Western at a Glance

Western Kentucky University is part of the public Kentucky higher education system which includes eight, four-year institutions and 13 community colleges. By statute, Western Kentucky University is governed by its Board of Regents. Kentucky has no state-wide governing body; however, the Kentucky Council on Higher Education serves as a coordinating board for the system.

Western Kentucky University is located in Bowling Green, Kentucky, a city with a population of 50,000, and located approximately 110 miles south of Louisville and 65 miles north of Nashville, Tennessee.

Western's undergraduate division provides four-year programs leading to the bachelor of arts, the bachelor of fine arts, the bachelor of general studies, the bachelor of science, the bachelor of science in nursing, and the bachelor of music degrees. Eighty-eight (88) academic majors and fifty-seven (57) academic minors are available. A number of professional and pre-professional curricula provide additional options.

Eighteen (18) associate degree programs are offered leading to the associate of arts degree, associate of science degree, associate of applied science, and associate of general studies degree. Three certificate programs are also offered.

Graduate Studies offers the master of arts, master of arts in education, master of science, master of music, master of public service, and the master of public administration. Western also offers the specialist degree and rank I and II programs. Western participates in a joint-doctoral program in education with the University of Kentucky and in cooperative doctoral programs in education, aquatic biology, and fossil fuel chemistry with the University of Louisville.

Mission

Western Kentucky University offers a broad spectrum of instruction, scholarly activity, and professional service within an academic climate encouraging intellectual excellence.

Western Kentucky University provides instruction at the associate, baccalaureate, and graduate levels in the liberal arts and sciences, traditional pre-professional programs, and emerging career areas and professional fields including agriculture, business, communications, education, health, and technology. The University supports diverse scholarship, including basic and applied research and creative activity, in order to expand knowledge, improve instruction, and serve its varied clientele. The University directly supports its constituents with professional and technical expertise, cultural enrichment, and educational assistance.

Western Kentucky University affords educational opportunities in a climate that recognizes human diversity. The University is committed to increasing access for both traditional and non-traditional students, and to improving education at all levels. Finally, Western Kentucky University recognizes that its mission continues to evolve in response to regional, national, and global changes.

Note: Student credit hours are for classes in that region, but full-time/part-time status is for the University as a whole. Headcount numbers for an extended campus region should be considered only in the context of that region. Because of the possibility of duplication with other regions and on-campus headcount, headcounts should not be totaled to arrive at an extended campus total.

Note: Several departmental changes have taken place during the period covered. Departmental statistics have been adjusted as much as possible to simulate what the department statistics would have been if their present arrangement had been in effect during all the time periods. Student-Faculty ratios are calculated by dividing FTE students by FTE instructional faculty.

Institutional Advancement

Consisting of the offices of development, alumni affairs and university relations, the mission of the division is to: provide the public relation, donor relation, and marketing function of the university; establish the linkage with and involvement of our Alumni into the fabric of the university; and provide the university with a significant and sustained increase in private support.

The Vice-President for Institutional Advancement serves as the Executive Director of the Western Kentucky University Foundation. The Foundation has accepted the challenge of the Board of Directors of the University to undertake the University's first Major-Gift Campaign for the University's Academic and Educational programs and provide professional asset management for these gifts.

WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH

July 31, 1995

MEMORANDUM

TO: Vice Presidents, Deans, Directors, and Department Heads

FROM: K. Ann Mead K. Ann Mead

SUBJECT: 1995 Fact Book

A copy of the Western Kentucky University Fact Book, 1995 is enclosed for your use. The Fact Book is a summary of statistics about Western. It contains information on enrollment, academic programs, departments, faculty and other full-time personnel, finances, physical facilities, and alumni.

To streamline the cost of printing, the Fact Book is available to Western Kentucky University's network users. The Word Perfect and Lotus 1-2-3 files of the Fact Book are on the network in the directory F:\shared\factbook. A table of contents for the files is the file F:\shared\factbook\contents.doc. If you do not have network access and need data electronically, please call the Office of Institutional Research for assistance.

The format and content of the Fact Book have been revised this year. If you have any comments, suggestions, or questions, please give me a call.
