BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Drucilla Stovall was born on 14 July 1907 six miles northwest of Adairville, Logan County, Kentucky, to John William Stovall and Rosa Lillie (Flowers) Stovall. She attended the Pleasant Grove rural school and graduated from Adairville High School. She then matriculated at Western Kentucky University, afterwards teaching school for two years. Afterwards she took business classes at Bethel College in Russellville, Kentucky and then held several secretarial positions including one for an attorney at which time she became interested in court records.

Jones was always interested in history and genealogy. For over a decade she volunteered one day a week at the Logan County Archives in Russellville with other members of the Logan County Genealogical Society, processing court records. She held active memberships in the Daughters of the American Colonists, Magna Charta Dames, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of the American Colonists, and the Landmark Association. She published several genealogical books, including: A Family Called Fort: The Descendants of Elias Fort of Virginia (1970), Genealogical Records, 1965-1970: Samuel Davies Chapter D.A.R., Bowling Green, Kentucky (1971); Berea Christian Church, Logan County, Kentucky: History, 1841-1926 and Membership Books, 1841-1980 (1981); James Flowers and Theodocia Bagby of Buckingham County, Virginia and Their Six Children (1993); as well as several cemetery books. Most of Jones' genealogical work concentrated on southern Logan County, and she had a solid reputation for the accuracy and neatness of her records.

Drucilla married Erasmus Potter "Ras" Jones of Bowling Green, Kentucky, on 6 January 1936. They had three children: John Edward Jones, Drucilla Owen Jones, and Rosanne Jones. The family maintained membership in The Presbyterian Church and lived for decades in a historic home on Chestnut Street in downtown Bowling Green. Jones died on 3 October 2007 and was interred in Bowling Green's Fairview Cemetery.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists almost exclusively of family folders created by Drucilla Jones in her decades of genealogical work. The material concentrates on the southern part of Logan County, Kentucky. The file names created by Mrs. Jones have been retained. A Logan County historian and genealogist, Mark Griffin, volunteered his time and helped prepare the files for processing. Because of the size of the collection, it was decided that only a preliminary inventory would be created for the collection. Most of the older dates on the material reflect photocopies, not originals, of documents. The names in parentheses after the folder heading often reflect the names of those people corresponding with Jones and they too have been added to the subject analytics as the end of this finding aid.
