HUENEFELD, Earl Warren, b. 1921 and Alvis Marie (Dunaway) Huenefeld, 1922-1994

SC2017.37.1

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Alvis Marie Dunaway, daughter of Troy F. Dunaway and Bertha L. Thompson, was born at Kings Mountain, Kentucky on 18 May 1922 and died on 12 December 1994. Earl Warren Huenefeld was born in 1921 to Chester and Edna Huenefeld. Both correspondents attended Eastern Kentucky University. It is clear from the correspondence that Earl Warren anticipates impeding military service. We learn from the correspondence that Alvis was a teacher at the Buck Creek School in Madison County, a tenure that she greatly disliked, and then the Science Hill School in Pulaski County. The couple eventually married and in 1945 were located in Orange County, Florida. They eventually returned to Kentucky, where Alvis was a teacher in the Southgate School in Campbell County, Kentucky. Alvis died on 12 December 1994 in Bowling Green, Kentucky.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection of courtship letters between Alvis Marie Dunaway and Earl Warren Huenefeld were written between 1942 and 1943. Many of the envelopes were retained as Warren often wrote notes or information on the flaps. Folders 2 through 5 contain the courtship correspondence which was interfiled, because there were only two correspondents; it was then arranged chronologically. Folder 6 contains some of Alvis’ music teaching material for the elementary level. Folder 7 contains a pencil sketch of Alvis Huenefeld and a student teaching evaluation for her.
