BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Born on 13 November 1881 in Russellville, Kentucky, Thomas P. de Graffenried graduated from Bethel College, then received his law degree from Columbia University. He practiced law in New York, served in World War I, traveled widely, and was an avid genealogist. In 1928, he published History of the de Graffenried Family 1191 AD to 1925, and also wrote The de Graffenried Name in Literature (1950) and The de Graffenried Family Scrapbook – 1191 to 1956 (1958). He died in New York City on 23 May 1961.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists of the manuscript of Thomas P. de Graffenried’s 1191-1961 Seven Hundred and Seventy Years: The de Graffenried Family Scrap Book Volume Two, a work of genealogy prepared as a supplement to his 1958 volume The de Graffenried Family Scrapbook – 1191 to 1956. The work (Folders 2-4) covers the history and genealogy of the family in both Europe and America. Also included (Folder 5) are photographs of the family’s European ancestral home and two ancestral portraits, along with a letter in German from a library in Switzerland that discusses existing family portraits.
