COLLECTION NOTE

This collection consists of two books recording personal injuries and deaths suffered in connection with the operations of the Illinois Central Railroad. The first book (Folder 2) covers 1929-1944, and the second book (Folder 3) covers 1958-1976. The books list the name of the injured person, their residence and occupation, the date and place of the injury, the cause and character of the injury, and the disposition of the case. Entries range from employee accidents to fatalities involving trespassers and motorists struck by trains. The disposition, where recorded, is in the form of a cash payment.
