WINTER MEETING TO BE HELD PRIOR TO WKU - LOUISVILLE GAME

The Winter Meeting of the WKU Ag Alumni is scheduled for Saturday, February 26, at 5:30 p.m. at Downing Auxiliary Dining Room. The brief program will include: recognition of Outstanding Alumnus, recognition of Outstanding Contributor to WKU Agriculture, departmental up-date, and legislative up-date.

Cost of the meal will be $ 8.00 per person. A limited number of basketball tickets are available for $4.00 each. Please order your tickets early since the game is expected to be a sellout. Bus transportation to and from the game will alleviate parking problems. So that numbers can be guaranteed, please return the reservation form by February 15, 1983. Come out and support your Alumni organization!

In Memory

Dr. William H. Stroube - Funeral services were held October 1, 1982, for Dr. W.H. Stroube. Having served Western as Agriculture Department Head, Associate Dean of Ogden College and Associate Vice-President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Stroube returned to teaching in the Agriculture Department in 1980. His major responsibilities included teaching introductory courses and working with the FFA Alumni.

Mr. Orland N. Alford - Funeral services were held October 10, 1982, for Mr. Orland Alford who was killed in a tractor accident. Older graduates will recall Mr. Alford's teaching animal science courses. He retired from his teaching duties in 1978.

Scholarship donations in memory of Dr. Stroube or Mr. Alford may be donated to the Agriculture Scholarship funds in the College Heights Foundation.

Search Underway for New Department Head

A nationwide search is underway for our Department Head to succeed the late Dr. L.D. Brown. A screening committee composed of Drs. Jeff Jenkins (Biology), Charles Anderson (Animal Science), Ray Johnson (Agronomy), Robert Schneider (Agriculture Mechanization), and David Coffey (Social Sciences) has been selected. This committee will ultimately submit three persons for the final selection by the Administration. Approximately thirty applicants have been received with Drs. Gordon Jones and John Shirley applying from our faculty. The new Department Head will begin July 1.

Bet You Didn't Know

Wilson Stone has been hired temporarily to teach Dr. Stroube's courses. A search to fill this position is currently underway.

Joe Victor is teaching production agriculture in McHenry County College, Crystal Lake, Illinois.

J.C. McClellan is associated with Saint Catherine College in Saint Catherine, Kentucky.

Danny Coffey and Kirk Patton are teaching a new course, "Management of Agribusiness" at WKU.

Darrell Selby continues to improve after radiology treatments in Lexington, Kentucky.
