Good Hours

by Robert Frost - 1914

I had for my winter evening walk --
No one at all with whom to talk,
But I had the cottages in a row
Up to their shining eyes in snow.

And I thought I had the folk within:
I had the sound of a violin,
I had a glimpse through curtain laces
Of youthful forms and youthful faces.

I had such company outward bound.
I went till there were no cottages found.
I turned and repented, but coming back
I saw no window but that was black.

Over the snow my creaking feet
Disturbed the slumbering village street
Like profanation, by your leave,
At ten o'clock of a winter eve.

From our staff to your staff:
Wishing you & your family
a joyous & restful holiday season.
We look forward to working with you in the New Year.
Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!!
