WESTERN DEFEATS GEORGETOWN IN INITIAL TILT

The largest gathering that ever attended an indoor athletic event at Western Kentucky Teachers College witnessed the opening of the new Physical Education Building on the evening of Feb. 9. In the feature event on the program the Hilltoppers swept aside the Tigers of Georgetown College to strengthen their hold at the top of the Southern Inter-collegiate Athletic Association by a 41-24 score.

More than 6,000 students, alumni, and Kentucky citizens packed the building to capacity to be present for the splendid program arranged to celebrate the opening of one of the most magnificent Physical Education buildings in the South.

Addresses by President H. H. Cherry, members of the Board of Regents, and physical education faculty opened the program. The speeches were followed by demonstrations of stunts by students of the Physical Education Department.

President Cherry emphasized the fact that the formal dedication of the magnificent structure would not take place until next Homecoming in October 1931, at which time a mammoth three-day program will take place, to be known as Western's twenty-fifth anniversary. A number of the greatest leaders and thinkers of America will be present at that time.

After the game the ushers conducted the people through the building, showing them the eight academic class rooms on the ground floor, the locker and shower rooms for Physical Education, which will accommodate 200 men and six hundred women, with provision for additional equipment in the future. Offices and drill room for the R. O. T. C. are also provided for on the ground floor.

On the main floor the spectators witnessed some of the best equipment in the way of modern Physical Education apparatus that can be found. Four offices and a director's room for the school Health and Physical Education Departments, with examination and clinic rooms and four large Physical Education class rooms, as well as a large amount of apparatus, complete the equipment. Twenty class rooms in all, are afforded, which greatly relieve the emergency need for class room space for instructional purposes.

Undeclared in seven starts, the Western Teachers christened the new Physical Education Building by completely annihilating the downtrodden Tigers. From the opening until the final whistle Western toyed with Georgetown, not allowing the Tigers to score a single field goal in the first half. In the second stanza Georgetown was able to collect several shots after Coach Diddle had

Mayor Rodes Talks On Life of Lincoln

On Thursday morning, Feb. 12, Mayor John B. Rodes was present at chapel and delivered a talk on the life and activities of Abraham Lincoln. During the course of his talk Mr. Rodes described the beautiful Lincoln Memorial at Washington and described it as a symbol of American democracy, a symbol of the equality of men, and of the equal opportunity for all children for which this country stands.

He told how Lincoln came from a country home and from the very poorest environment and of how he bore the greatest burden of any president. He related the difficulties Lincoln encountered while president, his viewpoint toward slavery, and how he strove to attain those things that he longed for more than for anything else.

R. O. T. C. SHOOTS FIRST ROUND OF RIFLE CONTEST

Rifle Team of Local R. O. T. C. Has Several Championships To Its Credit

For the past several years, the R. O. T. C. unit of Western has made many valuable contributions to the life of the college. The rifle team of Western has won the Inter-collegiate Championship of the states of Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana, and Kentucky for the last four consecutive years. Western's rifle team has won the United States Inter-collegiate championship, given each year under the auspices of William Randolph Hearst, for two consecutive years. There are three matches each year: the first match is the different divisions of the United States, the second match for the National Inter-collegiate Championship of the United States, and third—the William Randolph Hearst match. The winning team in the third match is sent to Washington, D. C., at the expense of William Randolph Hearst and is presented to President Hoover. Each member of the winning team is given a gold medal and the man making the highest individual score in the United States is given a gold wrist watch by Mr. Hearst.

The results of the first match have been sent to Washington, D. C., to be checked. The result will not be announced for several weeks, as thirty-nine college teams competed in the match and each team sent in 120 targets. Col. Rothwell believes that Western has won this match for the fifth consecutive year; if this is true, Western's team will be entered in the National Inter-collegiate match. The William Randolph Hearst match has not been fired this year.

The following scores, out of a possible total of 800, were made by these boys in the first match:

38 MEMBERS IN BAND

The College Heights Band Club held its regular monthly business meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 4, at the Music Hall. The meeting was called by President Wood for the purpose of discussing important matters concerning membership and reorganization.

Director Orr presented for approval a plan providing for sectional divisions of the band, with leaders for each section. These leaders were to be appointed by the director, were to be chosen for their musical and executive ability, and were to serve for one school year. Each leader is to be responsible for attendance of his group at band practice, for their individual instruction, and for general section discipline. Training of these leaders is to be in the hands of the director.

The plan was unanimously adopted and the following leaders were appointed: First Trumpets—Marcus Gillespie; Second Trumpets—Charles Robert Allen; Baritone and Euphonium—Kenneth Wood; Alto Horns—William Stone; Clarinets—Kenneth Lam; Saxophones—Howard W. Robey; Drums—Edgar Mitchell.

The club is now housed in new quarters, having been assigned a practice room and an executive office in the new Physical Education Building. This is a much needed and a highly appreciated change. Our thanks to those who made it possible.

Membership has grown to thirty-eight pieces and there are many more applications being considered. Those desiring admittance should consult Director Orr or some member of the Membership Committee at once. The quota for the semester is fifty pieces.

DIRECTORS ARE HIRED

Portrayal Of New World
Advancement Is To Be
Theme of Pageant

An announcement of vital and enthusiastic reception, has been made public by Dr. H. H. Cherry, president of Western State Teachers College.

College Heights is to stage another great, historical pageant! What a thrill this announcement will give to everyone who witnessed a performance of the brilliant "Historical Pageant of Kentucky" presented in the stadium three years ago.

Contracts have been signed with the famous John B. Rogers Producing Co., of Kestonia, Ohio, foremost producer of pageantry in America, to produce the most stupendous pageant in their repertoire, "The Pageant of Progress," which requires a cast of 1,200 together with an immense singing chorus and orchestra.

Further details at this time would detract from the atmosphere the pageant creates. Like anything Spanish, however, the costume is strikingly gorgeous, of rich lustrous colors, and correct stage settings, of mammoth proportion, together with the most modern electrical effects employed to enhance the beauty of this and all succeeding episodes.

The success and beauty of "The Historical Pageant of Kentucky" produced by the John B. Rogers Co. on College Heights in the spring of 1928 is still alive in the minds of 11,000 people of this section of the state who witnessed it.

"The Pageant of Progress" will be presented in three performances, the exact dates to be announced later.

Book of Poems Publish- ed In London Likely To Be Donated To Lo- cal Museum

The Mitro Press of London, England, has recently informed President Cherry of the publication in December, 1930, of Ballads of the Kentucky Highlands, written by Mr. Harvey H. Fuson, attorney-at-law of Harlan. The book, a comprehensive collection of popular Kentucky ballads, contains 130 of these gems of Kentucky literature.

Miss Gabrielle Robertson, in charge of the Kentucky Building museum, has communicated with Mr. Fuson about autographing a copy of this volume and donating it to the Kentucky Building library. He has expressed a desire to do so, also mentioning three of his other works: The Pinnacle and Other Kentucky Mountain Poems, Just from Kentucky—A Second Volume of Poems, and the History of the Bell County Baptist Association, which, it is believed, he will autograph and present to the Kentucky shrine.

RECENT CONTRIBUTIONS

Recent contributions to the Kentucky Building library are Goodrich's First, Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth School Readers presented by the Rev. S. J. Thompson.

C. L. Taylor, of Beech Grove, Kentucky, has loaned a dend. John to the Kentucky Building museum.

The New Physical Education Building

(Park City Daily News)

Western Teachers College glorified on Monday night, Feb. 10, in the dedication of the magnificent new Physical Education Building, one of the finest buildings of its type in the entire South, and Bowling Green and Warren county citizens by the hundreds, enthusiastically participated in the program.

The large building, designed to seat the largest crowds that will attend any of the school's programs, was jammed to capacity and scores, after inspecting the lower floors of the wonderful building left, as it was impossible for them to be seated.

The inevitable small boy clinging to the steel girders or perched himself in other advantageous positions. Hundreds stood throughout the program.

Western Teachers College and Dr. H. H. Cherry again proved to be a splendid host.

The program, which was appropriate and interesting, was appreciated by every person in the crowd of at least 6,500 persons that visited College Heights during the evening.

The Physical Education Building is the fulfillment of another dream. There are other visions even more wonderful, that the builders of College Heights are unfolding, and The Daily News is certain President Cherry, the Board of Regents and members of the faculty of the institution have the wholehearted support of every citizen of Bowling Green in any progressive move they may undertake.

Western Students Hear From Susie Again

College Heights,
Bowling Green, Ky.

Dear Folks:

Well, here I am back in school, trying to make people believe that I really am a senior, even if I did have as much trouble as a freshman getting registered. The Trig. classes were closed and I have to have Trig. to satisfy my math requirements, so after seeing almost everyone on the Hill about it, I finally got into a class. There the trouble both ends and begins.

I have always wondered how it would feel to be a senior, but now that I am one, I wonder how it would feel to be a faculty member or a college president. Guess that the way the world goes.

I went to the meeting of the French Club the other night. The club members presented two short plays in French. They were "Bluebeard" and "Cinderella". The club is planning to produce a big play soon.

Believe it or not, you are now fixed for every word that you say in English during the meeting; so you may have to add a little extra to my allowance. I'm going to tell Miss Claggett, I'm going to telephone her before the meeting from now on. But I gained my experience, and also lost financially. My sentiments were expressed exactly by one boy who rushed into the crispness of the night air after the meeting was over and shouted, "Thank God for the English language!" I have been to my first Senior Class meeting. There is really some distinction in being a senior, for refreshments are served at the class meetings and they are certainly good. Two of our officers are nicknamed "Oscar" and "Elmer." I don't know whether the other officers have nicknames or not.

I wish that you could have come up for the opening of the new Physical Education Building. But even had you come, I probably would never have seen you; there was such a mob there that it would have been hard to find one's mother. I think that the building is the second most beautiful one on the campus; I've always considered the library as first.

Well, I'm having a big time trying to look up some old friends and dodge others. You know how it goes. I can hardly realize that I'm back in school but guess I will make up by the time I "duke" several mid-term exams. Tell my ex-students "hello" for me and give my regards to the other folks in Pastureville. Love,
SUSIE

Loyalty

The word loyalty has a deep meaning. We hear a great deal about loyalty and school spirit. He who is not loyal to his home, to his school, to his community, to his friends, and to his ideals is not worthy of the name, good citizen.

School loyalty has a significant place in the lives of students. He who is loyal to his school is more apt to be loyal to his home and his family. A few places in the world are dear to us all, but no place could be more dear than the one where we are given an opportunity to unfold, develop, and grow into our better selves. This is the high mission of a school. Students then who have received an inspiration from school and who have a life purpose are ever loyal to the institution in which they strive and study and receive their preparation for the bigger life that is ahead. He who is loyal to his school is he who has the faith that looks out through the windows to the great opportunities that are ahead. Loyalty on the part of a student body has a tendency to put away the self of selfishness, and in so doing brings a glory to his school that will endure through the ages.

Daniel Boone

February 11 was Daniel Boone's birthday. We all should appreciate him because he helped settle the towns in Kentucky.

When Daniel Boone was a little boy, he loved to walk in the woods with a gun over his shoulder or to walk in the sunshine with a fishing pole and a can of bait. When Daniel was a young man, he went to explore Kentucky. He and some other men started to Kentucky. When they had found out all about the country, he came back home and took his family to Kentucky. Boone settled Boonesboro and afterward died as an old man.

Thomas Edison

February 11 was Edison's birthday. He has taken but 1,328 patents. Some of his inventions are the phonograph, electric light bulbs, and moving pictures. It took Edison eighteen years to finish the light bulb. He is 84 years old. Now he is trying to make some kind of rubber out of the milkweed.

New Folks in the Kindergarten The children in the Kindergarten Department welcome their new classmates, who are Joanne Dienes, Marion Webster, Tommy Linton, Linda and Jeanne Hill, and are succeeding in making them feel perfectly at home in their new surroundings.

New Students and Teachers The following are new teachers in the Training School this semester: Miss Neely, History; Mrs. Engleheart, Home Economics; and Mrs. Union, Latin.

The largest number of student teachers ever enrolled in the Training School is enrolled this semester.

Thirty-eight new students enrolled in the Training School at the beginning of the new semester.

The Seventh grade is glad to welcome two new students—Aubrey and Zamora Clark from Henderson, Ky.

Fifth Grade News

On the first day of the second term of school, Mrs. Wells promoted twelve from the Five-A to the Six-B, and eleven came from the Four-A to the Five-B.

One of the children, Virginia Moseley, who was promoted from the Five-A to the Six-B, has gone to Florida to spend a month. She has written us and told us she is living right by the side of a canal and says she is going to school there.

Before the Five-A's went out of our room, Mrs. Wells had a party for them. We all had a nice time and our refreshments were ice cream and candy.

Mrs. Wells knows a woman from Montana who came to school up on the Hill. She teaches in Montana now. Mrs. Wells told us to write and ask if she would make a booklet of Montana and exchange it for a Kentucky booklet. We have written to her and hope she will make the exchange.

Cure for the Blues

After all else is gone, there are always memories, both bitter and sweet. Try a big dose of the latter for an absolute blues cure. Was ever a place so filled with memories as is the Western campus? The sight of the stadium brings back memories of the football games you have attended there; and how happy and enthusiastic you were when the home team made a touchdown. The registrar's office reminds you of the times when you have hurried frantically up to it with a serious problem that never has been solved, and came away a few minutes later, with all of the wrinkles smoothed out, wondering what you were so worried about. Shell Hall brings visions of the classes you have had from a white-haired man who appealed to the best and finest in you; how you wished that you might go on listening to him forever. Some spots on the campus remind you of the pictures that you once made there. How funny some of them were, and how proud you were of others! Some places bring to your memory the people you have met there, and the life-long friendships you have formed. Do you remember the first time you ever saw the Hill, as you came driving up College Street, and how you almost caught your breath in wonder? Do you remember the time you saw the view from the stadium—the first time you were in the Italian garden at sunset?

In the face of memories like these, one cannot be blue. And remember as you go about your daily tasks, that today you are making memories for tomorrow.

Conversational Consommee. First Dormitory Girl: I can still see the moon.

Second Dormitory Girl: Yes, it must have had a big night last night; it hadn't gone in when the rising bell rang this morning.

Talisman Editor: I had a date with a mind reader last night. Business Manager: And how did she enjoy the rest?

These Little Words

Those most welcome to the student are, "Enclosed find check." Those least welcome to the teacher are, "I don't know."

Then there was the absent-minded prof who fussed at the beggar and dropped a nickel in his wife's hat.

Flattering Philosophy

A recently constructed dwelling place bears this name above the door "Suits Us." At first thought it seems to be rather a queer title for such a beautiful structure. The owner stated that during the erection of his home, he was constantly harassed by people with ideas and suggestions opposite to his own. Eventually, as a reply, he adopted the motto "Suits Us."

The smile of relief that lighted up her face took the sting out of my registration tired feet. So began a friendship that was never followed up, but I think some sort of an understanding will always exist between us. I have forgotten her name, and doubt less she has forgotten mine; but we always smile and speak, and the same light kindles in her brown eyes. Now I see her at every registration. She is helping freshmen to register and she is far more kind and considerate than I could ever be, so I know that she is carrying on.

WHAT IS THIS THING CALLED "MUSIC EDUCATION?"

By Prof. Franz J. Strahm

Many volumes could be written in explanation of the subject, "What is This Thing Called Music Education?" However, my idea in writing this article is to explain to people, various kinds of Music Education which have come under my observation during forty years' experience.

What is the subject of Music Education? It is music-making. Now, what is music-making? It is the very complex ability to combine various mental and bodily functions. All these so-called functions work together, but they can be separated for the purpose of analysis. A really trained musician who listens to music, hears many difficulties and beauties which also enter the ear of the layman, but fail to register, because the auditory elements and the rhythmic elements demand a long training, before they really register in the human ear.

The whole aim for music-making should be training to a proper hearing, rhythmic response in musical intelligence and in musical feeling. So musical training has three great functions: listening, performing and composing. Not one of them is possible without some musicianship.

It is possible to listen in a crude and stupid way, and at a low musical level, but that means deficient music-mindedness. Also it is even possible to play with some show in a short time, certain pieces, but this means that the student or performer has been drilled in empty technical tricks, but not in the stern discipline of musicianship.

Even more than that! It is ridiculous how often very mediocre musical performances are used in various entertainments, applauded, and even mentioned as fine and grand, when the identical performances in literature or public speaking would never be tolerated.

Library Rearranged Between Semesters

The general arrangement of the library was changed between semesters. This change was made for the purpose of accommodating more students in a more systematic way. It enables the increased enrollment to be served in a satisfactory manner. The periodical room was removed to Room One on the first floor of the Library Building. Newspapers, current magazines, and bound magazines may be found there. The reserve books may be had by calling at the desk at the entrance of the room which formerly was used for the fiction books. The reference books are at the old reserve desk. This arrangement is proving very efficient.

Due to the increased enrollment for this semester, one new member has been added to the library staff, together with a number of student assistants.

A one-act play will also be presented under student direction.

This club sprang into being last year due to the untiring efforts of those who were interested in dramatics. Every month a one-act play is presented and once a year a three-act play. They are all under student direction. The director for the big play will be chosen soon and work will begin.

Hilltoppers Are Ahead In S. I. A. A. Race

Western Trounces Tigers Of Georgetown In Two Consecutive Nights Here

Hilltoppers Easily Cop Victories From Opponents In Initial Games Played In New Physical Education Building

The Georgetown College Tigers were easily swept aside by Coach E. A. Diddle's basketball machine in the first two games played in the spacious gymnasium of the new Physical Education Building on Feb. 9-10, by the overwhelming scores of 41-24 and 49-24. By virtue of these two victories the Hilltoppers ran their sensational string of S. I. A. A. victories to nine and forged farther ahead in the Southern race.

Led by Bland Coffman, flashy center, the Westerners set a dizzy pace in the first game that could not be matched by the Tigers. This Central City boy amassed eleven points and was the key stone in an airtight defense which did not permit Georgetown a field goal during the first half.

The Toppers scored soon after the opening whistle and ran their total to twenty as the half ended 24-3. Coming back strong in the second half, the Hilltoppers continued their merciless onslaught until Coach Diddle jerked four of his regulars and substituted second string men. The Georgetown boys, led by Lancaster and McKay, found the going much easier against the substitutes and managed to run their score to twenty-four before the final gun. The game ended 41-24.

Orlie Lawrence, who so amazingly amassed 100 points in five games, continued in his slump and could throw but two through the hoops; however, Coffman, Capt. Elrod, and Bobby Brown rarely missed, and they accounted for thirty-two of the Hilltoppers' markers. Brown, who has started as a regular in the past two games, flashed brilliantly against the Tigers. His fine guarding and shooting merited for him time and time again, the cheers of the thousands present.

The second of the two game series played on Tuesday night was a repetition of the first. Western dominated most of the playing and scored at will to matter Georgetown's hopes of revenge by a 49-24 score.

The substitutes could not solve the defense of the Hilltoppers and were powerless to stop the sweeping drives that netted Western trip after trip.

Displaying an even better brand of ball in the first game, the large leaders amassed fifty-five points before giving way to the second team. The score at the half stood at 21-7. After the brief rest the Toppers came back with an attack that netted fifteen points before Georgetown could score. The substitutes performed but little better than in the first game and permitted the visitors to score at will during the closing minutes. The final score stood 49-24.

The newness of the floor hampered the teams throughout, and the players as well as the referee suffered the bitter pangs of pain and humiliation, as oftentimes they came to an abrupt and unexpected halt by slipping gently or heavily to the floor.

The chief feature of the game was the return to form of Orlie Lawrence. Orlie tallied thirteen points and was instrumental in practically every Western drive. Capt. Elrod, Brown and Coffman, notably pressed Lawrence for honors. These boys passed perfectly and scored repeatedly to the despair of the visitors.

Capt. Turner Elrod, playing his last home basketball game of his college career, turned in a splendid game at the guard position. Turner has so brilliantly performed in Western athletic activities that practically every Kentucky sport enthusiast is conscious of the fact that his graduation will mark the passing of one of the best all-around athletes ever to perform in Kentucky athletic circles.

INTRA-MURAL ACTIVITIES FOR BOYS STARTED

Loving Cup To Be Awarded Winning Team By Warren County Hardware Company

Intra-mural activities for boys will make their first appearance at Western in the form of basketball. The freshmen played the juniors on Saturday, Feb. 14, at two o'clock on the court at the Physical Education Building. Following this game the sophomores met the seniors on the same floor.

This tournament will be played in the Round Robin fashion, i. e., each team playing each other team two times, making a total of twelve games. All games will be played outside of school hours.

These activities are open to all students, except the members of the freshmen and varsity squads.

The plans of the directors are to develop intra-mural activities in tennis, track, volleyball, indoor and outdoor baseball, and quoits. They also wish to make these activities an annual affair.

The schedule will be posted on the various bulletin boards as soon as it is completely worked out.

A loving cup will be awarded the winner of the basketball tournament by the Warren County Hardware Company.

WESTERN FROSH DEFEAT MURRAY BY 53-36 COUNT

Hilltopper Freshmen Get Revenge Upon Murray For Defeat Earlier In Season

Although having previously defeated the Western frosh, the Murray yearlings were no match for the little Hilltoppers in the return tussle here on Jan. 31. Coach Terry's men ran away to a 53-36 victory.

During the first few minutes of play the visitors gamely hung close to the little Hilltoppers, but the sharpshooting of McGown, local boy, soon boosted Western's small lead to a comfortable margin. Time after time McGown went through fast for craps, and he totaled twenty-six points during the evening. Cook and Lawrence also turned in creditable gains for the home boys. Lawrence's deceptive passing continuously annoyed the visitors.

The lineup:
Western (53) Murray (36)
McGown (26) F (12) Lassiter

Lawrence (9) G (6) Hayes

'Toppers Are Victorious In Two Consecutive Tilts With Eastern Maroons Fourth and Fifth S. I. A. A. Victories Are Annexed As Western Goes Marching On To Association Honors

The Eastern teachers, completely outclassed the first night, came back with a determined fight on Saturday night, only to be the victims of a last quarter scoring spree, which sent Coach "Turkey" Hughes and his boys on their way home suffering from their first defeats of the season.

The Hilltoppers, decidedly the underdogs, rushed the invading quintet off its feet in the first few minutes of play and took a 15-1 lead, which tended to shake the morale of the visitors that they performed listlessly the remainder of the evening.

Following the opening which in the first game, Orlie Lawrence fairly left the spectators gasping by flinging three successive back hand flips through the hoops as a starter for the Western machine, Lawrence continued his remarkable shooting throughout the game and tallied in all, twenty points.

"Big Ben" Adams and the Hale brothers, of the Carr Creek "Wonder Five," strived in vain to check the "Toppers," but their slow-breaking offense could not compete with the rapid fire-like plays of the Westerners. Coffman's fine jumping at center time after time enabled Western to tip-off plays to function perfectly, and when the Maroons did obtain the ball, Capt. Elrod and Johnson would soon recover it, and with two or three bullet-like passes would put the "Toppers" in scoring position. Toward the last of the first game both coaches ran in substitutes in an endeavor to save the regulars for the second encounter, as Western apparently had the game well in hand.

With Herman Hale directing a steady attack in the second game, the Maroons kept on even terms with the Hilltoppers until toward the closing minutes of the game. Western obtained a brief lead at the first, but Eastern soon evened matters, and the contest waxed so hot that Johnson, Capt. Elrod, Milton and Z. Hale were disqualified via the foul method and the game was well-stalled. However, the Western substitutes, hitherto unused, stepped up their duty in a businesslike fashion and outfought and outwitted the weakening Maroons. "Brother" Elrod, Lawrence, and Bryant flashed brilliantly as the visitors went under for the second time. These two startling, but well-observed, victories perched the Hilltoppers at the top of the Kentucky S. I. A. A. flag row as well as at the top of the S. I. A. A. at large.

Freshmen Suffer First Defeat Of Season In Tussle With Murray Yearlings

Minus the service of Hobbs, versatile center, the Western frosh suffered their first defeat of the season on Jan. 17, at the hands of the Baby Thoroughbreds of Murray on the latter's floor, by the score 31-25.

Led by John Stanley McGown, the little Hilltoppers held a 13-12 advantage at the half, but a determined Murray rally could not be denied, the little Thoroughbreds romping to victory in the second half.

McGown, a Bowling Green boy, tallied sixteen points for high point honors of the night.

SOPHS WIN CUP IN GIRLS' CLASS TOURNAMENT

Misses Logan and Roemer, Of Physical Ed. Dept., Conduct Contest

OTHER TILTS PLANNED

As a result of their decisively defeating the representative teams of the freshman, junior, and senior classes, the sophomore girls' basketball team was awarded the loving cup emblematic of winning the annual inter-class basketball tournament at Western.

The round-robin tournament, extending over a period of two weeks and sponsored by the Physical Education Department, and tended to create an unusual interest among the classes of the college.

The first round of the tournament found the freshmen opposing the sophomores and the juniors matched against the seniors. The freshmen-sophomore affair, by far the most interesting of the tournament, was a classic. These two teams possessed the best players in the college, and only a hard fight by the sophomore ladies could stave off a determined last minute freshmen rally. The sophs won 37-25. Miss Sanders and Miss Craven starred for the visitors. Miss Sanders, petite forward, was the big gun for the sophs, garnering well over half their total. Miss Frymire played best for the losers. In the other game the seniors forfeited to the juniors.

The next two rounds found the sophomore ladies continuing their winning stride, the senior and junior representatives falling by the scores of 21-4 and 21-14 respectively. The frosh also romped easily against the two upper class teams and scored 34-0 and 34-0 victories.

Outstanding in the tournament play was the playing of Miss Sanders, Craven, Frymire, Randolph, Wyatt and Craven. The final standing was:

Team	Wins	Losses
Freshmen	2	1
Junior	1	2
Senior	0	3

Misses Logan and Roemer, of the Physical Education Department, who are successful in conducting the round-robin tournament, among the girls, will have their place soon. The girls have for

'Toppers Now Have Nine Victories, No Defeats To Their Credit For Season

FAVORED TO WIN LAURELS AT JACKSON, MISS.

A fast-breaking offense coupled with a deceptive passing attack spelled doom for the Eastern Maroons here on January 22-23, and Coach E. A. Diddle's basketball team chalked up their fourth and fifth consecutive victories to the tunes of 49-25 and 47-34, respectively.

With nine victories and no defeats, the Western Teachers basketball team is leading the entire Southern Inter-collegiate Athletic Association. Taking the lead soon after the season opened, the powerful Western team has never relinquished it, and from all indications will be the last team to cop the laurels in the S. I. A. A. tournament at Jackson, Miss.

Besides winning this honor so eagerly sought by every team in the Association, the Hilltoppers are tied with Centre for the Kentucky S. I. A. A. leadership and are favored to win the state championship, which is to be held at Winchester on Feb. 19-20. Western's closest threat, however, is the Centre College, who has won six consecutive S. I. A. A. contests.

To attain this splendid record the "Toppers" have defeated Middle Tennessee Teachers College twice, Berea College, Georgetown College twice, University of Chattanooga, and Kentucky Wesleyan. The thing that will hurt Western most in the coming tournament, is the fact that it has not ed two teams, the "Maroons" and the "Gry," which play a series of five games to determine the champion. The games will be played in the new gym, and by playing on the teams the girls may gain points towards their letters. Too, the honorary varsity will be chosen from these two teams following the tournament.

Should Western display the brand of ball in the tournaments that it has during the season, it is likely to return to Bowling Green with two championship trophies after the smoke of tournament play has cleared away.

Capt. Elrod, Lawrence, Coffman, Bryant, Johnson, Sego, and Brown have played the most glistering ball. Captain Elrod being the only senior, the brunt of work has fallen on sophomores and juniors, which indicates that Western will have a good team next year.

Orlie Lawrence and Bland Coffman have been responsible for a greater part of Western's score. Johnson, Bryant, Sego, and Brown have made their contributions but have proved most valuable as defensive men with the exception of Sego, who is known as the belt tip-off forward that ever played for Western. Sego gets the tip-off from center at least half the time.

Starting his season by collecting 100 points in the first five games, Orle Lawrence was not able to set the terrific pace that is so characteristic of him. Two field goals were his contribution to Georgetown's downfall.

Hobby Brown, the smallest man on the Teachers' squad, turned in one of the best all-around floor games seen in Bowling Green this year besides garnering ten points to run Captain Elrod and Coffman close races for scoring honors.

Incidentally Western has not lost an athletic contest since last fall when it lost the opening football game to Centre College. Coaches James A. Elam, W. L. Terry, and Director of Athletics Ed Diddle have charge of athletics. Coach Elam is assisted in football by Coach Terry, who also handles freshman basketball. Mr. Diddle has complete charge of the pace setting varsity basketball team.

upon this occasion which marks the opening of the Physical Education Building. I desire to emphasize that this is not a dedicatory program, but a formal opening of this magnificent structure. This commanding Hill with all of the buildings on it will be dedicated next fall during Homecoming Week, at which time we shall put on a three-day program and will have with us a number of the great leaders and thinkers of America. The occasion will be known as Western's twenty-fifth anniversary.

This handsome new fireproof building constructed of Bowling Green white stone is one of the most portentous buildings on the campus. The outside dimensions are 125 feet by 225 feet including three full floors and a sub-basement under the south end. The total floor area exceeds 80,000 square feet and provides room for an auditorium measuring 100 feet by 180 feet with two cross courts for basketball and one standard court 50 feet by 90 feet, in addition to seating 5000 spectators. Provision has been made for eight unusually fine academic class rooms on the ground floor, as well as the locker- and shower rooms for Physical Education, which will accommodate between five and six hundred men and well over 300 hundred women, with ample space for additional equipment in the future.

Offices and drill room for the Reserve Officers Training Corps with storage room for gymnasium apparatus, military supplies, drill grounds and other equipment are located on this floor.

The main floor includes four offices and director's room for the health and physical education department with examination and clinical rooms as well as four large physical education class rooms.

The second floor consists of six fine well-lighted class rooms in the two end wings with a spacious rest room at the end of the building.

Fifteen hundred spectators can be seated in the balcony behind the running track which measures 1.13 of a mile in length.

On the sub-basement floor is located a large band practice room with band director's office adjoining. All mechanical equipment has been installed for heating facilities in the event the swimming pool is constructed in the future. There is also a large storage room on this floor.

All mechanical equipment and gymnasium apparatus has been selected in keeping with the quality of the building and every item has been purchased only after the most careful consideration. Ample equipment has been supplied for the immediate needs with the intention of making additions as the demand for work in physical education increases and additional equipment becomes essential to this program.

With the twenty class rooms afforded in this building, the emergency need for classroom space for instructional purposes will be greatly relieved.

We realize that College Heights as well as this building belongs to a human stock company in which every citizen of this Commonwealth is the owner of a piece of stock. We also realize in opening it that it is our duty to sanctify it by hard study; by earnest work; by expressing its harmony, its order, its articulateness, its sanitation, and its stateliness in our lives; by high life, high thought, high ideals, and a noble service; by seeing to it that its nobility is not marred by a single mark on a single wall or desecrated in any other way; by making the beautiful sunrises and sunsets which we shall witness from this Hill, the rising of a soul in a world of promise and opportunity and the setting of a soul amidst the splendors of a life well lived; and by making this beautiful physical panorama that we shall witness from hill-top and from classroom windows, a spiritual panorama to be transmuted into life; and finally, through a patriotic use of things spiritual and things material, to unlock the door that confines an imprisoned self and allow a new and greater Commonwealth to step forth—a blessing to man, a servant of God.

future generations of more than a purification for the efforts now being made to secure and make as real as possible these valuable spiritual and civic assets for the benefit of ourselves and posterity.

The Kentucky Building on the slope of College Heights is not yet an accomplished fact, but the movement has gone far enough and has gained sufficient momentum to convince those who have the matter in hand that the building is assured. There has been no intensive drive for funds for this shrine of Kentucky's patriotism, yet little more than a suggestion of such a memorial has had remarkable results. Subscriptions as far as this suggestion has gone, have been almost universal and extremely liberal. The proposition has a wonderful appeal because of its challenge to Kentucky's patriotism.

Associated with the idea of the Kentucky Building is the Student Loan Fund, which has already made approximately 2,500 different loans to students who, otherwise, would have been hampered, if not crippled, in their educational development. One of the two coordinated purposes of the Foundation is to inspire young Kentuckians to make the most of life and the other to aid them in a material way, to realize their hopes and ambitions.

The Kentucky Building is to be ideally located. There is no place in the state where such a building could be more fittingly placed than on the slope leading to College Heights, a spot already dear to thousands of young Kentuckians. This shrine will form a link in a chain of world-renowned Kentucky shrines and places, including the Lincoln Memorial, Mammoth Cave National Park, and the Jefferson Davis Monument.

Rev. Charles Leavell Enrolls At Western

Many Western students claim the friendship of the Rev. Charles G. Leavell, formerly of St. James Court, Louisville. Since June, 1926, Mr. Leavell has been a member of Christ Episcopal Church, of Bowling Green. This semester Mr. Leavell enrolled at Western in order to pursue studies in which he is interested.

Though he is a graduate of both the University of Virginia and the Episcopal Seminary of Alexandria, Mr. Leavell insists that his degrees do not keep him from enjoying the two undergraduate courses he is taking.

CAST FOR PLAY ANNOUNCED BY SENIOR CLASS

Miss Stack, Mrs. Marguerite Spillman, Mrs. Thompson, "Minnick," which is better known by the clem title of "Old Man Minnick," is one of the most discussed plays to appear in this country since the World War. After its New York premier in 1924, "Minnick" enjoyed a long run in that city and in other dramatic centers, was published as a magazine serial, was made popular in a silent movie by Theodore H. Roberts, and has recently been made into a Vitaphone production. It has just recently

Kentucky School Journal Publishes Article By Dr. Wilson

In the January issue of the Kentucky School Journal there appeared an article on "The Scenery and Wild Life in Mammoth Cave National Park" by Dr. Gordon Wilson, head of the English Department of Western.

In this interesting and authoritative article, Dr. Wilson reveals many discoveries and observations made by him in the past twenty years. Dr. Wilson has for many years made the study of birds his hobby, and he is no less interested in other phases of wild life.

In the conclusion of the article Dr. Wilson says, "Those who love scenery and wild life will find the Mammoth Cave National Park a great place to relax and to find nature restored after man has occupied the area for over a century."

been released for amateur production and is being staged by special arrangement with Samuel French, of New York.

The authors are two of America's foremost dramatists. Edna Ferber is well known by her 1926 Pulitzer Prize Novel—"So Big," and by "Show Boat."

The play, "Minnick," like "So Big" and "Show Boat," deals with the fundamental realities of life. Old Man Minnick finds it difficult to adjust himself to the ways of the younger generation when he comes to Chicago to live with his son and daughter-in-law. He tries to tell the young folks how things were done in "the good old days," but his advice is not appreciated. He finds himself an outsider in his own son's home. The complications arising and how the old man finally solves the problem, make up an interesting, enlightening, and very entertaining plot. Though more serious than any play yet attempted in the history of senior dramas at Western, "Minnick" is at the same time full of humor, which is furnished by the dry wit and petty remarks of the characters, and by the comical situations in which the characters frequently become entangled.

The advance ticket sale will be launched within a few days under the direction of Roy Graff, the business manager.

Mr. J. R. Whitmer Speaks At B. G. H. S.

On Wednesday morning, Feb. 11, Mr. J. R. Whitmer of the Ogden Department of Science, spoke at the chapel exercises of the Bowling Green High School. His subject was "Putting the Plus in Life."

He gave illustrations of great physicians, artists, scientists, musicians, and evangelists who have put the "plus" in life.

He closed his address with this thought from Emerson, "If a man can preach a better sermon, write a better book, or make a better mouse trap, men will make a beaten path to his door though he build his house in a woods."

Schoolmasters Club Organized Recently

The organization of the Schoolmasters Club was completed on Tuesday evening, Feb. 10, at a meeting held in the dining room of the State Street Methodist Church, South, with the adoption of a constitution and by-laws and the election of officers. The officers elected were: president, T. C. Cherry; vice-president, G. E. McCoy, and secretary-treasurer, W. H. Arnold.

W. J. Craig, personnel director, and W. L. Matthews, director of the Training School, are Western's representatives on the executive board of the organization.

The membership is open to all people who are engaged in educational work, and the objects of the organization, as set forth in the constitution, are: the promotion of educational interests among the schools and teachers of this vicinity and the cultivation of social fellowship among its members.

Stansbury Is Elected Coach At Lancaster

Edgar O. Stansbury, All-Kentucky football and basketball star while a student at Western, has accepted a position as coach at Lancaster High School, in Garrard County.

Mr. Stansbury, who was a member of the basketball, football, and baseball teams at Western for three years, ended his career as an athlete by graduation as a member of the class of 1930. A good second baseman and consistent hitter, Stansbury's most brilliant athletic achievements were, however, recorded on the basketball court and the football gridiron. He played at end for Western with the championship team of 1928 and the very successful 1929 team, gaining All-State recognition in 1928, in which year he was also named All-State guard in basketball.

After finishing at Western Stansbury went to Greenville High School, where he accepted a coaching position, and showed such promise as a coach that he has been called to Lancaster to become football and basketball mentor in a field offering him greater opportunities for showing his ability as a coach.

"Fireman," as he is known to his many friends at Western and in Bowling Green, will have the best wishes of his local admirers for success in his new position at Lancaster.

Decks For Physical Education Building Made By Students

Members of the Department of Manual Arts, after several weeks of steady work, have completed most of the furniture which they have been making for the Physical Education Building in time for the opening on Monday night, Feb. 9.

Office and class room desks are made of maple wood, every process of the making being done in the department. Prior to this, the Manual Arts students made some easels of pine wood for the Art Department. Much of the school equipment has been made in the Manual Arts Department and attests skill and ability of workmanship.

Mr. George Page, head of the Physics Department, spoke in chapel on Wednesday morning, Feb. 4, at the Bowling Green High School, using as his subject, "The Framework of Life." Mr. Page, speaking in his customary interesting and humorous manner, was well received.

W. M. Willey Has Article Published In National Magazine

In the December 1930 issue of The High School Teacher, a national journal of secondary education, appeared an article entitled, "The Junior High Movement in Kentucky," written by Mr. W. M. Willey of the Department of Education, Western Kentucky Teachers College.

In the article Mr. Willey traces the origin of the junior high school movement in Berkeley, Calif., in 1889, the major reasons for its inception, and the history of its rapid growth and popularity since that time, concluding the discussion with an intensive review of junior high schools in Kentucky. The paper is an interesting and valuable treatise on this phase of education, and has invoked favorable comment from the leading educators of the country.

On January 13, the class in Genetics, sponsored by Mr. J. R. Whitmer, visited the Insane Asylum at Hopkinsville.

Afterwards the buildings were inspected, the patients were seen in their own departments.

Missionary Po Africa Speaks To Students

On Jan. 19, Rev. H. M. Washburn, for many years a missionary in Africa, was a guest on College Heights, and spoke to the faculty and student body at the chapel exercises.

In an interesting and beneficial talk, Rev. Washburn described the living conditions as they exist today in the heart of Africa. Some of the instances cited by him were: how the man stays at home all day and sleeps and smokes while his wife spends her time in toil, securing necessities for her family, how the food-stuff is gathered and made palatable, how the missionaries teach the near-savage people how to grow and cultivate corn, and how the natives are taught Christianity.
