Mr. Donald B. Rafferty
Post Office Box 107 - College Heights
Western Kentucky University
Bowling Green, Kentucky  42101

Dear Mr. Rafferty:

Your letter of May 27 is acknowledged with sincere appreciation. You have presented your thoughts and expressed your viewpoints in a meaningful, straightforward, and constructive manner. For this attitude I extend my thanks.

Please know of my intention to consider your suggestions to a useful purpose. As you have implied in some of your comments, an individual relates to situations according to a variety of factors, including personal experiences. You recognize also that important decisions such as the one to which you refer on May 12 must be based on a careful evaluation of all the facts at hand and with the combined best judgment of many individuals.

We are in agreement on certain basic principles of human relations, institutional administration, and educational concepts. You have made other implications with which I disagree. In both cases, I find your observations to be helpful and well expressed.

I would be pleased to have the opportunity to discuss this or other matters of mutual interest and would especially like to have the pleasure of getting to know you personally.

With personal best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dero G. Downing
President

Dear Sir:

For the last five years I have been associated with you by the fact that we have both been members of the University Community at Western. During this time I have never officially expressed my views concerning administration policy as it affects the student, but the events of the last several days have convinced me that I can no longer remain silent on these matters. I do not intend to libel or condemn either the administration or university, but rather to express my concern in a constructive manner.

Perhaps I should first outline what might best be called my politics as far as the University is concerned. As a January graduate of Western, I am thankful for the opportunities which have been extended to me to further my education. As a member of a democracy I advocate the due processes which must be taken to insure the orderly operation of the University. This must be qualified, however, in that I also strongly advocate the right of any member of the Community to express his views concerning the issues facing us today. Because of this feeling I have sat in on the various rallies and demonstrations that have taken place on campus, but I do not support all actions taken by these concerned students. I was, however, unable to remain passive when the administration saw fit to levy its restraining order on May 12. This will always stand out as the bleakest day of my educational career.

While it is imperative that the University take positive measures to insure that the affairs of the University continue in a peaceful and orderly fashion, it is equally, if not more imperative that the University do everything it can to insure that no student be denied the right to express his views, even if these views are contrary to those supported by the University. It is evident, especially after last week's courtroom battle, that our University does not completely hold to this basic tenet of our Constitution. It seems to me that each individual should be guaranteed his basic freedoms under all circumstances, even if these circumstances do not uphold Western's many years of tradition.

Since I do not wish to encroach upon your time, I will limit myself to only one other topic at this time, and that is the allusion that has been made that the University operates like a high school. I am sure that the many people who have expressed their concern over this were not referring to the quality of material presented to us in textbooks and lectures, but rather to something much deeper and more relevant at the present time. A truly functioning university of today must consider that an education is not derived solely from what one reads in a book. An education, above all else, must be an experience of life in which we not only learn facts, but also the points of views of others, social interactions, and the ability to function in life by searching for those truths and values which are relevant to us in these complex times. If you will, sir, recall for just a moment the memories you retain from your years as a student. I sincerely hope I am correct in anticipating that your thoughts did not include any basic facts you may have picked up, but rather that your thoughts were a conglomerate of the ideas you shared with others and gained from them, and more important that you saw that period of your life as years spent in searching yourself and others in order to formulate the ideals and shape the ideas around which you structured your patterns of life. If not, I truly pity you, sir, for I feel that you missed the most golden of all opportunities afforded us as students. The fact that the University does not seem to see this as even a small aim of education, but instead places its emphasis on beautiful buildings, the payment of political debts, and the advancement of athletic academia is what concerns those of us who are sometimes tempted to evaluate our present educational environment as seeming much too much like a high school. I humbly ask you, Mr. Downing, in your position as chief administrator of Western Kentucky University, to survey the conditions prevailing on our campus and to take positive steps to alleviate those situations which so desperately threaten our continued status as a university. If we are to continue to advertise ourselves as an institution of higher learning affording all students the opportunity to experience life and hopefully therefrom obtain true meaning for their lives, there simply must be a reordering of the priorities at our University before we all become blinded to our fate.

Thank you for the time you have given this letter. Please now take time to carefully consider these thoughts and ideas I have presented, and please begin to take positive actions to help us and our University correct our faults and become viable and meaningful entities.

Sincerely yours,

Donald B. Rafferty

Dear Sir:

I suppose everyone in Bowling Green has a solution to the present situation at Western and the other colleges in Kentucky and elsewhere. I, too, have a solution.

First, I would require that every person seeking to come to Western for the Fall term file an application of admittance. Included in this application would be a statement that the prospective student agrees to accept the curriculum of the College as shown in the catalogue.

The prospective student would agree to live up to the rules and standards of the institution. The rules and standards will be interpreted by the President of the School. If the President feels that he wants to discuss any situation with anyone else, he can designate such a person or persons whether representative of the students and/or the faculty.

There is absolutely no compulsion on anyone to matriculate at Western, so if he or she does not like the courses of study offered or the rules and standards of the institution, he or she is perfectly free to go wherever he or she can be in harmony with the school chosen.

I feel that the students have absolutely no "rights". The "rights" to an education have been confused with the more exact word which is "Privilege". Schools have been built by thousands of taxpayers over many generations and if there are any "rights", they lie with those who have contributed to the building of the schools. Tuition, generally, does not pay more than about 1/3 of the cost of operating the school. The bigger share is borne by the taxpayers.

Schools are maintained by the taxpayers so that those who want to learn will have a place suited for that purpose. If a youth is so learned that he knows that the school is not teaching the proper courses or that the methods are wrong or that the rules are not right, he should go to some school where they have those things that he knows are right for him.
Mr. Dero Downing, President----Page -2-

In the event that he does not find such an institution, possibly he and his ilk can join together and build such a place.

Sincerely,

Jerry N. Bowman

It certainly is a pleasure to see someone do something to prevent trouble! I sincerely believe that had you not obtained the Court Order to prevent demonstrations on the "Hill", Bowling Green would have been in for its part of the modern trend--- "If you can't control, destroy".

I am sorry that I missed you at the Warren County Court House this morning as I would like to have told you in person how proud all of us in the area of Western Kentucky University are of you for heading off what could have been serious trouble.

Dear President Downing:

The undersigned of Tri-State Bedding Company, Inc., support you and your staff for the direct and efficient manner used in the handling of student related affairs.

It is axiomatic that where disruptive masses flourish and grow so also does sympathetic, submissive methods of the university staff become employed and fail miserably to curb campus disorders.

The governing rules of the university contain the distilled wisdom of many wise men and offer to our youth the world's greatest opportunity for self-advancement in all of the arts.

Disorderly protests accomplish no worthwhile goals. Student violence and the destruction of property is a poor way to discuss views. Moreover, universities that become plagued with radical, unrestrained violence can no longer discharge their responsibility to educate our future leaders.

We are confident of your righteous and steadfast attitude and assure you of our continued support in the best interest of Western Kentucky State University.

Dear President Downing,

I am a graduate of Western (Class of 38') and my wife, Virginia Nowlin is a former student. We have two daughters, Joyce and Helen, who are graduates of Western. We appreciate the opportunities Western gave us as students.

We feel a very small minority of students are trying to deprive the great majority of students of these opportunities. We feel that students should be heard but not by riot or demonstrations. A university president should not be put on trial because of the misconduct of students.

We are ready to support you in your stand for right. Call on us when you need us.

I teach Adult Agricultural Education in three Counties. I work with 73 families in these counties. These people say they will not send their children to a school where students cannot be controlled.

We do not want this to be said of Western. We are behind you 100%.

Come to see us when you can.

President Downing,

As a 1967 graduate of Western Kentucky University, I would like to voice support of your stand taken against disruptive demonstrations on the Western campus. Your actions indicate that the leadership of Western is in the hands of responsible men who will not allow the academic process to be interrupted.

Since 1963 I have seen the leadership at Western give the student body a bigger and bigger voice in campus affairs. Unlike many universities, this trend has been orderly and responsible. It is therefore with dismay that I view a handful of radicals who are not appreciative of this progressive attitude. Those who seek to tear down the excellent communications between the administration and students of Western are not acting within the spirit that has made Western the great university it is today.

With kind regards, I remain;

Sincerely,

Your effort to keep law and order at Western is appreciated by me. Those of us who love Western as I do and as you do can and will not sit idly by and see her become a place where outsiders and a few rebels will destroy what we cherish without having been heard.

You know part of the Joe Howard story but I doubt if many of those there now know the full story of how I was led from darkness to light by Western and her many leaders. I will not attempt to name them for they are or were many. I owe Western more than I can ever give for what she has done for me. It hurts when anything but the best comes from that Hill.

You have my support in anything which you see fit to do to keep her good name clean.

Dear Mr. Newman,

I can't understand the contradictory views of the student who wants to deny academic credit to R.O.T.C. Students but yet want to eliminate the draft. Do they want us to be an unarmed defenseless country? Why couldn't a young man who wants to prepare for a career in the military have the same right to pursue this career as on the Executive Peace Country, as one who is preparing for any other career.

Would any one of them want to be an unarmed security guard in a country where violence seems to be the just time of so many. I had two daughters graduate from Western. They lived on campus and it was a great service to comfort to me to know there were Armed Security Guards protecting them. Contrary to what they must think the security guards were there long before the teachable masses who are on our campus today.

Please don't give in to their Hernandez with the safety of so many in stake.

You sure have my prayers in this troubled time.

The responsibility that you hold must weigh heavily on your heart.

Please do not let the actions of a few irresponsible people deter your ideals for a fine institution of culture.
As a Legionnaire and a Veteran of Foreign Wars it is my privilege to speak to you for any other person on equal terms. Please do not let a few irresponsible — —

May 21, 1970.

Mr. Dero Downing, President,
Western Kentucky University,
Bowling Green, Ky. 42101.

Dear Mr. Downing:

It was a relief to hear Judge Coleman's ruling this morning although I had felt sure what it was going to be.

I suppose that such spec tacles are necessary to protect the "rights" of such irresponsible youths who feel they know more about what and how to teach than do those who have dedicated their lives to the teaching profession.

However, somewhere along the line, these youths must become aware of the fact that "rights" must be balanced by "responsibilities". So far, these youngsters have had no responsibilities. They are still nursing at the family fountain, and are at the University because of the work and sacrifices of their parents.

It may be time for the bulk of the student body at Western to express its views. Obviously, they are not in favor of the tactics of these malcontents, so why not let the college, town, state and nation know that about 10,500 WKU students and faculty are there to further the educational process, to learn and to teach, and that they are not with this small, though extremely vocal, "civil-rights" group.

Would it be possible for Western (and possibly all tax-supported schools in Kentucky) to mail every applicant for admission a statement explaining the rules of the college and requiring each applicant to sign it before his application is processed. The attached sheet gives some of the points that I think might be stressed.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

H. W. Kestila
Executive Director
In order to establish an orderly educational program and to ensure that the majority of the registered students at the University are accorded educational facilities to which they have chosen to cast their hopes for learning, the University feels that certain rules and regulations must be set up which, in the opinion of the University's legally and duly constituted administration, will be in the best interests of those students who come to this University to continue their educations.

Courses of study have been established and are set forth in the University catalogue. Students and prospective students are urged to study the catalogue carefully to determine whether or not this University offers those studies in which they are interested and want to pursue. All universities do not have the same curricula, so it is important for the student to check carefully before making an application for admittance in any university.

Rules for conduct in classes, lecture rooms, laboratories, dormitories, etc. will be set by the Administration. Rules and Regulations for conduct in all buildings and anywhere on the campus will also be set by the Administration. It is urged that any applicants for admittance decide before sending in their applications as to whether or not they will adhere to the rules and regulations of the University. If this is repugnant to them, they should not file an application at this University, but rather, at some other school where conditions are more in keeping with their ideas.

There is no inherent "Right" by any person or group (student, faculty, administration) to make use of any facility (either buildings or grounds) without express approval. The buildings and grounds do not belong to any of these groups. Rather, they belong to the taxpayers of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and these taxpayers, through their duly appointed representatives, have the right and duty to set up the curriculum and regulations which, in their opinion, will best serve the interests of those who come to the University seeking to further their educations.

Finally, there is no compulsion to attend ANY University. It is the free choice of the individual student. If, for any reason, he feels the University is failing him, he needs but to withdraw and make application elsewhere where he can be happy under existing conditions.

Dear President Hannaing -

My sophomore son, Peter M. Landreth, sent me a copy of the Statement of Purpose recently introduced by Volunteers. He further wrote me you acted on the first and took no action on the other.

Sincere Congratulations!

Peter wrote me about the Kentucky Mine Students and a Teacher coming to your campus. This is all wrong and a minority of bad can cause much harm. Colleges should promptly tell students many want to come to college. Those in college are just in time. They will be promptly expelled if they break college rules.

One in one parent who approves your decision. Sincerely yours,

We, the faculty and student body of Maytown High School regardless of our individual feelings toward the President's course of action in handling the 'war situation' do strongly resolve that -

Any college group protesting should follow non-violent and lawful procedures in showing its stand;

And if violence erupts law enforcement bodies should act immediately to restore order;

And if persons in these groups resort to disrupting normal procedures on a college campus, and if they deface or destroy public property, those persons should be prosecuted to the full extent of the laws of our Great Nation.

Dear President Downing:

In this time of confrontation I want to relate to you some of my thoughts about what has happened. My feelings can be considered to be on the conservative side but I feel that these feelings are more representative of the makeup of Western’s student body. It is the general consensus that letting students expound their feelings whether right or wrong is part of the learning process of a University and is acceptable to all. I laude your initial handling of this situation. Being a member of Associated Students’ Congress and present when the list of demands was presented I wanted to assure you that many members of the committee disagree with the individual demands but felt that the general ideas presented were ones of agreement. Also being very particular on points presented would only added more to the already existing tensions. We tried to tone down the demands so that they could be debatable. I still have serious doubts about those demands concerning academic credit for R.O.T.C. I ask that you dissolve the department and put the courses such as Military History into the History Department and have classes open to all students. There still can be someone to coordinate the program and lead the drills which receive no credit anyway. This way would not deprive anyone who wants to be in the program of what I consider to be their rights while dissolving what many see no need for. Also there is some doubt about campus police carrying loaded conventional weapons. To tell you the truth, I'm strictly confused; I know there is a need for some kind of protection of the defenseless but I wonder whether means like mace guns and the like might not be equally effective without the possibility of someone unintentionally getting killed. I know your time is valuable but please consider these opinions and again I want to say that I’m proud of your actions thus far and please keep cool. Also anytime you want any help or opinion remember, I’m always available.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Browning,

Naturally, I always read with great interest and concern anything related to Bowling Green, and especially Western.

This morning I read your speech to the student body. I'm sure the Courier Journal carried only a small part of what you actually said, but it was such a timely part—I thought it was excellent.

We all discuss Western frequently. Just today Nancy Williams and Mr. Howard were two! This week and it will be Newberry. Even faculty members at Moravian who did not go to Western often say, "What does Western have?" Really, I'm afraid to say. I'm trying to get around to saying all I talk to think you're doing a grand job. Really, I would like to say to those who don't know Western that there is a good Methodist at the head. of the thing. And this country enough - or old-fashioned at whatever one might want to tell me - to feel that the whole world could use some religion now.

May I say something very personal? Please forgive me for "overstepping" if I am; but I have too many brothers and in-laws and nephews who are to dear to me. And I feel rather close to you. Don't ever apologize for becoming emotional. That very emotion lifts you, I think, as a big person. One of the great writers said that only a great man need to stoop; I am trying to try to you that I truly feel that only a big person ever shows emotion. There are hundreds of students at Western who feel the same as I. I feel sure that Jane Leslie is one of them; she knows other men big enough to show their emotions.

This letter does not require an answer. Tomorrow I probably would not mail these, but tonight
I feel that I have to.

We are just proud of you.

Sincerely,

Christine Reeder

The concern of people everywhere is brought to the fore by the recent tragedy at Kent State University. The Campus Ministry Council is aware of deep feelings here at Western, as you are.

Our responsibility as Christian pastors in the midst of the university has prompted us to formally make ourselves available to Western if need should arise. We would not strive to be spokesmen for the administration or other groups, but to enter discussions as men concerned to bridge alienation.

NOT ALL THE ACTION on the University of Cincinnati campus is on the disruptive side . . . but the constructive activities aren't grabbing the headlines, or for that matter meeting with much success.

Take for example a program called OPERATION SOMEBODY CARES. It's sponsored by the Arnold Air Society and the Air Force ROTC at UC. They're attempting to collect small personal items . . . ranging from soap . . . to games and food . . . for use by servicemen in Vietnam.

So far the items collected wouldn't fill a cigar box. In fact four major chain stores refused to grant the group permission to place boxes in their stores so customers could drop off items.

Most business firms contacted by the ROTC group have even failed to reply to the request for assistance.

Anyone wishing to take part in this project can contact the UC Air Force ROTC at 475-2237.

PREDICTION DEPARTMENT:
Look for UC to reopen its Clifton campus next Monday. Pressure from the vast majority of students who want an education will be recognized.

INCIDENTALLY, speaking of the college problems, there are those wondering what ever happened to the vote being taken at the University of Cincinnati regarding student opinions on whether ROTC should remain on the campus or be dropped.

Word from one source is that the vote was so overwhelmingly in favor of ROTC that those who requested the vote are trying to find some excuse for keeping the results secret.

IF FOUR LEAF CLOVERS are really lucky . . . then Dorothea Correll of 2731 Topichilla Dr. in Cincinnati is in for a real lucky time. She found an eight leaf clover in her yard.

NITE LIFE: One of the first local bars to have go-go dancers is slowly dropping the wiggling act. The Tahiti Lounge is down to four nights a week for the dancing gals and on the weekend they bring in a trio called PART III. It's a young group, all under 24 years, but they're loaded with talent.

Incidentally, the group's singer, Robin Rachelle, is easier to look at than most of the go-go girls.

Hon. Dero Downing
President, Western Kentucky University College Heights
Bowling Green, Kentucky 42101

Dear Dero:

It is with combined chagrin and pride that Margaret and I have just read a copy of the restraining order issued by Judge Coleman concerning what appears to be serious student disorder at Western.

We were chagrined because we know how hard you, your predecessors, and most of the faculty members have worked to give the Commonwealth a university which is second to none by any reasonable measures of attainment; proud because you all acted so emphatically to preserve all that you have built. My only regret was that I was not in private practice in Bowling Green at this time to put my limited professional ability to work gratis in behalf of the University.

Limited as I am by time, place and status, I have taken the only course open to me to express my support for Western; I have written to Governor Nunn, asking him to take any and all reasonable steps to prevent the loss of innocent life or injury to innocent people and to prevent the damage or destruction of University property. We of Western have come too far to let rank irresponsibility and immaturity set us back by a single day.

Sincerely,

VINCENT J. SHERRY, JR, Lt Colonel, USAF-JAGD

Encl: Ltr to Gov Nunn
Hon. Louis B. Nunn
Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky
Frankfort, Kentucky 40601

Dear Governor Nunn:

Recently I noted that you were compelled by tumultuous circumstances at the University of Kentucky to dispatch the National Guard to restore and maintain order on that campus. I had meant to write to you at the time and express my personal support of your action, but the press of duties prevented my writing.

Today I received in the mail a copy of a restraining order issued by the Warren Circuit Court upon the application of Western Kentucky University, my undergraduate alma mater. I realized that the cancer which has plagued many colleges and universities this spring had finally come to Western and that a note expressing my support for your action at U. of K. and soliciting your help for Western, as needed, was in immediate order.

Unfortunately, I do not have any of the facts surrounding the disorders at Western. My position in support of President Downing and the university administration is based upon an abiding faith in the wisdom of their request for an injunction. I'm sure I express the sentiments of many "old grads" from the Hilltop when I say that we do not want to see death or injury to innocent students or damage and destruction of university property occur for want of Guard protection.

Western's present physical plant and student body rest on an infrastructure of industry and sacrifice, the hard work and doing-without of a number of Kentucky parents, many of whom possessed only modest educations, folks who wanted the best for their children and they now have it. These people paid the taxes and diverted some of their inadequate incomes to raise Western to its present status and they will not tolerate some northern or misguided homegrown revolutionary's nihilism. We all look to you to help us to preserve what we have.

I shall return to Bowling Green in late June or early July after having served the commonwealth and the country all over Asia for over two years. In the anticipated course of events I shall visit the Western campus, and I have no intention of being assaulted or intimidated by campus hoodlums.
With such emphatic executive protection as you authorized at Lexington, I'm sure my visit to Western will not be attended by threat of violence.

Sincerely,

VINCENT J. SHERRY, JR., Lt Colonel, USAF-JAGD

Dear President Downing;

My daughter is enrolled at Western, a freshman, and has just sent us a copy of the restraining order of May 12, and a student letter being circulated against this order. I would like to tell you that I stand fully behind your actions.

Susan has not so far as I know participated in any demonstrations and has been informed by us that she will be taken out of school if she does so. She's a President's Scholar, so I believe she will not jeopardize her education, but I thought perhaps you might be interested in her reactions. I quote from her letter, "this is giving an excuse to the dumb radicals on campus for action and I have a feeling there might be some kind of trouble soon."

I believe you have done the only thing possible in this situation and you have our full support.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jack W. Skiba

Dear Pat:

Our association has not been sufficiently close for me to be so presumptuous to address you in this manner; however, I have felt close to you because of the wonderful friendship you have always had with President Thompson and, more especially, because of your loyalty to, interest in, and support of Western Kentucky University.

Your wonderful letter of May 22 is received with appreciation, and I want to assure you that large numbers of people at Western Kentucky University are giving unselfishly of themselves in an effort to keep it the kind of school of which you and other Kentuckians can be proud.

I hope you will give us the pleasure of having you on the campus on frequent occasions, and I invite you to call upon me or others here if we can be of service at any time.

Sincerely yours,

Attention: Dero Downing, President

Dear Sir:

I backed Kelly Thompson and I will support you in problems faced by Western.

However, the majority (8 to 1) of citizens here reject the idea of students running a campus, especially a tiny radical minority.

We specifically reject the minority demand to remove credit for R.O.T.C.

R.O.T.C. provides the most excellent training for officer material to defend America in case of aggression. I am an R.O.T.C. man from high school and college, and this is the best training I ever had. It taught me leadership, organization, citizenship, and American history, etc.

One hundred student protestors, most of them innocent, are victims of the Communist plan to eliminate America's officer cadre. West Point and the Air Force Academy only graduate small classes. World War II was led by R.O.T.C. officers, one of them now a Major-General at Fort Campbell.

I ask that student radical leaders not be allowed to re-enroll at Western next semester. You might check the tenure on a few radical professors also, who should be teaching subject matter and not agitation.

This part of the State is highly aroused over U.K. and we expect firm leadership and disciplinary action at Western.

Be assured of my active and vocal support when needed.

Very truly yours,

Pat Tanner, County Judge

May 9, 1970

President of Western Kentucky University
Bowling Green, Ky. 42101

Dear Mr. President:

This is probably the most important letter that I ever wrote. It was prompted by the enclosed newspaper headline.

The contents of this letter could cause me to have a serious or fatal accident sometime in the near future and if so you will know why. Naturally I do not thing that is going to happen or I would not dictate the letter.

On Thursday, May 14, 1970 I will make a short but important talk to approximately 1200 people (about half students and about half adults) at a Junior Achievement Banquet. It is my intention to say approximately what I say in this letter.

For the sake of brevity I do not intend to elaborate so please accept what I say as true.

I have been around the world 7 times and I have visited approximately 50 different nations. When I say visit I mean that I did more than just walk inside the airport. I hired guides and a car and spent several days to as long as 17 days looking at the particular country and talking to the citizens thereof. I have spent from 4 weeks to 6 weeks in Hong Kong every year for the last 10 consecutive years on a buying trip. I have very many excellent Chinese friends in Hong Kong.

Because I have been fortunate to travel rather extensively I have had an opportunity to see and talk at first hand with people and learn a few things that the average person has not had the privilege to know.

One time when I had finished making a speech to a group of the subject "The Greatness of America" one of Owensboro's finest citizens Jim Matthews who was President of the Modern Welding Company, a local organization that operated on a national basis, came to me and said "Jimmie what you said about the greatness of America is certainly true. I have just returned from a 3 week visit to Russia and I was surprise to learn that from 2 to 6 per cent is all of the Communist there are in Russia and all of the other people (approximately 94%) are peasants or very poor and have practically nothing."
"All of the riches, all of the power of government is concentrated in a very small percentage of people which is something like two to six percent." He went on to say that when he arrived back in New York he was so grateful to be an American and he was so thankful to be back in the United States that he rushed to a telephone called his wife and cried like a baby because he was so glad to be home and so proud to be a part of these United States.

On one of our trips my wife became seriously and deathly ill in Dacca, East Pakistan. We had delivered a message to a young lady Doctor from her sweetheart in Napol. She was German born and a German citizen. She was an M. D. and worked as a doctor for the Ford Foundation in Dacca, East Pakistan. She told me that East Pakistan was suppose to be a democracy, but actually it was very very communistic. Also in Dacca we had a friend that was a young lady, a Baptist Missionary. She said that they (the Baptist Church) wanted to build a new hospital in Dacca, but the government would not let them build it because it would lend prestige to Capitalistic America. She also said, and I read it in the paper also, that in the city of Dacca which is probably a city of over 500,000 population that there were 30,000 cases of malaria to say nothing of the other infectious diseases such as leprosy, smallpox, tuberculosis, and on and on and on. There was one hospital in Dacca and it had something like 300 rooms.

I have a real close friend in Hong Kong and he never got enough confidence in me until last year (10 years) to tell me this story. Every year thousands of native Chinese go from Hong Kong back to Red China to see their family and friends. On one such visit this particular Chinese gentleman of which I would not dare give his name was questioned every day that he was there by the police at approximately 7 to 8 p. m. and asked questions for about an hour. They asked him such questions as "What type of business was he in, what nation did he sell to, what were the names of his customers, what kind of flowers, did he manufacture, and on and on." They would come every day and ask him exactly the same questions and this went on for approximately 1 week. He asked his uncle why they wanted to know all of these things and his uncle, who was a native in this particular Chinese town, told him that if he deviated the slightest bit from the answers to their questions they would have put him in jail.

This Chinese gentleman during his visit to his uncle in this particular China city noticed that there was continuously a siren blowing. After several days he asked his uncle why was that whistle blowing 24 hours a day. The uncle informed him that it was a police siren and that they were cleaning out the jail. By cleaning out the jail he meant that they put so many people in jail every day that they soon got the jail so crowded that they had to make more space by taking people from the jail to the edge of town where they were shot and killed. No judge, no jury, they just disappeared.
This same gentleman said that when they (the business men of Hong Kong) went out to a luncheon or gathering they had to be extremely careful and not say anything that was or could be interpreted as unfavorable to Communism. The reason for not saying anything was that almost every gathering was permeated with members of the Communist Party. If they said anything detrimental about Communism they were put on the black list and then when they made their trip on the train from Hong Kong to Red China they might be noticed by the police at any one of the many stops. The police board the train at every stop and they look at every person on the train. If they find a familiar face, that person is removed from the train and disappears. So when a Chinese returns from Red China to Hong Kong the very minute that the train passes the boundary line there is great excitement and great jubilation to be out of Red China and to be away from the Communist.

Now for the point I want to make. This Nation is now on the ropes. This Nation is now where the Communist have been trying to get us for 3 generations. Every segment of society in America is permeated with Communism. I do not mean to infer that everybody that works for the recognition of youth or even young people that burn buildings or union members that go out on a wild cat strike or people that sympathize or encourage such actions are members of the Communist Party. What I mean to infer and what I sincerely believe is true is that they are working for something that they actually believe in. They are working to better themselves and people like them. I don't think for a minute that they are doing this to harm in any way our great government, but the sad fact is that in achieving their end they are serving as tools or hands of the Communist party. We have these uninformed, misguided people serving as school teachers, or possibly even college presidents. We have them in government, we have them as business people, union leaders, union members, we have them every place in the United States and only a very very fraction of 1 per cent are actually Communist, but in striving to achieve one goal they are serving the purpose of Communism. For example they are pitting the black against the white, the gentiles against the Jews, the Protestants against the Catholic, the Democrats against the Republicans, the employee against the employer, and neighbor against neighbor and they are doing anything and everything that will cause or tend to disrupt and upset the people. They know that the thing they must do is to divide. Everything they do or entice their unknowing cohorts to do tends to create confusion and destruction of American from within.
The time to be a Democrat or a Republican has now passed. We are all Americans and we must stand behind our most excellent and our most honorable President. We must stand up and be counted for these United States, otherwise our children and grandchildren will not have that grand and glorious opportunity. Unless we start now to back our public officials the time is not too far distant when it will be impossible to get men of integrity to accept the responsibility of operating these great United States.

Sincerely,

Jas. A. Tapscott

Senators Move Toward Early Vote On Measure To Cut Off War Funds

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats moved Thursday to force an early vote on a proposal aimed at cutting off funds for the current U.S. drive into Cambodia.

The Democratic Policy Committee adopted a resolution calling on committee chairmen to give priority to measures relating to Vietnam and Cambodia, and Republican Leader Hugh Scott agreed to back the move.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told reporters the action could bring before the Senate late next week a military sales bill, along with a proposed amendment to bar funds for the Cambodia operation.

The amendment sponsored by Mansfield and Sens John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., Frank Church, D-Idaho, and George D. Aiken, R-Vt., is expected to come before the Foreign Relations Committee on Monday.

The House for a second successive day defeated a similar funds cutoff pressed by critics of President Nixon's decision to push against Communist forces in Cambodia. A bipartisan coalition crushed the proposal 163 to 94 on a nonrecord vote.

The amendment on which the Senate may be asked to vote shortly would bar all funds for "retaining United States ground forces in Cambodia," except those used for withdrawal of American forces.

Mansfield said he was not certain if the proposal, even if accepted by the House, could be passed in Congress before the June 30 target set by Nixon for ending the U.S. operation in Cambodia. But he said it would be a worthwhile addition to permanent law even if American forces have been withdrawn.

The resolution was offered by the Senate Democratic leader and adopted unanimously by the 13-member Policy Committee after a meeting of all Democratic senators.

It cites "the serious situation in Cambodia and the repercussions which it has produced within the nation" and calls on Mansfield to join with Scott in a bipartisan request to the appropriate committees so that the measures dealing with Southeast Asia "may be brought to the floor for consideration by the entire Senate at the earliest possible time."

Mansfield told reporters he had spoken to Scott and that the Pennsylvania Republican was joining in the request to the chairman and ranking Republican on the Foreign Relations, Armed Services and Appropriations Committees.

Fiscal Crisis - 2

City Schools To Operate On 'Austerity' Budget

EDITORS NOTE: The school districts, like the city, are facing fiscal problems caused by state-imposed limits on local financing and rising costs. This article discusses the situation facing the Owensboro Public Schools. The similar problems of the Daviess County schools were explored in a news analysis story Thursday.

Owensboro Public Schools will be operating next year on an austerity budget as the school board prepares to take in another notch on the financial belt.

Cuts in the planning stage include:

- A 50 per cent reduction in allocation for instructional supplies which includes textbooks.
- Elimination of all purchases of new instructional equipment - projectors, tape recorders and other teaching tools.
- A reduction in the teaching staff of at least 10 positions and possibly more to be accompanied by a 20 per cent reduction in teachers' salaries, a move by the board of education to remain competitive with other school districts and to give the present faculty a cost-of-living adjustment.
- When the General Assembly and administration allotted a $200 increase in state aid for salaries in this next school year, it didn't mean the district would receive $200 for increasing the base of every teacher," Dr. Hilliard said. "Actually, the increased aid will be about $50,000."

The minimum foundation program formula on the secondary school level is $82.50 per pupil per year, but the school board saw no increase in state aid in its budget proposal for next year.
