Hearst Photojournalism winners

Two Western photojournalists have been named finalists in the third and final photojournalism competition of the 1995-96 William Randolph Hearst Awards Program.

David O'Connor placed third, receiving a $1,000 award and Michel Fortier placed fourth, receiving a $750 award.

Along with eight finalists from two earlier competitions, these winners will submit additional photos for the semi-final judging in May. Six finalists will be chosen to compete in the National Photojournalism Championships in San Francisco.
