, he led the group in singing old folk ballads. His selections included "The Fox", a former English hunting song written in the 1500's. He also sang "The Foggy Dew" and the American ballad, "Frankie and Johnny."

Business meeting was called to order by the president, Barbara Reynolds. Dr. Willson Wood, head of the English department, presided in the absence of Miss Francis Richards, the club's sponsor.

Refreshments of cider and ginger snaps were served following the program.

'A Far Country' Chosen For 2nd Major Production

The Western Players have chosen for their second major production of the season Henry Denker's drama, A FAR COUNTRY. This presentation under the direction of Dr. Russell H. Miller is scheduled for Van Meter Auditorium on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, December 11, 12, and 13.

Auditions for the selection of the cast for the new show were held on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Auditions for the selection of talent for the current version of the annual Package Show, the variety unit sponsored by the Western Players, will be held in Van Meter Auditorium this evening at seven. Singers, dancers, comedians, and all kinds of specialty acts are needed for the building of the entertainment unit which plays to club, convention, and school audiences through the season. All types of entertainers are urged to come out for the auditions.

A FAR COUNTRY, the new production, is an intensely exciting drama dealing with the origin of psychiatry. The play takes its title from the quotation from Heraclitus, "The soul of a man is a far country which cannot be approached or explored." Playwright Henry Denker takes as his hero, Sigmund Freud, who dared to try.

Dr. John Lane of the Psychology department discussed the life and significance of Sigmund Freud at the session of the Players on Tuesday evening to give the aspirants for roles some insight into the life

New Method Of Teaching French Adopted By College

A new method of teaching French, which has proved highly successful in six years of testing in classrooms across the nation, has been adopted at Western.

The course, called "Je Parle Francais," is an integrated system of films and sound tapes made in France, plus students' texts and teachers manuals. These materials make up a multi-sensory approach to learning French, which appeals to the eye and ear simultaneously and simulates the experience of living with a French family.

"Je Parle Francais" was developed by Encyclopedia Britannica Films Inc.

According to Dr. Paul G. Hatcher, head of the Department of Foreign Languages, use of the new program will enable teachers here to help their students learn French by working with the language many times in meaningful situations.

Dr. Hatcher said the new program has six goals: (1) aural comprehension - the ability to understand easily any native French speaker; (2) oral fluency - the ability to express oneself easily and adequately; (3) becoming involved with French through continuing enriching experiences so the language is a medium through which new channels of communication are established; (4) reading fluency - the ability to read French literature easily and enjoyably without translating; (5) writing fluency - the ability to write French with the same ease and facility as a native language; and (6) cultural knowledge and understanding of the development of the culture and civilization of France.

The course consists of 10 1/2 hours of color film - 120 filmed lessons averaging five minutes apiece - plus audio tapes which parallel the lessons in name and number and contain the complete text of the film recorded for repetition drill.

Each tape also has questions and answers and special drill exercises. Approximately fifty-four hours of listening and drill are involved. In addition there are a four-volume student's text and a two-volume teacher's manual, containing an exact transcription of each lesson

Others taking part in the discussion were Roger Redman, freshman from Louisville; Glenn Miller, senior from Island, and the club's president, Dick Anderson, a senior from Elkton.

Dr. Robert Obojski of the English department was the club's guest for the discussion.

The next club meeting will be held on November 25, at 7:15 p.m. in the Student Center.

THE 24 VOICE TEXAS BOYS CHOIR will appear in Van Meter Auditorium Monday, November 18, for the first of this year's Community Concert presentations.

C. Perry Snell Great Western Benefactor

By Doris Pendleton

One of the wealthiest men ever to live in Bowling Green was also one of Western's most noted benefactors. The priceless contributions which he left to Western, included paintings, statuary, miscellaneous art treasures, and financial gifts. He was Mr. C. Perry Snell, in whose honor Snell Hall is named.

Mr. Snell was born in Bowling Green June 5, 1889, the second son of C. Perry Snell and Isabella Shelton Snell. His parents were pioneers in Warren county. His father, a Virginian, served in Morgan's cavalry.

Education
Educated at Ogden College and Cherry Brothers Institute, Mr. Snell became a drug clerk in Townsend's drug store at age 17. Later he graduated from the College of Pharmacy in Louisville. He then travelled to Los Angeles, Chicago, and back to Columbia, Tenn. In the meantime, much of his salary went to help his brother and sister further their educations.

Mr. Snell's first "development" is reported to have been a 40,000 peach tree orchard near Chattanooga.

St. Petersburg
In 1904 he moved to St. Petersburg, Fla., where he went into the real estate business. There he developed Snell Isle, a residential area, and Snell Arcade, a business building in the center of St. Petersburg. The lot sale of the Snell Isle development in 1925 was the largest in St. Petersburg's history, topping $7,000,000.

Mr. Snell made many contributions to St. Petersburg, in-

Book Marks

By KAREN DURBIN

This week, November 10 - 16, is American Education Week. A.E.W. provides a special opportunity to revitalize one's school or college public information program. Theme for American Education Week is "Education Strengthens the Nation".

In adherence to this week we should try to read as much as we can. Maybe you would like to read a few of the books listed here.

It was Bacon who wrote "Travel, in the younger sort, is a part of education; and in the elder, a part of experience." This is well understood in the book The Benefits of Study Abroad by George Gardner and Stanley Washburn, Jr. The purpose of this book is to encourage travel as an integral part of education, and particularly to encourage travel abroad.

The author is concerned to put at your disposal a book which, simple in its approach and not too academic, would lead you and your contemporaries to do two things. First of all, you would have an urge to venture abroad. Secondly, having read his book you would seek further information in the specific areas of interest

Things You Will Never Learn By Going To Class

Nine out of ten students wish 8 o'clock classes would be abolished and that one doesn't have any before 12:40.

The best way to find a lost contact lens is to walk around the immediate area until you hear a small crunch.

The only way to get correct change from a coke machine is to put the correct change in. Good news for dieters - will power now comes in the large economy gallon size.

A foolproof way (proved by fools) to light a cigarette under the hairdryer has been found - use a blow torch.

Teachers, to solve that problem of students in the front row going to sleep - take out all the front rows.

Remember that day you finally admitted your I. D. picture really did look like you?

Way back in the Dark Ages, skirts covered the knees and teasing had nothing to do with hair.

There is a movement on the Hill to get a ski lift for transportation up the Hill this winter.

Why do the teachers smile as they hand out tests? Read the test and you'll find out.

There's a rumor around the campus that black-market gin-flavored bubble gum is being sold under the counter at the Snack Bar.

Maybe someday someone will learn something in class.

HILLTOPICS

by DOUG VERDIER

Hilltopic

Western's Big Red Hilltoppers completely dominated Saturday's football game against the Morehead Eagles to clinch at least a tie for the OVC crown, while running their undefeated streak to eleven straight games.

Although the crowd was small compared to the last two or three home games, the fans who were there showed a great deal of that Western Spirit that has sparked this year's Hilltoppers to a tremendously successful season.

With the team idle next weekend, all the suitcases on campus should make their weekly sojourn and then plan to be on hand the 23rd when Western meets Murray for the final game of the season.

A team which puts out such a determined effort throughout the season deserves the support of every student, especially at the final game of the season.

Hilltopic

Tickets are now on sale in the Western business office for the December 7 dedicatory game in the E. A. Diddle Arena.

Student tickets are priced at $1 until November 27, after which students will have to pay full price for seats.

A full day of activities has been planned for the dedication of the Academic - Athletic Building and the Arena, with Gov. Bert Combs scheduled to deliver the principle address.

Hilltopic

The Texas Boys Choir will appear in Van Meter Auditorium Monday, November 18, at 8 p.m., for the first Community Concert program of the season.

Western students will be admitted to the concert free by showing their student ID cards at the door.

Hilltopic

Students needing rides or riders during the upcoming Thanksgiving vacation are urged to use the Travel Board located in the Student Center.

Quick results may also be obtained through the Herald's classified ad service. A charge of five cents a word is made for classified ads.

Do You Know...?

By GEORGE

— That the Kentucky building was the personal product of Dr. H. H. Cherry?

— That in the spring of 1928 the W-club was organized.

— That Coach Diddle's favorite saying is, "By god, boys —?"

— That in 1908 President Cherry decided to have a mock political convention among the students at Western? The convention was designed to help understand the process of selecting a candidate for president but to President Cherry's dismay the convention ended in a riotous brawl.

— That in 1906 class attendance was less than 50 per cent of the student enrollment?

— That in 1925 a student at Western Kentucky State Normal School gave this account of his life in the dormitory: "The mosquitoes were so bad at night that we bathed in the oil of citronella, which had a very profound odor. The floors were so unsanitary that we sat at the edge of the bed before removing our shoes, a habit which I still have. Just below the bedroom was the kitchen. The waiters were all boys. Toward the end of the year we had a girl to wait upon us, but the other girls whispered about her and regarded her as very bold."

— That in 1931 Dick Powell was a judge in a beauty contest at Western?

— That on the gloomy afternoon of February 1, 1928 students and faculty of Southern Normal School formed a long line up the hill each transporting an article of chapel program at Western?

— That the Vista, the first yearbook of Western Kentucky State Normal School, was the forerunner of our Talisman?

— That Frank Griffin is the oldest football coach, in years of service, in the O.V.C.?

Roamin' Thoughts...

An oil gauge can be used for something besides measuring the amount of oil in a car as one enterprising student recently discovered.

Apparently he had locked his car and lost the key. The car windows were all rolled up except the little side window. So how does he get his car unlocked? Why naturally he takes the oil gauge from under the hood, bends it to form a hook, slips it through the open window and unlocks the car door.

He then straightens the oil gauge and puts it back in its proper place and drives off.

He was watched from a dormitory window so he will have to remain anonymous.

to them.

All you need to know about colleges and universities in 15 European countries, their historical background, entrance requirements, scholarships, tuition and library costs, fields of study available, teaching methods and student travel benefits, can be found in this book.

The Essentials of Learning by Robert M. W. Travers, reflects the out-look of an experienced educator who believes that students of the profession of teaching must understand related discipline (this instance, the psychology of learning), because advances in education will be built upon these foundations.

There are full reports of laboratory and experimental research on learning problems. He gives students a framework in learning to which they may apply their studies of curriculum and teaching methods.

Oriented for the students of education, the book takes up topics of particular interest in the field such as social factors in learning, problem solving, and teaching machines.

There is a thorough introduction to an aspect of psychology that has profound implications for teaching. It prepares you (as students), to apply its results to your work or gives excellent preparation for advanced study.

Written for and directly to the student teacher is Elementary School Student Teaching by G. Max Wingo. Important teaching concepts within the context of the classroom situation are presented.

The book deals not only with teaching methods, but also with the aims of the elementary school, as they relate to principles of child development, the guidance function of the elementary school, and the relation of extra class activities to the total program.

Also covered are the problems of the teacher arising from such situations as classes including very gifted or slow-learning students and schools offering very limited facilities or equipment.

All in all this is a basic pro-

Woodrow Wilson Fellowships Total 1,000 Per Year

The Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation offers 1,000 fellowships for first year graduate study leading to careers in college teaching. Woodrow Wilson Fellows are chosen from about 10,000 candidates nominated by college faculty members in the United States and Canada.

Eligible for nomination are men and women of outstanding intellectual promise, graduates of or seniors in the colleges of the United States and Canada. At the time of nomination the student may not be enrolled in a graduate school.

The selection committees place particular emphasis on the quality of a nominee's preparation for graduate study. A solid foundation at the undergraduate level is desired in courses such as foreign languages, mathematics and English composition, particularly writing essays and reports on independent research.

Through funds granted by the Ford Foundation a single Fellow or a married Fellow without children receives a living stipend of $1800 for one academic year. Married Fellows with children receive an additional allowance of $1,000 for the first child, and $250 for each additional child.

To be eligible, every candidate must be nominated by a faculty member no later than October 31, of his senior year. For further information on procedure, Dr. Paul G. Hatcher, head of the Foreign Language department, the local Woodrow Wilson campus representative should be contacted.

ALPHA GAMMA TAU

Rushes of Alpha Gamma Tau fraternity met with regular members at the fraternity second rush party, Tuesday, November 5, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Meeting at Western Hills Restaurant, the agriculture fraternity opened its meeting with introduction of members and guests. This was followed by food and drinks for everyone. After brief entertainment, Mendel Howard, senior, Elkton, outlined the aims and purposes of the organization.

PHI DELTA CHI

Have you noticed the small confederate flags which have been circulating over the campus, especially at the football games? They are being sold by the Phi Delta Chi fraternity. If you wish to purchase a flag, just contact any member of the fraternity.

Phi Deltis held their final rush party last night in the dining room of the Holiday Inn. The party which was in the form of a dinner dance started at 6:30 p.m. and concluded at 10:30 p.m.

EPSILON ALPHA

Epsilon Alpha sorority held its third rush party November 4th, at Western Hills restaurant.

Pineapples, coconuts and palm trees carried through the theme "Hawaiian Luau". Costumes consisting of flowered dresses, beachcombers and surfer outfits, made the party appear true Hawaii.

"Hawaiian Eye" was present, in solving the murder of "Honolulu Lulu". The characters were sorority girls in disguise, but "Hawaiian Eye" solved the murder despite its inexperience. The Luau was ended with participation of rushes and sorority members in a Hula dance.

RUSH WEEK

"You'd never know it was the same room."

"Isn't this sharp?"

"This sure took a lot of work."

These were only a few of the many remarks of the sorority rushes this semester as they entered the Student Center to attend the rush parties. Each sorority carried out their theme very well with a variety of decorations.

The room changed from a choo-choo to backstage Broadway to a midnight eve of Halloween.

The bright-eyed rushes left each party impressed while the weary actives turned to face their many hours of hard work which was to be torn down; and the room returned to its daily bridge lay-out.

ZETA TAU OMEGA

Zeta Tau Omega sorority entertained the rushes with a date party at Western Hills Restaurant on Tuesday night.

Theme of the party was "Night in Outer Space." A life size rocket and other decorations were used to carry out the theme. The color scheme was green and white, which are the Zeta colors.

A skit was presented by some of the sorority members in the form of an amateur hour in outer space. After the skit, dancing and good party, fun was continued.

BETA ALPHA RHO

Mr. Charles Keown, Dean of Students, announced Thursday, November 7, that the social fraternity, formerly known as the Baron's club, has been recognized by the school. The organization will be known as Beta Alpha Rho.

Stan Billingsley, junior pre-law student, Greenville, is president of the fraternity, which has thirty-one members. Other officers include Gary Cambron, junior, Hawesville, vice-president; Ronnie Spiess, junior, Lebanon, treasurer; Don Goodman, senior, Hardinsburg, secretary; John Allen, junior, Charlestown, Ind., historian; and Dave Corbett, junior, Lebanon, sergeant-at-arms.

The organization is the fourteenth recognized fraternity at Western. The club is also a charter member of the Interfraternity Council.

The Baron club was the first social organization founded at Western some thirty years ago. At that time the school did not formally recognize fraternities or sororities.

Recognition of Beta Alpha Rho ends the first step of Western's fraternity program which was instituted in 1962. According to existing rules certain fraternities and sororities will become eligible for participation in national organizations at the end of this semester.

Two New History Courses Required

History majors and minors who enrolled at Western September, 1962 or after will be required to take History 104 and Earliest Times to 1500. This also includes those students in area science in Secondary Education.

This course was offered in September 1963 and will be offered each semester hereafter.

It is suggested that History 104 follow History 103.

In other news, the History club will meet November 21, 7:00, at the Kentucky Building.

NOTICE

Western's Faculty Wives club has scheduled a bazaar December 5 in the Faculty House.

Hours for the bazaar are 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

All proceeds will go to the Faculty Wives student scholarship fund.

Ogden College

In 1924 Mr. Snell made a gift of $30,000 to his alma mater, Ogden College. This was matched by donations of other Ogden alumni, and the money used to erect Snell Hall.

For many years Snell Hall was used to house the Biology department.

The Italian garden by the side of Snell Hall contains statuary sent here by Mr. Snell while on a European tour. This garden was planned by Henry Wright of New York, who served as Western's landscape architect until his death in 1937. Mr. Wright spent several months in Italy studying old Italian gardens. The four seasons are set with the points of the compass, and flagstone paths converging to the center unite around a large vase of Italian stone.

Art Contributions

The famous Perry Snell art collection was presented to Western in 1929. Representing the cream of a dozen trips to the "ends of the earth," it contains about one hundred Italian paintings on canvas, wood, and copper. Also, there are many old and rare types of miniatures, done on copper, ivory, and porcelain. They were assembled by Mr. Snell in countries of Southern Europe and Mexico.

He also donated highly-prized antique Spanish prints, among which is a series of four depicting Columbus and his landing in America. Also in the collections is some beautifully carved furniture, including altar pieces from Italian churches and furnishings from Spanish castles, dating back to the fourteenth century.

And More...

Nor did Mr. Snell's generosity end here. Later on the philanthropist added a collection of Mexican relics of great antiquity. Among them is a crystal goblet once owned by Emperor Maximilian of Mexico.

Many of the paintings, statuary, and art objects are located in the library and other places on campus; the rest of the collection is housed in the Kentucky Building.

In 1942, while on a trip to Monterrey, Mexico, Mr. Snell was stricken ill with heart trouble. He was removed to Laredo, Tex., where he died on October 23. The funeral for the 73-year-old man was held in State Street Methodist Church, and he was buried in Fairview Cemetery.

The "plot" of the film is the story of a French-born American college professor who returns to France with his niece and an American exchange teacher. Their travels take them around France and through their conversation — and that of the people they meet — the language is taught.

Four Future Teachers Are Chapel Speakers

In connection with American Education Week (Nov. 10-17) four future teachers, introduced by Prof. Carl Kreiser of the Education department, addressed the chapel audience last Wednesday. Each spoke on a different phase of our country's education program, stressing the theme "Education strengthens the nation."

First speaker, Joe Haselden, talking on the values of free men, said, "In this class of approximately 2,000 freshmen lies the greatest leadership potential ever found at Western." "This potential," urged the junior history major from Shelbyville, "must be developed and brought out."

Educational opportunities for all was the topic of Campbells-ville senior Anne Coop's address. Miss Coop brought out the problems of drop-outs, social class restrictions, finances, and other difficulties standing between some youths and a good education.

"The true key to quality education is quality teachers," declared Roger Richardson, president of the local SNEA. The senior from Cecilia said that "no other profession possesses the power, influence and authority to determine and control the kind of world in which we live."

Ron Morehead, Bowling Green sophomore, discussed four goals of education: (1) expansion of facilities; (2) establishment of a larger corps of career teachers; (3) advancement of research and development for instructional improvements; (4) tailoring of the curriculum to fit individual abilities.

I WAS A TEEN-AGE SLIDE RULE

In a recent learned journal (Playboy) the distinguished board chairman (Ralph "Hot Lips" Sigafoos) of one of our most important American industrial corporations (the Arf Mechanical Dog Co.) wrote a trenchant article in which he pinpointed our single most serious national problem: the lack of culture among science graduates.

Let me hasten to state that Mr. Sigafoos' article was in no sense derogatory. He said emphatically that the science graduate, what with his gruelling curriculum in physics, math, and chemistry, can hardly be expected to find time to study the arts too. What distresses Mr. Sigafoos--and, indeed, all of us--is the lopsided result of today's science courses: graduates who can build a skyscraper but can't compose a concerto; who know Newton's Third Law but not Beethoven's Fourth Symphony.

The lopsided result of today's science

phony; who are familiar with Fraunhofer's lines but not with Shelley's.

Mr. Sigafoos can find no solution to this lamentable imbalance. I, however, believe there is one--and a very simple one. It is this: if students of science don't have time to come to the arts, then the arts must come to students of science.

For example, it would be a very easy thing to teach poetry and music right along with physics. Students, instead of being called upon merely to recite, would instead be required to rhyme their answers and set them to familiar tunes--like, for instance, the stirring Colonel Bogey March. Thus recitations would not only be chock-a-block with important facts but would, at the same time, expose the students to the aesthetic delights of great poetry and music. Here, try it yourself. You all know The Colonel Bogey March. Come, sing along with me:

Physics
Is what we learn in class.
Einstein
Said energy is mass.
Newton
Is high-falutin'
And Pascal's aascal. So's Boyle.

Do you see how much more broadening, how much more uplifting it is to learn physics this way? Of course you do. What? You want another chorus? By all means:

Leyden
He made the Leyden jar.
Trolley
He made the Trolley car.
Curie
Rode in a sturvy
And Diesel's aascal. So's Boyle.

Once the student has mastered The Colonel Bogey March, he can go on to more complicated melodies like Death and Transfiguration, Sixteen Tons, and Boo-Hoo.

And when the student, loaded not only with science but with culture, leaves his classroom and lights his Marlboro Cigarette, how much more he will enjoy that filter, that flavor, that pack or box! Because there will no longer be a little voice within him repeating that he is culturally a dolt. He will know--know joyously--that he is a complete man, a fulfilled man, and he will bask and revel in the pleasure of his Marlboro as a colt rolls in new grass--exultant and triumphant--a truly educated human person--a credit to his college, to himself, and to his tobacconist!

© 1963 Max Shulman

We, the makers of Marlboros and sponsors of this column, urge you not to roll colt-wies in the grass if you are carrying a soft pack of Marlboros in your pocket. If, however, you are carrying the crush-proof box and weigh less than 200 pounds, you may safely fling yourself about.

Four Prime Principles Of Effective Studying

By Doris Pendleton

School life this year has started off with a bang! Football games, various elections, homecoming events — all of these have added up to a whirlwind of activity in the brief span of approximately two months. But wait a minute — isn't there something missing?

Well, yes, it might be more dances. Or parties. Or pep rallies. But no — it's STUDYING! Let's hope that after midterm, few are "found wanting."

Psychologists and educators have drawn up a few basic principles which have the student's learning activities in mind. These study principles include excellent suggestions on how to study effectively and prepare for tests. Some are as follows:

1. Take good notes in class. Good note-taking is somewhat an art; only the very skillful possess it. First of all, don't try to take down everything the professor says. Omit irrelevant details, but do organize facts and outline information. Listen for key words, such as "divisions," "factors," "types" and "interpretations." Listen, too, for transition words which guide the direction of the lecture, such as "therefore," "another," "also," and "several."

2. Review notes briefly each day, or every 2 or 3 days. This facilitates retention of material and prevents "cramming." Reviewing also helps to clarify meaning, point up weak spots or errors, and eliminate irrelevant or meaningless information.

Taking notes on book-page margins also has retention value. Underlining has questionable value; perhaps dates, important names and factual details should be underlined. But too much underlining defeats its purpose!

3. Find a good place to study. The study area should be quiet, comfortable, well-lighted, and uncluttered with pictures, food, or sentimental souvenirs. Blaring music from radio or record player should be discouraged. The study area should face a blank wall, not a window or a hall. The reclining position should be avoided.

4. Determine a routine time and method of study and stick to it! Don't waste time or stray from the task at hand. Stick with the job until it is finished. However, if the periods of study are excessively long, they should be interrupted occasionally by short breaks.

These study rules do not guarantee an overall 4.0 standing. If followed closely, they do, however, make studying and learning easier and more meaningful. They substitute action and coherent organization for "cramming" and slipshod methods that are costly in time, grades, money, and physical stamina.

C. H. CHAPEL SET TUESDAY

A College high school chapel assembly will be held in Van Meter Auditorium at 11:55 a.m. next Tuesday.

Miss Gertrude Bale, music teacher, will direct the College high girl's chorus, choir, and quartet. Each group will present its vocal selections.

Faculty Facts

Four members of the Department of Economics will attend a Southern Economic Association Conference in Roanoke, Va., beginning tomorrow and continuing through November 18. Those attending are Mr. Kenneth Quindry, Mr. Wayne L. Dobson, Mr. John T. Masten, Jr., and Dr. L. R. McGee.

The program consists primarily of speakers from various Southeastern colleges and universities. Mr. Quindry will participate in Seminar B Saturday, November 16. He will discuss "State, Metropolitan, and Local Finance." His discussion is based on and will follow the reading of three papers: "Public Finance in a Metropolitan," "The General Property Tax and Land Use," and "Homestead Exemption and Its Effects in Mississippi."

Four of Western's music faculty will attend the Kentucky Music Teacher's Association in Lexington, November 17-19. Miss Mary Chisholm, Mr. Ohm Paul, Mr. Edward Thaden, and Dr. Howard Carpenter will be present for the opening of the convention.

Appearing as soloists at the convention are Dr. Carpenter and Mr. Thaden doing the Brahms Sonata in A major for violin and piano.

Several students will also be present at the convention. Barbara Bushnell Jonson, representing Western, will sing on the college program at the meeting.

Alumni News

Mrs. Margaret Sherry, BS '55, who's husband is Staff Judge Advocate at Seagart Air Force Base in Smyrna, Tenn., conducted last summer a course for mathematically deficient high school pupils — the first such course ever to be offered in the Smyrna area.

Taking advantage of the tuition-free course were fourteen high school pupils. Mrs. Sherry offered the course because she feels that college trained persons... should channel their ability into productive activities of this sort.

Archie Jordan, AB '40, of Crofton, was on the Hill Friday, October 18th. He is doing graduate work at Peabody in Nashville.

Don Backer, AB '41, of Pasadena, Calif., was a recent visitor at Western. He is married and has one son, Jackie. Backer is a former reporter on the College Heights Herald.

Thomas Earl Kinser, former student at Western, is working in the Research Projects Division, Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama.

Dr. Werner Von Braun, director of Marshall Space Flight Center, presented Kinser with a certificate May 13, in recognition of his sustained superior performance over the past year.

Wilmer H. Meredith, class of 1929, the Smiths Grove postmaster and Mrs. Meredith, also a former student of Western, have returned from the Hawaiian Islands where they attended the 59th Annual Convention of the National Association of Postmasters in Honolulu.

Mr. Meredith was stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii with the 38th Infantry Division for seven months during World War II prior to divisional operations in New Guinea and in the Philippine Islands as commanding Officer, 3rd Battalion, 149th Infantry.

Len Shirrell, BS '48, has been elected president of Kentucky Veterinary Medical Association. Dr. Shirrell is a graduate of Iowa State University and is in veterinary practice in Frankfort, Kentucky. He is married and has four children.

Glenda Fowler, AB '55, formerly of Louisville, was wed to Mr. Herold Bussell August 26.

Both Mrs. Bussell and her husband will be students at the University of Louisville Kent School of Social Work for two years.

Bernard E. Tichenor, AB '62, has been appointed to the position of Personnel Assistant at the U.S. Army Armor Center, Fort Knox.

Mrs. Betty Spradlyn Morton, BA '58, former editor of the Herald, has carried her knowledge acquired from the Herald to Bristol, Va.

At John S. Battle high school, Mrs. Morton's journalism class is in charge of publishing the Highlander, the school newspaper. The Highlander, an eight page newspaper, is printed the last Friday of every month by the Washington County News, Abington, Va. When Mrs. Morton took over as director of publication, the Highlander was revamped completely. The paper is now published with the offset method.

John S. Battle High school has an enrollment of 1,200 students. In addition to journalism, Mrs. Morton teaches tenth and twelfth year English, speech, and drama.

Gillys L. Allen, BS '41, is teaching math at Tempe High School, Tempe, Arizona. Mr. Allen majored in math, physics and history. While at Western he was vice-president of Phi Alpha Theta, honorary history fraternity, and was a counselor in North Hall.

New Way To Solve Your Petty Problems

By Neill Myers
Worried about mid-term exams, papers for ping-pong 1-2, inter-sorority judo matches, or how to explain to Mama why you didn't make "Who's Who?" Relax. An amazing solution has been developed to dissolve all your problems.

Contrary to popular belief, it is not habit-forming, alcoholic in content, nor upsetting to the stomach. It is called Tetra-giglius Immunity. In other words, forget about it all. Dismiss the trivial little problem-pettys.

Form an inter-fraternity-intra-sorority-ultra-intellectual panel to discuss important problems of world-wide concern; such as "Can Madame Nhu's daughter really sing better than Little Stevie Wonder?" or "Resolved: Krushchev would be more acceptable to the Western world if he donned a Princeton-cut toupee.

Men, don't be discouraged if you haven't been invited to the Sadie Hawkins dance by that cute little miss who sits across from you in zoology and is forever batting her long silky Helena Rubenstein eyelashes at YOUR frog.

The next time she tippy-tippy toes into lab, tell her your frog is your frog and he happens to be very much smitten by the sweet little lady frog that LaRana Pipiens is dissecting. (LaRana Pipiens is the girl with the wart on her nose that sits on the front row. She's making an A you hate her. But she'll do to make Flutter-lash Ogles chartreuse with envy.)

In no time at all you will have that date for the Dog Patch Fling. It really won't make too much difference at a Sadie Hawkins dance if she has a wart on her nose, will it?

Girls, worried because your expense account is void of that sweet, green crackly stuff? There is one thing to remedy this situation. You've got to cut down on extravagancies.

No more steak, lamb chops, pork chops, spare ribs, spare tires, or ham. Get your protein from coconut soup. No more text books, fountain pens, or erasers. Just attack the next quail that did-ee-bops past your dorm, steal one of his feathers, tie a madras ribbon around it and you'll have an exquisite, conversation-piece writing tool. As a matter of fact, you could kill two stones with one bird by having quail filet for supper.

Term papers on napkins, menus, matchbook covers, kleenexes, or around the edges of the Courier-Journal never fail to make an impression on professors.

Don't buy soap, toothpaste, razor blades, shoe polish, or other luxury items. Borrow them from your roommate; if she is stingy, you can be sure that within a couple of weeks she will have a complete change of heart.

Now you have loads of money-type currency to purchase those no-girl-can-live-without-them necessities: lipstick (preferably Knock 'Em Dead Red), mascara, false eyelashes — on which to put the mascara, mud packs, ice packs (to get rid of the mud), hair spray, wrinkle remover, hair grow (for those annoying little bald spots), fingernail polish, toenail polish, and contact lens polish — to make your eyes really sparkle. Space has been dealt with unmercifully, but if you have any further problems of such magnitude as these, please consult your congressman — call him collect.

CH Cross-Country Has 100 Mile Club

Assistant cross-country coach Stan Cottrell recently announced the formation of a "100 Mile club" for members of the College High cross-country team. To be a cross-country member, attend all practice sessions and all meets.

Boys who had qualified as charter members in the club are: Gary Comer, David Carter, John Mercer, Bob Whitney, Joe Gray, George Williamson, John Hutton, John Carter, Don Adams, Duane Rector, and Paul Gerard.

"I like to think of these boys as being 'little brothers' to Coach Tom Ecker's '1000 Mile club,'" commented Cottrell.

Victory Clinches At Least Tie For Conference Crown

By Larry Dykes, Sports Editor

Western's seventh-ranked Hilltoppers with visions of Tangerine Bowl dancing in their eyes, shut the door on Morehead and clinched at least a tie for the Ohio Valley Conference, in a 17-0 victory over the Eagles last Saturday. With some vicious blocking and devastating tackling the Topper defense limited luckless Morehead to just 72 yards in total offense, while the Hilltopper's cogently offensive machine rolled up an impressive 321 yard total.

Morehead gained only 17 yards in the first 21 minutes of play that saw one official suffer a compound fracture of the left arm and Topper Coach Nick Denes took a spill later in the game, when Jim Burt tried to sweep his left end. Denes went sprawling to the ground, but was up moments later shouting encouragement to his players.

Ed Crum accounted for the Hilltopper's first marker. The Louisville junior booted a 42-yard field goal with 8:35 remaining in the first half. This is a Western record, which Crum himself held the old one, a forty-yarder.

The Hilltopper's first touchdown came with 2:07 left to play in the first half when Jim Burt blasted over from the one-yard line. This was set up by a Morehead pass interception by John Mutchler which wiped out the Eagles only threat of the first half. The topplers then marched 52 yards in 10 plays before Burt drove over from the one.

Morehead's defense proved to be more successful than its offense, stopping the Hilltoppers five times inside the 20-yard line. Two of these stops were on the 3 and 4-yard line.

The Hilltopper's last touchdown came early in the third quarter. The Eagles quarterback Tally Johnson went back to pass and threw over the middle only to have it picked off by Topper linebacker John Mutchler, who proceeded to scamper 20 yards for Western's second six-pointer of the afternoon. This was Mutchler's first score of his college career.

Western's fine defensive unit led by linebacker Dale Lindsey and tackle Harold Chambers kept such pressure on Morehead's Mike Gottfried that he completed only four of eighteen passes and had two intercepted. Gottfried was fourth in the OVC in total offense, but managed to pick up only 17 yards during the entire afternoon.

The Burt brothers accounted for 127 yards of the Topplers total of 321. Jim was the leading rusher with 82 yards in 15 attempts, while John picked up 45 yards in 14 carries. Carson Culler racked up a total of 37 yards in 9 tries, and Sharon Miller picked up 28 yards in 10 efforts.

A crowd of around 6,000 saw Coach Denes' troops clinch a share of the OVC crown for the first time since 1952 and extend their unbeaten streak to 11 games over a two season

TYPICAL OF WESTERN'S DEFENSE against Morehead Saturday was this play, which finds Eagle quarterback Tally Johnson being hit high by halfback Jim Burt and low by safety Pat Counts after a short gain. Coming up from the rear for Western is captain Joe Bugel (65).

Mutchler May Play In All-Star Game

John Mutchler, end for Western's high-flying Hilltoppers, has been recommended for two all-star games by O.V.C. Commissioner, Art Guepe.

The commissioner said that he had recommended Mutchler to both the North-South and BBBlue-Gray committees.

The North-South game will be played in Miami, Fla. and the Blue-Gray in Montgomery Ala. These games will take place during Christmas week.

Guepe had the following praise for Mutchler:

"Mutchler is strictly a big-time football player and I'd like to see him get as much exposure as possible. There is no doubt in my mind that he can play professional football.

"I love to watch that Mutchler play. He's not only a sound all-around football player, but he plays the game with such enthusiasm that you know he is enjoying himself. That is the way the game should be played."

The commissioner compares Mutchler with Tom Scott of the New York Giants. Guepe says that Mutchler is easily as good as Scott was as a college senior.

However, if Western gets the Tangerine Bowl bid, the all-star game is out. It seems that Mutchler will play in a holiday football game regardless.

Arena Ready For 1st Game December 7

READY FOR DEDICATION December 7 is the E. A. Diddle Arena in the $3 million Academic-Athletic Building. Tickets for the dedicatory game between Western and Vanderbilt went on sale Monday in the college business office.

Tickets for the dedicatory Western - Vanderbilt basketball game in the E. A. Diddle Arena December 7 went on sale Monday at the college business office.

The tickets are scaled at $3 for chair seats and rollout bleachers on the floor level and $2 for all other seats.

Western students can purchase tickets for $1 in the sections which will be reserved for them until November 27. A student buying a dedication game ticket after that will pay the full price.

The dedication game is a special game and is not included in the regular season. Season tickets for the other 11 home games will go on sale later this month.

Dedication ceremonies for the $3 million Academic - Athletic Building which houses the arena will begin at 1:30 p.m. on December 7.

Gov. Bert Combs will deliver the principal address during the program, which is expected to last about 90 minutes.

Open house will be observed in the giant circular building, which is more than 100 yards in diameter, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Dedication of the arena will begin that night at 6:30. Game time with Vanderbilt is 8:15 p.m.

At halftime of the game, a program honoring Coach Diddle, who is launching his 42nd season as Hilltoppers basketball skipper, will be presented.

Scores of his former stars are expected to be on hand for the occasion.

Morehead And Murray Pre-Season Cage Favorites

By Al Stille

It's post time again in the OVC basketball race for the 16th hardwood season, since the league's conception in 1949, with Murray and Morehead heading the pack after a balanced year.

A banner season appears to be in store for the OVC due to developments since last year's finale. Neonate Austin Peay becomes eligible for competition after a year of schedule adjustments. Western and Eastern each move into $3 million goal-halls.

One league aspect is certain for the 1963-64 term—balance. And it should be the same well-rounded loop, which forced Tennessee Tech to defeat Morehead 80-68 in the finale at Western's Red Barn. Nationally, the OVC figures to be stronger than last year when Tech bowed to NCAA champ Loyola 111-42.

A capsule summary of the possible final standings shows Murray and Morehead fighting for the title with East Tennessee and Middle Tennessee pushing hard. Austin Peay, Western, Eastern, and Tech should fight desperately to escape the second division clutches.

Here's the crystal ball finish:

1. Murray State Thoroughbreds — Cal Luther's "Magnificent Seven" lettermen, paced by the nation's ninth rebounder 6-6 Jim Jennings, appear to give the Racers an OVC title edge. The lanky southpaw will receive board assistance from 6-8 soph Stewart Johnson, who averaged 20 richochets as a frosh. Returnees 6-7 Stan Walker and a trio of 6-2 guards Scott Schlosser, Al Varnas, and Bob Goebel, with 6-2 forward John Namciu and 6-1 Gene Pendleton strengthen the Racers' chances for their first OVC crown in 13 years. Dates with Bradley, Dayton, and Loyola of the South should keep the "hosses" in shape for a finale at Morehead, a contest that may decide the OVC.

2. Morehead State Eagles — All-Conference picks 6-0 junior Harold Sergeant (20.4) and 6-1 senior Roy Ware (15.9) give Coach Bobby Laughlin a sturdy backcourt. The Eagles could fly high if sophs, 6-9 Harry Akin (24.0 as a frosh) and 6-8 Mike Gormley, develop like Polaroid film to replace graduated Norm Pokley, who grabbed 323 rebounds in 19 games to place third in the nation. Added height is supplied by Detroit U. transfer Bob Kohler, a 6-7 lad who averaged 14 ppg. The Eagles open at home facing Cumberland, December 2, before traveling to Ohio U. and an OVC season initiation at Middle Tennessee.

3. East Tennessee Buccaneers — Coach Madison Brooks, who has won 248 games in 15 years, greets a tough schedule including Tennessee, Richmond, and William and Mary, with two-hand set artist Willie Malone, a 5-10 senior guard, and rifleman 6-1 junior Houston Frazier. The Buccos have a skyline quartet consisting of the Pirates top scorer and rebounder 6-8 Mal Roberts, 6-7 sharpshooter Les Phillips, 6-8 pre-engineering major Mack Stiltner, and soph 6-8 Charlie Fox. An upset lost to MTSC in the season's finale cost the Corsairs a share of the OVC crown.

4. Middle Tennessee Blue Raiders — Sparkplug guard Larry Stewart (17.7) needs a partner to be selected from Dan Midgett, Bill Martin, and Ron Wilmouth before mentor Bill Stokes' stormers can make a run for the loop title. Blue Raiders from opposing camps should provide depth. Top transfers should be Mike Milholland, 6-5, 195 lb. forward, who averaged 15 points as a Tulane soph, and pivot refugee 6-6½ Ray Kempf, from UT.

5. Austin Peay Governors — Coach George Fisher and the returnees, who helped post an 18-11 mark, should surprise opponents in the Govs OVC initiation. At the top of the list are 6-2 floor general and leading scorer Doug Stamper, 6-5 Louisville product Steve Miller, and solid jumping 6-5 Jim DeForest. The Govs meet MTSC in a December 4' debut.

6. Western Kentucky Hilltoppers — Coach E. A. Diddle, in his 42nd year at the Hill helm where the personable towel-tosser with the Casey Stengel dialogue has won 754 games in 1040 outings, faces another unheard-of rebuilding year. The Toppers hit bottom with a 5-16 mark last year and are searching for a guard to accompany crafty Darel Carrier. For the Hillmen to escape the second division, sophs 6-7 Ronnie Kidd (18.6), 6-6 Bane Sarrett (17.6), and soph pivot Steve Cunningham, an all-around performer from Missouri, must develop. Dedication for the Diddle Arena is set for December 7 against SEC title threat Vanderbilt.

7. Eastern Kentucky Maroons — With only experienced 6-8 pivot Bob Tolan and 6-5 Dennis Bradley up front, Coach Jim Baechtold needs a few tall men. E-winners in the backcourt are 6-4 Lee Lemos, 6-2 Herm Smith, and 6-2 Kay Morris. The Maroons open their card December 2 against Campbellville at Danville, before their home opener in the Alumni Coliseum December 4 with the University of Louisville.

Harriers Slaughter Tech 17-44

Finish Season Unbeaten; Push Dual Mark To 8-0

Jack Mahurin of Caneyville, one of the hardest working members of Western's current cross-country team, ran his best race ever last Friday when he set a course record for four miles as he and his teammates blasted Tennessee Tech 17-44.

Mahurin's time for the four-mile Cookville Country club course was 21 minutes and 32.8 seconds. This was 2.8 seconds better than Murray's Curt Sanders who previously held the record which was set last year during the Ohio Valley Conference championships held on the same course.

Tom Graham was second with a time of 21:39.6 and Jerome Beazley and Butch Holden tied for third with a time of 21:56.5.

Mike Wolf was the first Tech runner to cross the finish line, finishing in fifth place with a time of 22:05.

Western's Steve Lyons was seventh, followed by teammates Johnny Noel, eighth, and Don McWilliams, ninth.

It was the eighth straight victory over a two season period for the Western thinlies in dual competition. This wraps up an unbeaten regular season for the young harriers, who will now be preparing for the final OVC championship meet held in Cookeville on November 23.

Ranked as the number one team in the South and one of the top 26 in the nation, the Toppers will add the Kentucky Federation Meet at Lexington on November 30, to its schedule before giving it up for the indoor meets.

Jeff. Co., Phi Phi Kappa Lead In IM Football

Lambdas moved into third place in flag football American League standings by defeating Phi Sigma Tau 13-6. The win counted as two decisions for both clubs. Lambdas now trail Phi Phi Kappa by one game for second place and a playoff berth.

Earl Kilbourne scored both touchdowns for Lambdas on passes from quarterback Moe Miller. George Sells was credited with 10 unassisted flag stops as he and end Rod Williams put pressure on Phi Sigma Tau's passing combination of Mabrey to Gilbert.

Jefferson County continued its winning ways by blasting second place Roadrunners, 40-19, to stay on top of the National League standings. Bill Maier continued his brilliant play by scoring four touchdowns for the winners. Charles Harris scored twice for Roadrunners as they became the first team to book more than one touchdown against Jefferson County's defense.

Oma Krons belted DK's 27-13, as Chet Watson scored two touchdowns and Hub Reese and Jerry Scrivner anchored the defense. Roe and Conley scored for DK's. DK Jim Cherundolo won Defensive Man-of-the-Week honors for his rugged line play.

In other action, unbeaten Tri County was up-ended by Phi Sigma Tau, 25-6, as Dick Mabrey to Jim Gilbert passes accounted for three touchdowns.

Tom Covington looked good on defense for Tau. Brunfield and Owen starred for the losers.

Thursday's play saw Sigmas trounce Newman club, 26-6, and Phi Phi Kappa sneak past

DK's, 15-13. Sigma Jim Andy Wilder scored twice as Sigmas remain in contention for a second place playoff berth. Phi Phi Kappa's linebacker Tom Car-

With the Tangerine Bowl Committee not meeting until November 18, and the Toppers won't see action again until November 23, we can do no more than just sit and wait!

Tom Samuels, former coach at Eastern and now a druggist in Orlando, is one of the advisors to the Tangerine Bowl committee members. He states that letters from Western fans would be a big help. Letters should be sent to Jack Morgan, Chairman, Tangerine Bowl Commission, Orlando, Florida. Just think, a letter from each Western student would add up to 5,932! Let's help the Hilltoppers out, and get those letters started toward Florida. The game is scheduled for December 28.

TOPPERS RANK SEVENTH

The Hilltoppers are currently ranked in a tie for seventh place with Texas A. and I. in the United Press International's small college poll. Delaware took over first place from Northern Illinois in this week's ratings.

CRUM'S 42-YARD FIELD GOAL...RECORD

Ed Crum's 42-yard field goal in Saturday's game against Morehead is a Western record. The Louisville junior held the old one which was a forty-yarder. From the height the ball cleared the goal post, it could have been a fifty yarder if he had been kicking from there.

OFFICIAL BREAKS ARM

WILL COST STUDENTS A DOLLAR FOR OPENING CAGE GAME

Because Western's opening basketball game against Vanderbilt in the new Diddle Arena is a special game and is not included in the regular season, it's going to cost each Western student one dollar. Tickets are on sale at the business office and if you don't want to pay the full price ($3.00) get your ticket before November 27.

WESTERN BEHIND ONLY ONCE

The only time Western has been behind was against East Tennessee. The Bucs blocked a punt and lead 6-0 for about five minutes. The Toppers won the game 14-6.

Malone Wins Open Tennis Tournament

Jim Malone, freshman from Cleveland, Ohio, has won the Western Kentucky State College open singles tennis tournament.

The hard hitting Malone defeated Bob Smith, senior from Owensboro, in the finals. Smith is defending number three singles champion in the O. V. C.

Malone will be the first Negro to compete on a Hilltopper tennis team. Coach Ted Hornback is expecting to have a solid front line with Malone, Smith, and Larry Whitaker. Whitaker is the defending O. V. C. singles champion. Whitaker was seeded number one in the tourney but had to withdraw due to an inflammation of the elbow.

The tournament was the first of its kind at Western. Main purpose of the tournament was to select competition for the varsity squad and to give others an opportunity to compete with varsity performers. Coach Hornback indicated the tourney will become an annual event.

Along with Malone and Smith a number of other boys turned in good performances. Receiving acknowledgement from Coach Hornback were Bill Beverly, Pete Daronsky, Bob Denney, and Tom Bollinger. Winner and runner-up received trophies.

period. With two weeks remaining before their final encounter against Murray, which a win would give them the title outright, the winner of next Saturday's battle between Middle Tennessee and East Tennessee at Murfreesboro will have a chance to tie Western should the toppers lose to Murray.

Western, one of the 11 teams under consideration for the Tangerine Bowl, will have to sit and wait now as the bowl committee meets November 18, and the Toppers won't see action again until the 23rd. Their 8-0-1 record to date, however, will be excellent credentials in their favor!

Former Army Athlete Wins Grid Scholarship

A new addition to sports on the Hill is in the form of a 25-year-old Tom Watkins who should help to further the winning records of both football and baseball at Western.

Attending Western on a football scholarship, Tom is not eligible to participate in fall sports because of a six-weeks attendance at Mississippi Delta College in 1959. However, he will be eligible to participate in spring sports, of which his choice is baseball.

Army Tour

After leaving Mississippi Delta College in October of 1959, Tom served in the United States Army.

He finished a four year hitch August 27, and decided to come to Western for his education.

While in the service Tom played regimental football. During the '62 season he played end on the Fort Campbell team that won 11 of 13 regular season games and defeated Lackland Air Force Base in the Missile Bowl at Orlando, Florida.

Brilliant Record

While in high school at Ita Bena, Miss., Tom made All Conference his sophomore, junior and senior years. His junior and senior years he was named the Delta Valley Conference Most Valuable Player.

Tom will play end for the Hilltoppers next year and should be an able replacement for the graduating seniors at that position.

Baseball-wise, Tom's outstanding high school and service records are impressive enough to have Hilltopper baseball coach, Dan King, speak very favorably of him even before a fall practice session. While playing service baseball Tom was named to the All-Star teams of '62 and '63. He had a two year batting average of .427.

Likes Western

When asked about his impression of Western, Tom said "There's nothing about Western that I don't like. The people here have really been nice to me. I don't think I could have made a better choice."

Tom, a physical education and business major, and his wife, Judy, live at 1308 High Street in Bowling Green.

Psychology Club Elects Officers

Tom Bojanowski, junior from Leitchfield, was elected president of the Psychology club at its organizational meeting Thursday evening in the Student Center.

Other officers elected at the organizational meeting were Joe Galloway, junior, Springfield, vice-president; and Sue French, senior, Bowling Green, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Charles Shedd, head of Psychology department, is club faculty advisor.

Club plans for the year include a trip to Vanderbilt Experimental Laboratories and a series of speakers for club meetings.

Meeting date for the club is first Thursday evening in every month. Next meeting is scheduled for December 5.

Card Cagers In Third Week Of Practice

Bounce, bounce, swish; the basketball soared through the hoop and practice had begun. In about its third week of existence this year, basketball season has already brought forward hopes for a good season in the mind of Alvin Almond, coach at College High school.

Gone from last years squad are the guard duo of Skipper Hutton and Charles Miller, and center, Bill Manrod, all of whom were casualties of graduation exercises in May.

Even after suffering what would be hard losses to most teams, Coach Almond is whistling tunes of brightness in his office these days. Some of the reasons for this cheer can certainly be attributed to the return of forward - center, Dero Downing, Jr., the team's leading scorer last year.

In addition to the return of Downing, the Cardinals again will have the services of Dennis Dearing, returning letterman at the forward position, and a greatly improved player in reserve guard, Donald Griffith.

Most coaches would be glad to have a nucleus like this to build their team around, but Coach Almond hasn't stopped here. Added to the team are transfers David Mahaney, Jerry Everly, and Terry Stice from Warren County high school, and in addition, they have added the abilities of David Carter from Owensboro.

With Carter providing additional backboard support and the team spark-plugged by Everly, the Cardinals may have the depth that they have lacked for the past two seasons. Coach Almond has had several good words for the hustle shown in practice by the scrappy Everly.

V. Promote social and professional cooperation among physical education majors, minors, and the faculty.

The club offers many activities that are of interest to the students. The club has already planned an "activity night" at which club members have access to all the facilities of the Physical Education department with which to have any type activity or game desired.
