Message from the President

On behalf of the Board of Regents of Western Kentucky University, it is a pleasure to present our 2003 Fact Book. The Fact Book—an annual publication designed for students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends—presents a thorough and useful statistical picture of the University. The Fact Book provides answers to frequently asked questions about Western. It also provides insightful information about demographics related to our students, faculty, and staff.

We encourage you to use this Fact Book to increase your understanding of Western Kentucky University. The Fact Book is also available, along with other WKU publications, through the Internet at our Home Page (www.wku.edu) under the heading "About WKU."

We are in the formative stage of an institutional-wide transformation. Our quest is national prominence in every measurable way. Data in this Fact Book provides the empirical means by which we compare ourselves to peer institutions.

Should you have comments, need additional information, or have suggestions for future Fact Books, please contact the Office of Institutional Research.

Respectfully,

Gary A. Ransdell

Western at a Glance

Western Kentucky University is part of the public Kentucky postsecondary education system, which includes eight four-year institutions, 20 community and technical colleges. By statute, Western Kentucky University is governed by its Board of Regents. Kentucky has no state-wide governing body; however, the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education serves as a coordinating board for the system.

Western's undergraduate division provides four-year programs leading to the bachelor of arts, the bachelor of fine arts, the bachelor of general studies, the bachelor of science, the bachelor of science in nursing, and the bachelor of music degrees. Eighty (80) academic majors and seventy-one (71) academic minors are available. A number of professional and pre-professional curricula provide additional options.

Twenty-one (21) associate degree programs are offered leading to the associate of arts degree, associate of science degree, associate of applied science degree, and associate of general studies degree. Seven undergraduate certificate programs are also offered.

Graduate Studies offers the following degrees: the master of arts, master of arts in education, master of business administration, master of health administration, master of public administration, master of public health, master of science and master of social work. Western also offers the specialist degree, Rank I and Rank II programs and a cooperative-doctoral program with the University of Louisville. In addition, seven (7) graduate certificate programs are offered.

Vision and Mission

Western Kentucky University aspires to be the best comprehensive public institution in Kentucky and among the best in the nation.

Western Kentucky University prepares students to be productive citizens of a global society and provides optimum service and lifelong learning opportunities for its constituents.

General Information

Statement of Purpose

Western Kentucky University provides students with rigorous academic programs in the liberal arts and sciences and traditional and emerging professional programs, with emphasis at the baccalaureate level, complemented by relevant associate and graduate-level programs.

The University places a premium on teaching and learning. Its faculty engage in creative activity and diverse scholarship, including basic and applied research, designed to expand knowledge, improve instruction, increase learning, and provide optimum service to the state and nation. The University directly supports its constituents in its designated service areas of Kentucky with professional and technical expertise, cultural enrichment, and educational assistance. The University encourages applied research and public service in support of economic development, quality of life, and improvement of education at all levels, especially elementary and secondary schools. In particular, WKU faculty will contribute to the identification and solution of key social, economic, and environmental problems throughout the University's primary service area.

Maintaining a campus of distinctive history and character, Western sustains a student population of increasing quality. It fulfills its responsibility for access through its community college, extended campus programs, and distance learning.

Western's commitment is to ensure value in a holistic learning experience through high standards for student achievement and conduct, a strong faculty, technological innovation, personalized attention, broad access, and public accountability for actions and outcomes.

Western Kentucky University recognizes that its mission continues to evolve in response to regional, national, and global changes, and the need for lifelong learning.

Student credit hours are for classes in that region. Headcount numbers for an extended campus region should be considered only in the context of that region. Because of the possibility of duplication with other regions and on-campus headcount, headcounts should not be totaled to arrive at an extended-campus total. Enrollment on the Glasgow Campus makes up the majority of the enrollment in the Glasgow Region. Data for the Glasgow Campus are available on request. *Includes the following sites: Albany, Edmonton, Glasgow, Russell Springs, Columbia, Burkesville, Scottsville & Tompkinsville.

Institutional Advancement 2002

Private Giving Sources FY 2002

The Division of Institutional Advancement, in support of the mission of Western Kentucky University, provides the University with leadership, programs, and activities designed to provide:

- ▶ A significant and sustained increase in private support
- ▶ Cultivation and stewardship of our donors and volunteers
- ▶ Accurate information on our alumni and friends and accounting of all private support
- ▶ Coordination of initiatives designed to enhance communications and increase support for Western
- ▶ Internal and external communications services in support of efforts to build better understanding and appreciation of WKU among our alumni and friends
- ▶ Communication with and involvement of WKU alumni and friends in the fabric of the University.

The departments in the division include Advancement Services; Alumni Relations and Annual Giving; Major Gifts, Planned Giving; Stewardship; University Relations; Communications; Media Relations; Publications; and the WKU Foundation. These departments work in conjunction to increase support for the University and its programs.

Private support was up 25 percent for the 2002 fiscal year topping $12.3 million. The combined endowment has grown to more than $48.5 million. In addition, membership in the President's Circle, our recognition society honoring donors who annually give $1,000 or more to the University, has grown to 1,205 members.

Police Department

The mission of the WKU Police is to support the educational objectives of the University by crime prevention programming, preserving the peace, protecting life and property, and enforcing in a fair and impartial manner the regulations of the University, ordinances of the City of Bowling Green, and the statutes of the Commonwealth. Our mission is accomplished within the moral and legal standards of our community through a "partnership" of the community and the members of this department.

To this end, the WKU Police:

- Provides excellence in law enforcement to the university community, assisting each person served in finding solutions to their problems.
- Provides follow-up investigation, including referral to community and other law enforcement authorities in accordance with the needs of each person served.
- Creates an environment of caring and support through education and accessibility. Individual training of all law enforcement personnel will be incorporated in daily roll call, and all professional development courses.
- Is responsive to the needs of the university community, sensitive to issues, in modifying and expanding services to meet the needs of the community we serve.
