

2-1-1922

UA97/7 The Cardinal, Vol. 1, No. 3

Ogden College

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

 Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, Mass Communication Commons, Public Relations and Advertising Commons, Sociology Commons, and the Sports Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

Ogden College, "UA97/7 The Cardinal, Vol. 1, No. 3" (1922). WKU Archives Records. Paper 3970.
http://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/3970

This Other is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

The Cardinal

PUBLISHED FORT-NIGHTLY BY THE STUDENTS OF OGDEN COLLEGE

Vol. 1

Bowling Green, Ky., February 1, 1922

No. 3

New Regent Named

The old order has passed away, and the new order has been instituted. In the passing of Senator Wright, the college suffered a most deplorable loss, but it is evident that he displayed remarkable foresight when he named the Honorable R. C. P. Thomas as his successor.

Mr. Thomas is an Ogden alumnus of the class of 1890, and therefore has a large share of the spirit of the institution in his heart, because it has been truthfully said that no boy can graduate from Ogden without first fostering a love for the institution.

Since his graduation, Mr. Thomas has been very active in public life. He has been a member of the Bowling Green Bar for twenty-five years, and has served four years as the Treasurer of the City Board of Education, and four as City Attorney. He was a member of the firm of T. W. and R. C. P. Thomas for twelve years, and is now a member of the firm of Thomas, Thomas and Logan, Attorneys.

Mr. Thomas is noted for his hearty participation in public enterprises.

Chief among these is his fight for the establishment of a public wharf on Barren River, through which instrumentality Bowling Green and Warren county are saved approximately one hundred thousand dollars, yearly, in freight rates.

A Cardinal reporter credits him with saying that he is very much in favor of student activities, and that he will give his hearty support to any honorable cause the students might bring forth.

He also stated that the Board of Trustees will remain the same with probably one additional member, who will be a graduate of the college. The management at all times will be guided by the decisions of the board, which is at present composed of Hon. Max B. Nahm, Hon. W. D. McElroy and Hon. John B. Rodes.

The students and faculty of Ogden are glad to know that the institution will be under such an efficient management in the future. Mr. Thomas and the Board may rest assured that they will have the hearty cooperation of the entire school at all times.

BASKETBALL

On Saturday, Jan. 21, the Ogden quintette met the five of Southwestern Presbyterian University at Clarksville, Tenn. The teams were evenly matched and at the end of the first half the score was a tie at twelve and. In the last five minutes of play S. P. U. took the lead and finally won by a score of 35 to 25. The Ogden team was hampered by playing on a gym floor of different proportions from the "Y" gym which they were used to, but played their usual snappy game. Capt. Schneider and St. Clair started at forwards and performed in an excellent manner. D. Smith, who replaced St. Clair also broke loose with a number of baskets. The guarding of J. Smith and Shelton also featured. Southwestern played two entire teams during the game and this constant stream of substitutes enabled them to win.

The Moton Elliot College five was to have met the Ogden five on Saturday, Jan. 28, but the game was cancelled by Morton Elliot on Jan. 27, because six of their squad were sick with influenza. WARD C. SUMPTER.

Benefit Show

On the seventh and eighth of this month the students, cooperating with the management of the Diamond Theatre, are going to put on a show for the benefit of the Athletic Association.

The program will consist of the eight-reel production "Quo Vadis," and five acts of Ogden vaudeville. Several of the boys have volunteered to take part in this last part of the program. They are:

Lawrence DuncanViolinist
Logan & Burton ...The Country Lads
Roy MillikanMusical Bottles

As the price for this performance is only fifty cents, it seems that every one should see their full quota of tickets.

Ogden Literary Society Devotes

Third Meeting to Mock Trial

The third meeting of the Ogden Literary Society was given over to a very exciting mock trial. Following is the report of the trial as given by an eye witness:

"Guilty!" The one word rang in the ears of every man, woman and child in the crowded little courtroom. A long and tiresome trial, made lively at the close by the fiery speeches of the attorneys, and the sudden anxiousness of all to know the decision of the jury, had come to an end. The meaning of the word was simply this: Presley M. Perkins was found guilty of the charge against him, which was recorded as a "Malicious conspiracy against the Commonwealth of Ogden College," and is to be punished by that terrible new tortuous punishment known as the "Ninth Degree."

Was the trial a just one? Was there enough evidence against the prisoner to convict him? Is it possible that the witnesses were bribed to tell lies against this poor man? Was the judge himself a fair judge when he moved the jury to convict the prisoner? Let us review the trial itself.

Perkins was arrested December 7th by Sheriff Lee and Deputies Tichenor and Hill on a charge of malicious conspiracy against the Commonwealth of Ogden College. A speech, made the night before by Perkins at the annual football banquet of the college was the cause of the arrest.

(Continued on Page Four.)

The Cardinal

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR

Entered as second class matter at Bowling Green, Ky., under act of Congress, 1891.

THE STAFF

| | |
|----------------------------|-----|
| EDITOR-IN-CHIEF | |
| CARROL JAMES | '22 |
| ASSOCIATE EDITOR | |
| ALVIS TEMPLE | '24 |
| BUSINESS MANAGER | |
| CONRAD TICHENOR | '22 |
| ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGER | |
| EDW. B. STOUT, JR. | '22 |
| DEPARTMENTAL EDITORS | |
| ATHLETICS | |
| WARD C. SUMPTER | '22 |
| HUMOROUS | |
| JOHN R. ADSIT | '22 |

Editorial

AS OTHER FOLKS SEE US.

Human nature has an instinct of curiosity that causes us to have a profound interest in other folk's opinions of us. Naturally we feel highly satisfied when someone passes a compliment upon us. Therefore, everyone that is connected with our institution is highly elated over an editorial that was published in the Times-Journal a few weeks ago. It ran as follows:

Should Be Appreciated.

The human nature in us causes us to accept things as a matter of fact. It is for this reason that we often fail to appreciate the advantages and privileges that come to us from day to day.

It often requires a stranger to come to our community, and call our attention to the very great advantage that is part of the heritage of the youth of Warren county, when to each is offered a college education merely for the asking.

The above was written following a conversation, a few days ago, with a gentleman who recently moved to Bowling Green. When we called his attention to Ogden College, and the advantages that it afforded to the boys of Warren county, he seemed astounded that through the generosity of one man such a splendid educational opportunity should have been afforded for these past forty years, and that it is destined to go on for the years to come.

Under the new leadership of Dr. Edgerton as president, the college is doing a splendid work, and the student body as at present composed is doing its part to keep up the illustrious record of its excellent predecessors.

Every Warren county boy should at all times be thankful that such a man as Robert Ogden lived, and that he established an institution that has lived through the years to bless the youth of this county.

After reading the above article, it is easy to see that the Times-Journal is for our institution, and since scores of us received our first business training while carrying papers for Mr. "Jess," this article is all the more valuable in our sight. Ogden appreciates this tribute to her traditions and present features.

THE PRESENT SENIOR CLASS.

The Senior class of this year is by far the best in the history of the College, at least the Seniors themselves say so, and what they say goes. With eleven brilliant young men to begin the year with, the class has since added two more members, bringing the total to thirteen. However, no bad luck has happened to us yet.

At the meeting in which the class was organized the following officers were elected:

- Edw. B. Stout, Jr., President;
- Carroll James, Vice President;
- Conrad Tichenor, Secretary;
- Lively Holland, Treasurer.

All of these have shown the greatest ability in carrying out their duties. To tell the truth, tho, "Goofy" Holland has had an easy job, for he has not as yet been burdened with the task of caring for the class funds. But for this we cannot blame "Goofy."

This Senior class is indeed very fortunate in having such brilliant young men, who have all had a wonderful past.

Edw. B. Stout, ex-Football Manager, who claims to have a Harem near the Normal.

Carroll James, star end, has one great fault; that is, going to Franklin too often.

Conrad Tichenor, star halfback,

Cash and Garry Grocery Co.

Store No. 1—935 College Street
Store No. 2—Adams and Twelfth
Store No. 4—College St. Bridge

AUTO ACCESSORIES, FIRE
PROOF GARAGE.

Edwards - Pickering Co.

203—Both Phones—203

Native of McHenry, Ky. "Nuff Sed." Also likes to go to Franklin.

Lively Holland, professional neck tackler and ex-manager of soft drink department at "Doc" Noel's, also assistant professor of English.

John Richard Adsit, ex-sailor and is now a honorable member of the Home Guards.

Presley Perkins, famous for his unnecessary work and poetry.

Ward Sumpter, ex-member of the R. O. T. C. Member of the 1920 debating society. He is noted for his popularity with the ladies.

Webb Jackson, noted song writer.

Charles Renfrew, only radical in the class. Manager of the Basketball team.

Foeman Rudd, ex-minister and principal of the Rockfield High School.

Joe Schneider, ex-surveyor of the U. S. Geological Survey and is now captain of Basket-ball team.

Brenard Sigmier, ex-butcher of "Two Johns" meat market and member of 1919-21 football teams.

William Lee, ex-corporal of the R. O. T. C., will give information on jerking gasoline.

With such a successful past behind them, the members of the senior class of 1922 are assured a most successful future and will certainly uphold the past glory of old Ogden.

WILLIAM LEE.

Chas. F. Taylor, Jr.

Druggist

DRUGS AND ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES.

Robinson Transfer Co.

Phone 800. 321 Main St.

H. A. McElroy Co.

5 AND 10 CENT STORES.

E. R. Bagby

Authorized Ford Dealer.
Genuine Parts and Service.
Eleventh and State Streets.

THE DIAMOND LEADS

ATHLETIC GOODS AND KODAKS

Carpenter-Dent-Sublett Co.
THREE STORES.

Preps. Enter the Debating League

The Preparatory Department has entered the High School Debating Club which intends to conduct a series of debates among the high schools of Warren County. This work will be under the supervision of the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Dunn, of Murray, Kentucky, has asked Dr. Edgerton to serve on a committee of three that will have this work in charge. As Dr. Edgerton has accepted the honor, we are assured of a well-organized and a well-conducted club.

The following men are on the Honor Roll for the first semester:

College Department:

| | |
|--------------------|-------|
| William Lee | 94.0% |
| Ennis Harris | 93.0% |

High School Department:

| | |
|-------------------------|-------|
| George Carmichael | 93.4% |
| Howard Edgerton | 93.0% |
| Guy Howerton | 92.3% |
| Paul Hollins | 91.5% |
| Ewen Denham | 90.0% |

One other man, Paul Eisenhart, of the College Department, very narrowly missed being on the Honor Roll. His average was 89.5%.

The brevity of the Honor Roll is very indicative of the new standard of scholarship that the faculty instituted last August.

Williams & Moore
Society Brand Clothes, Stetson Shoes,
Notaseme Hosiery, Manhattan
Shirts.
Clothing House of Taste.

The Capitol Theatre
ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW

Bus.—“Ah! Je t’adore.”
She—“Shut it yourself, you left it open.”

Joe—“See that good looking girl smiling at me?”
Carrol—“She is too polite to laugh.”

Roemer—“Do you like coming to school??”
Huffman—“Oh I don’t mind the coming and going. It’s the staying I don’t like.”

Hill—“She refused you did she?”
Williams—“So it seems.”
Hill—“Did she actually say ‘no’?”
Williams—“No, she didn’t. All she said was ‘Ha! Ha! Ha!’”

Doc. Edgerton—“Do you think a painful reader would be a benefit to this class?”
Henson—“No.”
Doc.—“Why not?”
Henson—“Because no one can study when he has a pain.”

They sat on the porch at mid-night,
And their lips were tightly pressed;
The old man gave the signal,
And the bull-dog did the rest.
—Ex.

Prof.—“If there is any one in this lecture room who doesn’t like my lectures, will he please leave?”
(Entire class makes wild scramble for the door.)
Prof.—“Er-Er-I didn’t say class excused.”—Ex.

Prof. Palmer—“Houser, what is one of the memorable dates of history?”
Houser—“Mark Antony’s date with Cleopatra.”

Vale (to clerk in store)—“I’d like to see you apart for a moment.”
Lady Clerk—“Say, kid, what do you think I am? A picture puzzle for the little ones?”

Williams—“I took that pretty girl from the store home the other night, and stole a kiss.”
Ed Stout—“What did she say?”
Williams—“Will that be all?”

Warren County Hardware Co.
“THE WINCHESTER STORE.”
SPORTING GOODS.

Scott-Spillman Co.
For Clothing, Shoes and Men’s Furnishings.
SUITS TO ORDER.

Prof. Irwin (to Pat Shelton, sitting idle)—“Why don’t you work?”
Pat—“Because I would rather get an education.”

The Kiss.

“But—”
“No—”
“Just—”
“No—”
“One—”
“No—”
“Please—”
“No—”
“Tich, why don’t you shave?”

Perkins—“I’m a little stiff from bowling.”
Stranger—“Where did you say you were from?”

What relation does a stork bear to mankind?
Either a son or a daughter.—Yale Review.

Prof. Sublett—“My boy, your mother can’t get eggs without hens can she?”
Coleman—“Oh, yes.”
Prof. Sublett (astonished)—“How’s that?”
Coleman—“She keeps ducks.”

Callis Drug Co.
Cigars, Toilet Goods, Prescriptions,
Candies, Fountain Pens.

HIGH GRADE SHOE REPAIRING
WHILE YOU WAIT

T. J. Beal
Successor to Sam Pedigo & Son
325—Main Street—325

WALL PAPER CONTRACTORS
AND DECORATORS,

J. B. Sumpter & Bro.

938 State Street.

WHATEVER A MAN OR BOY USES.

E. Nahm & Co.

420-22 Main Street.

PREP. SOCIETY ACTIVITIES.

The last meeting of the Prep. Literary Society, presided over by Vice-President Rose, was a complete success.

The Yell Committee reported three peppy yells, but it was given more time in which to find other material. The set of Ordinances and By-Laws, offered by Secretary Edgerton, were found to be highly suited to the needs of the Society, and were adopted by an unanimous vote.

The subject of the debate was resolved that: "The Government should have complete control of the nation's railroads." The speakers for the Affirmative were Messrs. Holland, Satterfield and Howerton, while Messrs. Demmbrum, Massey and Saunders tried to convince the judges that the Negative was right. After the matter had been fully discussed the judges rendered a two to one decision in favor of the Affirmative. Mr. Cramer then entertained the society with an interesting extemporaneous speech on the "Disarmament Plan," after which Mr. Burton made a highly polished talk on the "Rubber Industry."

The programs so far have been highly interesting, and it is safe to say that future visitors will be satisfied with the entertainment provided.

ED. HOUSER.

The Best } CANDIES
SODAS
CIGARS
Princess Sweet Shop

The Citizens National Bank

Bowling Green, Ky.

Largest capital, best building, best vault. Give us your Business.

J. L. Durbin & Co.

Shoes, Shirts, Neck Ties, Underwear.

Best Prices.

Rogers Tea Room

Students' Sunday Night Supper.

State Street.

(Continued from Page One.)

The trial was held at the College a short time after the arrest. After Judge Renfrew called the court to order, the sheriff called the jurors to the bench, and brought in the first witness, R. Ennis Harris. After examination by prosecuting attorneys Adsit and Smith, and Attorneys Sumpter and Schneider of the defense, Harris stated that he was an associate of Perkins, and that, so far as he knew, the character of the prisoner was criminal.

The second witness, Mr. Holland, an eminent psychologist of Ogden College, stated that the several experiments, conducted by him upon Perkins, proved beyond doubt that he (Perkins) was a prey to a criminal turn of mind.

Mr. Temple, the third witness, declared with firmness that Mr. Perkins was a lunatic, but after further questioning by Attorney Adsit, he admitted that he was incapable of determining whether or not his statement was true.

Mr. Williams, the noted fingerprint expert, was the last witness. He stated that Perkins had been under his observation for some time, and he believed that his speech was made with criminal intent, and that it was a ridicule of the College, and that its purpose was to destroy the welfare of the institution.

With the statements of all the witnesses against the prisoner it was an easy matter for Attorney Adsit to convince the judge and the jury that the unfortunate man was guilty. Sumpter, defining the term conspiracy, proved beyond doubt that Perkins could not be tried on such a charge, and that every man is entitled to freedom of speech, and can not be tried for anything that he might say unless a felony against the state is contemplated, and yet the judge, perhaps for personal feelings, or again because of his fear of the cunning

REAL ESTATE

Herdman & Stout

INSURANCE

Fonville Shoe Co.

CHOICE FOOTWEAR

little prosecuting attorney, moved the jury, and the jury did as moved, to convict the prisoner. And then, not satisfied with a mere penitentiary sentence, the judge advised the jury to punish Perkins by the unspeakably terrible "Ninth Degree."

Friends of the prisoner, there is something rotten in Denmark. What are you going to do—stand by and see the rest rotted away, or pull out your knives and cut off the rotten part?

WILLIAM LEE.

COLLEGE SONG CONTEST.

The Ogden Literary Society has decided to offer a prize for the best college song composed by a student of the College. This song must be turned in by February 22nd, and must be set to the music of some good old-time tune. As the student-body is to be the judge of these songs, we can count on a highly musical Chapel program about the last of the month.

Old Maid: "Why aren't you in the army, young man?"

Young Man: "For the same reason you're not in the chorus, physical disability."

Charlie R.: "Was George Washington an honest man?"

Faher: "Of course, my son."

Charlie: "Then why do they close the banks on his birthday?"

Hartig & Binzel

Master Jewelers

PRICES REASONABLE

American National Bank

Bowling Green, Ky.

NO BETTER BANK ANYWHERE.